A FAMILY REUNION

Contributed by: Martha Jane HAMPTON, [redacted]6
This photograph was taken approximately 1911 in South Georgia. Known persons are: 1st Row - lady in white blouse is Mamie HESTER; 2nd Row - gentleman with white mustache sitting slightly in front of others is Randolph JOYNER. The man with his hand on Randolph's left shoulder is Clinton TUCKER. Many of others are believed to be Crawford Countains. Can you identify other people, or help establish the actual date and place of the reunion?

SURNAME INDEX VOL. 15, 1993

NOTE: This surname index covers Quarterlies No. 1 thru 4. Pages 1-68 are in No. 1, pages 69-122 are in No. 2, pages 123-176 are in No. 3 and pages 177-211 are in No. 4. A dash between page numbers means that the name also appears on each page between such numbers. For example 63-66 means that the name appears on pages 63, 64, 65, and 66. Read carefully for a name may appear more than once on any designated page. Surnames spelled with two or more of the vowels a, e, i, o, & u may be found in many forms, i.e. HUDGINS.

CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.
POST OFFICE BOX 2024
WARNER ROBINS, GEORGIA 31099-2024

Non-Profit
Tax Exempt
Org. GA

ORGANIZATION: The CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, Inc. was organized in October 1978 by James T. Martin of Warner Robins, Georgia. In February 1981 the Society was incorporated as a non-profit organization under the law of the State of Georgia. The U.S. Internal Revenue Service has determined that the society is a tax-exemption organization under Section 501(c)(3), U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The Society is governed by a Board of Directors consisting of the elected and appointed officers and six elected Directors.

AREA: The Society's geographical area of primary interest consists of twenty-seven contiguous counties located in central Georgia. They are: BALDWIN, BIBB, BLECKLEY, CRAWFORD, CRISP, DODGE, DOOLY, HOUSTON, JOHNSON, JONES, LAMAR, LAURENS, MACON, MONROE, MONTGOMERY, PEACH, PIKE, PULASKI, TAYLOR, TELFAIR, TREUTLEN, TWIGGS, UPSON, WASHINGTON, WHEELER, WILCOX and WILKINSON.

PURPOSE: The purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

To collect, preserve and disseminate knowledge and information with reference to genealogical and related historical, biographical and heraldic data;

To inculcate and promote interest in research in these fields;

To stimulate and provide instruction in the use of efficient methods and the adherence to principles of accuracy and thoroughness in research;

To champion ethical standards and to discourage and oppose incompetent and disreputable practices or researchers;

To foster careful documentation and otherwise promote scholarly writing;

To issue publications, and

To promote the collection and the preservation of local records which are of genealogical or historical value.

MEMBERSHIP: Membership in the Society is open to any person interested in promoting the objectives stated above. Annual dues for 1994 are: $20.00 for individual membership; $25.00 for family membership (husband and wife, or two related persons in same household).

TRAINING: At least twice each year the Society conducts classes for beginner genealogists. These classes are free for members in good standing.

WORKSHOP: The Society plans to hold an all day workshop once each year, complete with exhibits, for members and the public. The registration fee will be set to cover the Society's cost and may vary from year to year, depending upon prices charged for food, meeting facilities, speaker fees, etc.

PROJECTS: The Society undertakes special projects for preservation of genealogical and historical information, such as: microfilming old newspapers, abstracting and publishing county court records, federal census records, cemetery records, etc.

PUBLICATIONS: The Society publishes a monthly NEWSLETTER and a QUARTERLY. The QUARTERLY is published four times per year as number 1 thru 4 and is mailed to all members in good standing. The annual volume number represents the years in existence. Many other societies, who are members, receive our QUARTERLY. QUERIES, from members only, are published in the QUARTERLY free of charge. There is no limit as to the number of queries which a member may submit. BOOK REVIEWS are published when a copy of the book has been received by the Society. After review these books are donated to the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA., whose holdings are one of the largest in the southeast. Members are encourage to submit ARTICLES FOR PUBLICATION in the QUARTERLY, and extra long articles may be serialized. The QUARTERLY is not copyrighted and anyone is welcome to make proper use of the contents; however, the use of articles quoted from other published sources is prohibited without permission from the copyright holder. Appropriate credit will be appreciated. The QUARTERLY is not sold by subscription. Current and back issues may be purchased from the Society when available. The Society welcomes the opportunity to publish FAMILY PEDIGREE CHARTS for members. Mimimum coverage of four generations is required. Our computer designed charts provided for as much information on the fifth generation as the second, third and fourth - most charts provide much less. Give us as much complete information as possible on available forms and separate paper.

MEETINGS: The Society holds regular monthly meetings with planned programs. These meetings are currently held at the Flint Electric Building, 1600 Elberta Road, Warner Robins, Georgia at 7pm on the third Thursday of each month. In addition to the program, time permitting, a question and answer session is usually conducted for the benefit of members who have a problem with their research, or who has found a better way for accomplishing their work. Visitors and guest are always welcome to attend regular meetings of the Society. Our current membership covers many states and we invite you to join our Society. For a membership application write to the Corresponding Secretary at address shown in the heading above or call (912) 953-3114.

CGGS MEMBERSHIP RESEARCH DIRECTORY
1993 - 1994

This directory contains a list of ancestors being researched by members, of the Central Georgia Genealogical Society, current for years 1993 and/or 1994. The directory was last published in CGGS Quarterly Vol 14, No. 1 (1992) for members current for the years 1991 and/or 1992. Ancestors in that directory are not repeated here unless they were resubmitted. If more than one submission was received, only the latest is included. Use the "member" number, in the right hand column, to find the member's name and address in the CGGS Membership Roster 1993-1994, which follows on page 31. An (*) following the "member's" number indicates research if for African-American families.

PULASKI COUNTY GEORGIA COURT OF ORDINARY LETTERS OF GUARDIANSHIP 1856-1909

Contributed by Victor R. MYRICK, [redacted]

Until 1856 records of appointment of guardians were kept in the Ordinary Court Minutes. From then until 1909 they were kept in a work of printed forms with blanks to be filled in. These records are of great value to genealogists. If a child is called an orphan it means that the father is dead. The mother might still be alive. In rare cases a father was appointed guardian of his children but this was an unusual event because the father was by law the guardian of his children. Most of the guardians were men, either a close relative or friend. This was done because of the custom against women managing businesses or looking after money and property. In some cases a man was appointed as guardian of his wife. This happened when she was still a minor and had inherited property.

In these records I have given first the name of the guardian, then the date of appointment and then the name and identifying information of the orphan.

JOHN EDWARD COSTON - 1866-1955 OF BROWNWOOD, TEXAS, SON OF REV. JAMES W. COSTON - 1819-1871 OF WASHINGTON COUNTY, GEORGIA. Compiled by Nora Coston Nunnelly, [redacted] Metal Fastener Pressboard Binder 8½ x 11 inches, 54 pages - numbered by chapters - appendix unnumbered, no index, no price given (few copies available from author). Copyright 1994, D & N Publishing Company, Muncie, IN. Copy donated to CGGS.

John Edward Coston was the only child of Rev. James W. Coston and his second wife Fannie Ward. He had two half-brothers and two half-sisters by his fathers' first wife Alafair Brown Newsome. In the first chapter, Mrs. Nunnelly presents a very interesting and sometimes humorous accounts of family life and traditions about her grandparents and each of their children. Her second chapter is devoted to her grandfathers half-brothers and half-sisters. The third chapter covers her great-grandfather and the Brown & Newsome relationship of his first wife. The fourth chapter contains many extractions of records pertaining to John & Anna Coston, who she believed to be her great-great grandparents. The appendix contains copies of newspaper clippings, family photos, marriage records, bible records and family group records. [Note: The bible of Rev. James W. Coston was printed in CGGS Quarterly 1993 Vol.15, No.2.]

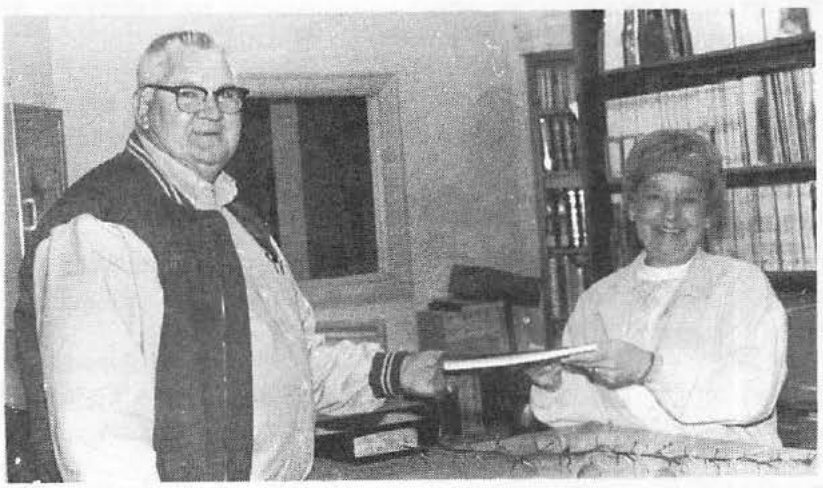
CGGS BOOK PRESENTATIONS

The Central Georgia Genealogical Society has recently published two new books. They are: Land Records of Houston County, Georgia 1834-1836 Vol. IV and Orange Hill Cemetery, Hawkinsville, Georgia 1833-1992.

The Orange Hill Cemetery book was compiled by Mr. Robert "Bob" K. Nobles, Jr., of [redacted] a teacher at Hawkinsville High School. In early 1970's, Mr. Nobles made an initial survey of the cemetery. During the summer of 1992, he returned to the cemetery to add the intervening burials before turning over his hand scribed readings to the CGGS for publication. He was astonished to find graves where streets had been before. What he thought would be a simple job took all his summer vacation time.

The picture at right shows Mr. Nobles, on behalf of The Central Georgia Genealogical Society presenting a copy of the book to Dot Baker, Librarian of M.E. Rhoden Library in Hawkinsville. On the counter is a limb and two of the miniature oranges which give the cemetery its name. The cemetery was originally called Orange Grove after the Mock Orange trees which were originally abundant there. One copy of the book was also presented to the Probate Judge of Pulaski County for review by persons doing family research at that office.



Mr. James Turnipseed, Jr., did the computer typing and indexing of the cemetery book and we prepared a map to correspond with Mr. Nobles readings. The book is softcover, 8½ x 11 inch, 146+ pages, Full name index. $14.00 plus $1.50 postage in U.S. Georgia residents must add $.70 state sales tax.

A copy of the Land Records book has been presented to Carolyn V. Sullivan, Clerk of Superior Court of Houston County and three copies to Judith Golden, Director of Houston County Public Libraries. The Land Records book is the fourth in a series of deed book abstractions by Mrs. Davine V. Campbell and by Mr. William R. Henry, Publication Chairman, who did the editing, indexing and prepared the reproduction maps of the original 1821 Land Lot Districts and each of the 16 districts showing numbered Land Lots in each. This book covers Deed Book "F" and is printed with soft cover 8½ x 11 inch, 403+ pages, Full name index. $28.65 plus $1.50 postage in U.S. Georgia residents must add $1.43 state sales tax. It is also a companion publication to 1822-1829 Land Records of Houston County, Georgia Vol. I, which contained Deed Books "A, B & C"; to Land Records of Houston County, Georgia Vol. II 1829-1831, which contained Deed Book "D" and to Land Records of Houston County, Georgia Vol. III 1831-1834, which contained Deed Book "E". A fifth book covering Deed Book "F" will be printed in the near future.

The R.J. Taylor, Jr., Foundation provided a grant to cover printing costs of the Land Records book. The cemetery book was 50% covered by a grant from the Foundation and 50% by the CGGS.

Both books can be ordered from the CGGS, P.O. Box 2024, Warner Robins, GA 31099-2024. Copies may also be purchased at the Genealogical Room, Washington Memorial Library, in Macon.

RECENT ACQUISITIONS AT WASHINGTON MEMORIAL LIBRARY

POLICY: The Central Georgia Genealogical Society, Inc., during 1987 discontinued the maintenance of a Society Library. The holdings in our Library were small and duplicated publications held in the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA which has one of the largest collections in the southeast. The Macon Library is centrally located within the 27 counties of primary interest of our society and can far better serve our membership. All publications previously held were presented to Willard L. ROCKER, Head Librarian at the Genealogical and Historical Room. All publication received by our society as gifts, donations, by exchange programs or for book reviews will be presented to the same library. Since 1987, it has been our policy to support the Macon Library particularly in the acquisition of microfilms of early county records within our jurisdictional area. We hope to expand our support as future conditions permit. As a service to our membership, this column list the acquisition of all records since the previous Quarterly. Inquiries with SASE (business size) may be addressed to the library at 1180 Washington Ave., Macon, GA 31201. William R. HENRY, Editor

NOTE: The genealogical collection of this library contains 19,975 books, 7570 microfilms, 6400 microfiche, 259 Maps and 60 subscriptions. The library serves over 13,500 visitors annually and the rate is increasing at 10.4% per year. During past nine months they came from 37 states, with Florida, Alabama, Texas, South Carolina, Virginia, Tennessee and California representing states (in order) with the highest number.

CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.
POST OFFICE BOX 2024
WARNER ROBINS, GEORGIA 31099-2024

Non-Profit
Tax Exempt
Org. GA

ORGANIZATION: The CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, Inc. was organized in October 1978 by James T. Martin of Warner Robins, Georgia. In February 1981 the Society was incorporated as a non-profit organization under the law of the State of Georgia. The U.S. Internal Revenue Service has determined that the society is a tax-exemption organization under Section 501(c)(3), U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The Society is governed by a Board of Directors consisting of the elected and appointed officers and six elected Directors.

AREA: The Society's geographical area of primary interest consists of twenty-seven contiguous counties located in central Georgia. They are: BALDWIN, BIBB, BLECKLEY, CRAWFORD, CRISP, DODGE, DOOLY, HOUSTON, JOHNSON, JONES, LAMAR, LAURENS, MACON, MONROE, MONTGOMERY, PEACH, PIKE, PULASKI, TAYLOR, TELFAIR, TREUTLEN, TWIGGS, UPSON, WASHINGTON, WHEELER, WILCOX and WILKINSON.

PURPOSE: The purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

To collect, preserve and disseminate knowledge and information with reference to genealogical and related historical, biographical and heraldic data;

To inculcate and promote interest in research in these fields;

To stimulate and provide instruction in the use of efficient methods and the adherence to principles of accuracy and thoroughness in research;

To champion ethical standards and to discourage and oppose incompetent and disreputable practices or researchers;

To foster careful documentation and otherwise promote scholarly writing;

To issue publications, and

To promote the collection and the preservation of local records which are of genealogical or historical value.

MEMBERSHIP: Membership in the Society is open to any person interested in promoting the objectives stated above. Annual dues for 1994 are: $20.00 for individual membership; $25.00 for family membership (husband and wife, or two related persons in same household).

TRAINING: At least twice each year the Society conducts classes for beginner genealogists. These classes are free for members in good standing.

WORKSHOP: The Society plans to hold an all day workshop once each year, complete with exhibits, for members and the public. The registration fee will be set to cover the Society's cost and may vary from year to year, depending upon prices charged for food, meeting facilities, speaker fees, etc.

PROJECTS: The Society undertakes special projects for preservation of genealogical and historical information, such as: microfilming old newspapers, abstracting and publishing county court records, federal census records, cemetery records, etc.

PUBLICATIONS: The Society publishes a monthly NEWSLETTER and a QUARTERLY. The QUARTERLY is published four times per year as number 1 thru 4 and is mailed to all members in good standing. The annual volume number represents the years in existence. Many other societies, who are members, receive our QUARTERLY. QUERIES, from members only, are published in the QUARTERLY free of charge. There is no limit as to the number of queries which a member may submit. BOOK REVIEWS are published when a copy of the book has been received by the Society. After review these books are donated to the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA., whose holdings are one of the largest in the southeast. Members are encourage to submit ARTICLES FOR PUBLICATION in the QUARTERLY, and extra long articles may be serialized. The QUARTERLY is not copyrighted and anyone is welcome to make proper use of the contents; however, the use of articles quoted from other published sources is prohibited without permission from the copyright holder. Appropriate credit will be appreciated. The QUARTERLY is not sold by subscription. Current and back issues may be purchased from the Society when available. The Society welcomes the opportunity to publish FAMILY PEDIGREE CHARTS for members. Mimimum coverage of four generations is required. Our computer designed charts provided for as much information on the fifth generation as the second, third and fourth - most charts provide much less. Give us as much complete information as possible on available forms and separate paper.

MEETINGS: The Society holds regular monthly meetings with planned programs. These meetings are currently held at the Flint Electric Building, 1600 Elberta Road, Warner Robins, Georgia at 7pm on the third Thursday of each month. In addition to the program, time permitting, a question and answer session is usually conducted for the benefit of members who have a problem with their research, or who has found a better way for accomplishing their work. Visitors and guest are always welcome to attend regular meetings of the Society. Our current membership covers many states and we invite you to join our Society. For a membership application write to the Corresponding Secretary at address shown in the heading above or call (912) 953-3114.

Also that Mary Winifred first married a REEVES and second Jacob SNELL.

BOOK REVIEWS

POLICY: Book reviews of publications pertaining to genealogy and related subject are published in our QUARTERLY as a service to our readers. Authors and publishers are invited to contribute publications for review. Books contributed for review become property of Central Georgia Genealogical Society, Inc., and after review, are placed with the Genealogical & Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA. Non-member contributors, on request, will be provided a copy of the review. Flyers announcing publication and sale of books and other publications, except those sponsored by CGGS, will not be reprinted or enclosed in the QUARTERLY but may be given a very brief announcement, on a space available basis, in our NEWSLETTER. Books for review should be addressed to: Quarterly Editor, Central Georgia Genealogical Society, Inc., P.O. Box 2024, Warner Robins, GA 31099-2024.

KELLYS OF LOWNDES, AND THEIR COUSINS. (LOWNDES CO, GA). Compiled by Woodrow W. Kelly, [redacted]. Soft cover 8½ x 11 inches, 160 pages, no index but table of contents devotes a separate chapter to the surnames of KELLY, TAYLOR, ATKINS, FENDER, COWART, DELOACH, GEDDIE, NASH, PITTMAN, SMITH, MATHIS, REGISTER, STRINGER, TOUCHTON, HANCOCK, McLANE, HOLTZENDORFF, JONES, and ALLEN, with a sub-listing of each family.

No price given. Copyright 1987, Kelly Publications. Copy donated to CGGS. A few copies available to societies or interested persons, but reimbursement for postage and handling is appreciated. Order from Hannah G. Kelly at above address.

Mr. Woodrow W. Kelly spent 5 years traveling extensively over the Southern United States and Ireland, gathering the genealogical history of his family. He was born and raised in Lowndes County, Georgia. He passed away very suddenly in 1991 while at work on additional information to supplement his book. He sold a few but most he gave away. It was his wish that the remaining books be given to various genealogical societies for their libraries. His book was donated to CGGS by his wife Hannah G. Kelly.

His book, particularly in the beginning, contains some family legend. However he treats legend as such and documents his research very well and has included a number of family pictures.

IN SEARCH OF CONFEDERATE ANCESTORS: THE GUIDE. (Journal of Confederate History Series, Vol. IX). By J. H. SEGARS, [redacted]. Soft cover 6 x 9 inches, 112 pages, indexed. Price $10 postpaid from author. Upon request, volumes will be signed by author. Copyright 1993, Southern Heritage Press. Copy donated to CGGS.

The book is an excellent step-by-step guide for the beginning genealogist as well as the experience and professional researcher. Most useful is his chapter on "Your Ancestor's Confederate Military Unit" and how to find records of his unit. It includes Confederate Research Materials found in southern state archives and libraries as well as northern depositories. Don't start your Confederate ancestor research without this guide.

CHRONOLOGY OF THE LIFE OF FRANCIS MARION SMITH - And his service in Company A, Forty-ninth Regiment Georgia Volunteer Infantry, Army of Northern Virginia, CSA "Wilkinson County Invincibles". By Charles Bryan Smith, [redacted]. Typed manuscript form, 29+ pages, no index but very fine table of contents. Copy donated to CGGS.

Contains a roster of Company A extracted from "Roster of Confederate Soldiers from the State of Georgia" by Lillian Henderson and many quotes from several books including "History of Wilkinson County" and "Wilkinson County Georgia Historical Collections". Mr. Smith was horrified to find his great-grandfather, Francis Marion Smith, was indicated as "AWOL" by Joseph T. Maddox in the latter record. He found Mr. Maddox source was the January 1865 muster roll indicating that he was "at home without leave" - with no elaboration. He concluded that this does not mean AWOL in the modern sense of the definition of this acronym as he found his great-grandfather's pension records at the Georgia Department of Archives and History in Atlanta. In this record, his great-grandfather stated he was "home on furlough when General Lee surrendered in Virginia". Your Editor recognizes there was considerable confusion on the location and accountability of individual troops near the end of the war but the first part of the statement "at home" indicates his unit knew where he was in January 1865. General Lee did not surrender until three months later. Did they make a mistake in entering his leave status? Unfortunately the statement on his pension application does not correct an official record. The manuscript gives an accounting of each battle, dates, and names of those killed, wounded, or death by disease.

RECENT ACQUISITIONS AT WASHINGTON MEMORIAL LIBRARY

POLICY: The Central Georgia Genealogical Society, Inc., during 1987 discontinued the maintenance of a Society Library. The holdings in our Library were small and duplicated publications held in the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA which has one of the largest collections in the southeast. The Macon Library is centrally located within the 27 counties of primary interest of our society and can far better serve our membership. All publications previously held were presented to Willard L. ROCKER, Head Librarian at the Genealogical and Historical Room. All publication received by our society as gifts, donations, by exchange programs or for book reviews will be presented to the same library. Since 1987, it has been our policy to support the Macon Library particularly in the acquisition of microfilms of early county records within our jurisdictional area. We hope to expand our support as future conditions permit. As a service to our membership, this column list the acquisition of all records since the previous Quarterly. Inquiries with SASE (business size) may be addressed to the library at 1180 Washington Ave., Macon, GA 31201. William R. HENRY, Editor

NOTE: The genealogical collection of this library contains 19,975 books, 7570 microfilms, 6400 microfiche, 259 Maps and 60 subscriptions. The library serves over 13,500 visitors annually and the rate is increasing at 10.4% per year. During past nine months they came from 37 states, with Florida, Alabama, Texas, South Carolina, Virginia, Tennessee and California representing states (in order) with the highest number.

FAMILY CENSUS REVISED

The Teacher was interested in the announcement by a little girl pupil that she had a new baby brother. "And what is the baby's name?" she asked. "Aaron," was the answer.

A few days later the teacher inquired after Aaron but the little girl regarded her with perplexity.

"Aaron?" she repeated.

"Yes, your baby brother."

Understanding dawned upon the child's face.

"Oh, Aaron!" she exclaimed. "Now I know who you mean. That was a mistake; the new baby's name is Zechariah. Popper and mommer checked up and found we already had an Aaron."

CGGS SERVICE DIRECTORY

The purpose of this directory is to publicize genealogical services offered by our members. It is a FREE service for members only. If you need help please correspond directly with the member listed in this directory -- do not write to the society for referrals. If you would like to be listed in this service directory, please write the Corresponding Secretary for an application form.

Some members listed in this directory may charge for their services, others may offer free services. The amount a member charges is up to the member. The society does not know who charges and who does not, neither does the society recommend one member over another.

1889 TAX RETURNS FOR CRAWFORD COUNTY, GEORGIA
(PARTIAL LIST FOR TABOR, BEASLEY, KNOXVILLE & SOWELL DISTRICTS)

Contributed by: Tina C. HORTMAN, [redacted]

These records were found in boxes and envelopes in the courthouse attic. The Probate Judge had them brought down. The originals are now located at the Crawford County Library and are the property of the Crawford County Historical Society. A few of the returns were not dated and some were dated 1894. With "thanks" to Leda STARNES, Librarian, for her help, Tina compiled a listing of the names for our publication. All names are spelled the same as on the returns. The original's will show the Land Lots, Acres, District, Value, etc. Read left to right across parallel columns.

ORANGE HILL CEMETERY HAWKINSVILLE, GA 1833-1992

Mr. Jack Dorsey, [redacted], has advised us that the Orange Hill Cemetery does not date from 1833 which was the earliest date of deaths we found there and used on the book cover. He states that the cemetery was not started until sometime in the 1860's. At that time burials in the Methodist Church Cemetery, the Baptist Church Cemetery, and family and other community cemeteries were re-interned at Orange Hill.

Mr. Dorsey also states that his father's marker, Samuel J. Dorsey, U.S. Army does not say W.W. II. He was in the army between W.W. I and W.W. II.

Thank you, Mr. Dorsey, for this information.

OLD MACON CITY CEMETERY

Several years ago, your Editor, purchased a copy of "Bibb County, Georgia Early Wills & Cemetery Records", by Jean Saunders Willingham and Berthenia Crocker Smith, 1960-1961, and published by the Mary Hammond Washington Chapter, Daughters of The American Revolution, Macon, GA. This copy was one placed on sale by the Friends of the Library when the Genealogical Section, Washington Memorial Library reduced its holdings to single copies. The book contained a reading of the Old Macon City Cemetery taken in February 1961 but found folded inside was a five page mimeograph copy of the history of the cemetery with earlier readings of more than a dozen additional names and epitaphs.

Willard Rocker, Librarian at Washington Memorial, did not know the source of the mimeograph history and suggested I contact Mrs. Smith. When contacted, Mrs. Smith, did not recognized the data or its source. She implied that Mrs. Willingham, now deceased, may have known. Mrs. Smith then agreed for us to publish the data in the interest of genealogy. The data is copied here verbatim:

The Old City Cemetery, or "Founders' Park", as we prefer to call it, is the sole remaining landmark dating from Macon's founding in 1823. There are no buildings or homes of this early period still standing. On Dane's Plan of the Town of Macon in 1823 this plot of land is known as "Church Square", but in the next few years the churches were granted other sites[1] and this became known as the Burying Ground, and was given to the Town for that purpose by an act of the Legislature in December, 1826. Prior to that time, it had been used by various church denominations for their burials, so it has been a cemetery from the very beginning.

The old graveyard contained four acres, embraced in Square 35, between 6th & 7th & Cherry & Poplar Streets, and probably had its entrance toward the 6th Street side. It has been referred to as "The Cherry Street Cemetery" and before the Terminal Station was built, of course Cherry Street was continuous down to this point. The present cemetery contains approximately 2 2/3 acres, with Peeler Hardware Co., on the 6th Street side, Dixie Plywood on the Popular Street side, and the proposed widening on the 7th Street side, having taken up the other 1 1/3 acres.

When you enter the Cemetery you will notice that all the brick enclosures and tombstones are diagonal to the street. This follows the pattern of all burial grounds a century or more old, as the plots were laid out to face directly East, the rising Sun being symbolic of The Resurrection.

Do not expect to find here the elaborate markers and tombs seen in Rose Hill and Riverside. They belong to a later date of the imposing white columned homes and impressive church buildings of the 1840's and 50's. This cemetery belongs to an earlier and different day, of the raw frontier town, the "jumping-off place" to the West, with Indians nearby.

At this time the City limits ended at 1st Street and went only as far as Pine and only a small portion of this was built upon. The first frame house was at the corner of 5th (called Bridge Street) and Wharf Street (now Riverside Drive). By 1825 we managed to build a one room wooden Court House, near 3rd and Mulberry. In 1826 the town contained 850 inhabitants and we opened a hotel, with board and lodgings for $15.00 per month. Although we grew rapidly, our town remained primitive. As late as 1834 the City Council Minutes refer to difficulties forcing the citizens to keep their swine out of the streets.

[1] Editor Note: 1827-1883 Miscellaneous grants, Book A - granted Lot 1, Sq 20, ½ acre on 22 Dec.1827 to Baptist Church. Lot 4, Sq 39, ½ acre on 16 Dec.1826 to Presbyterian Church and Lot 5, Sq 41, ½ acre on 6 Dec.1831 to Episcopal Church.

Keep in mind that whatever markers you see in the Cemetery were obtained with great difficulty. We did not yet mine Georgia marble, and all of these are either Vermont or Italian marble, floated up the Ocmulgee by barge and the lettering crudely cut by hand.

There are literally hundreds of unmarked graves throughout the cemetery. Some of these were undoubtedly never marked and others have lost their markers through the years. Among the graves of earliest prominent citizens which cannot be found are those of: Dr. THOMPSON BIRD, one of the original settlers of the town in 1823. He died in July 1828 and was buried by the Macon Lodge, Military Court and the citizens generally; Capt. WM. J. DANNELLY, who died in June 1831. He represented the county in the Legislature, was the 5th Intendant of the Town, was Justice of the Inferior Court, buried with military honors by the Macon Volunteers - which company he commanded at the time of his death being its second Captain. His age was 30 years; Capt. LEMUEL NEWCOMB, died Oct. 1834 at age 33 years. He succeeded Capt DANNELLY as Commander of the Macon Volunteers. He was buried by the Macon Lodge, of which he was Senior Warden, and the Macon Volunteers; Capt. JOHN ELLSWORTH, died Oct. 1839, age 40 years, an officer of the Macon Volunteers, buried with military honors; and Hon. ROBERT A. BEALL, died June 16, 1836, age 35 years, second Mayor of Macon, a writer, orator and lawyer, buried with highest military honor.

Few interrments were made after 1850. It soon became neglected and abanded. During the War Between the States, 265 Confederates who had died in the hospital in Macon were buried on the only unoccupied plot of ground with its limits. The last assemblage of people there was on April 26, 1867 when the members of the Ladies' Memorial Association of Macon met here and celebrated Macon's first Memorial Day. In 1872 the remains of those soldiers were removed to Rose Hill.

Five marked graves have been removed from the 7th Street area and reinterred by the City of Macon. There are many more, unmarked graves in the right-of-way to be considered.

The following are marked graves in the cemetery:

1. JACOB HETERICH.

2. The Lord have mercy on the soul of LAURENCE HEALEY who departed this life Feb. 6, 1840. He was a native of Ireland. Erected by PETER DYER.

3. To WILLIAM BERRY died 1846, age 45 yrs.

4. Erected by MAURICE WALSH To the memory of his wife JANE, who departed this life Aug. 5, 1840, age 18 yrs; a native of Nenagh, County of Tipperary, Ireland.

5. To the memory of THOMAS MULHOLLAND, a native of Ireland, was born County of Lumin, Parish of Cloon, who departed this life Nov. 22, 1837 aged 32 years. Erected by his brother, MICHAEL MULHOLLAND.

6. Here lies the body of FRANCIS TRAYNOR, a native of Monaghan County, Ireland, who departed this life Sep. 5, 1837, aged 26. Erected by P.M. & H. TRAYNOR.

7. In memory of THOMAS MULROY, died Dec. 13, 1842, age 26 yrs., a native of Parish of Medlock, County Mayo, Ireland.

8. To the memory of THOMAS JACKSON SAULSBURY, born May 31, 1810, Denton County, Del., died in Macon, GA July 23, 1841, aged 31 yrs. (He was elected Clerk of the Inferior Court, Dec., 1839.)

9. Here lies MRS. CINDERELLA GAINER, died May 23, 1837, age 24 years. Light lie the sod over the remains of her who was once animated by the same life and quickened by the same pulsations as those she left behind to mourn her untimely departure. She is adored by the noblest attributes of our nature and possessed of those virtues which sweeten the paths of adversity and render the rough ways of life smooth. Reader, would thou knew more? She lived an amiable life and died a Christian.

Infant Daughter of JOSEPH & CINDERELLA GAINER, died April 29, 1837. (This lot restored by the Mary Hammond Washington Chapter DAR, 1963).

10. Sacred to the memory of MARY ELIZA CASSELS, Dau. of JOHN & ELIZA WINN and wife of Rev. SAMUEL J. CASSELS. Born in Liberty Co., GA Oct. 12, 1809, died Macon, May 1838, in the 29th year of her age. The deceased united with the Church of Christ (Presbyterian by denomination) when 13 yrs., of age, continued with its fellowship more than 15 yrs., was an exemplary Christian, dutiful child, devoted wife, a faithful member and died a triumphant death. Her last words were "Christ is my only salvation." Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord; that they may rest from their labors and their works do follow them. Erected by the Ladies of the Presbyterian Church in Macon, GA.

J.W. CASSELS, died 1837, age 20 months. Child you must go.

20. SARAH ANNE R. C. RUSSELL, dau. of A. & R. RUSSELL, born March 17, 1831, died August 8, 1838.

21. Resposing here with her infant brother, who was lain in her arms Dec. 30, 1838, aged 18 days. To remain until called to arise in perfectness as they were here in innocence, by their Author.

22. To the memory of OLIVER SAGE, son of OLIVER & SARAH M. SAGE. died July 20, 1831, age 16 months.

23. ISAAC BUTLER a native of Wethersfield, Conn. Died Nov. 4, 1836 age 25 yrs.

24. The Stranger.

25. Sacred to the memory of SUSAN BRESSIE, consort of WILLIAM BRESSIE. Departed this life April 12, 1838, aged 41 years, born 1797. She is a kind wife, good neighbor and all lament her loss.

26. Sacred to the memory of ROBERT D. SMITH, who was born May 20, 1811, and departed this life Sept. 28, 1834. He lived beloved with out a foe; died lamented in the bloom of life, to bloom in the immortal state.

27. To the memory of an infant son of ROBERT & ELIZA COLLINS, died 1838, 4 wks. (Dr. Collins was on committee to establish Wesleyan 1835; with Elam Alexander bought Central Railroad to Macon and Electro-Magnetic Telegraph. Elected delegate on Union Ticket, 1850.)

28. The remains of HARRIET E. COLLINS, wife of Dr. ROBERT COLLINS, died April 20, 1834, age 31 years. Grieve not for me, my dearest friends, nor spend your tears in vain. I hope your loss in this vain World is my eternal gain.

29. Sacred to the memory of MRS. REBECCA PACE, consort of THOMAS PACE, daughter of JARED IRWIN; died Dec. 30, 1828, age 51 years. (Jared Irwin, Revolutionary Soldier, Governor of Georgia in 1796 and 1806.)

30. JAMES P. CAMPBELL, died July 18, 1833, in the 19th year of his age. He was the son of James A. and Jane Campbell, among the first members of Mulberry Methodist Church.

31. The remains of REBECCA MARY, dau. of ABNER & LAURA A. MC'GEHEE, died August 16, 1836, age 9 mos.

32. Sacred to the memory of THEODORIC L. SMITH, a native of Virginia. Died Dec. 22, 1839, aged 40 years. (Alderman in 1834; defeated in race for Mayor, after many counts; a Mason) Restored by the City of Macon, October 1963.

33. In memory of THOMAS M. ELLIS, who died Oct. 3, 1832, age 34 years. Tread softly stranger, for this is ground which no rude footprints should impress. With tender pity gaze around; let sadness all the soul possess. And stranger let your melting heart mark all this fresh and verdant sod and as you from scene depart; Oh, let your soul commune with God. (Mr. Ellis was a prominent citizen of Macon and had been made President of Bank and shortly afterwards, on the failure of the bank, was killed by Henry Byrum. One of the first settlers of Macon, the town owes much to him for its rapid growth; a native of Phila., respected member of the Baptist Church; Vice-President of GA Agricultural Society. Restored by the Macon Chamber of Commerce 1963.)

34. Sacred to the memory of EMILINE BUXTON, wife of WRIGHT C. SANDERS, Died Nov. 6, 1834, age 25 years.

35. Sacred to the memory of STEPHEN S. GOODRICH, of Oswego, New York. Died July 18, 1838, age 29 years.

CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.
POST OFFICE BOX 2024
WARNER ROBINS, GEORGIA 31099-2024

Non-Profit
Tax Exempt
Org. GA

ORGANIZATION: The CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, Inc. was organized in October 1978 by James T. Martin of Warner Robins, Georgia. In February 1981 the Society was incorporated as a non-profit organization under the law of the State of Georgia. The U.S. Internal Revenue Service has determined that the society is a tax-exemption organization under Section 501(c)(3), U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The Society is governed by a Board of Directors consisting of the elected and appointed officers and six elected Directors.

AREA: The Society's geographical area of primary interest consists of twenty-seven contiguous counties located in central Georgia. They are: BALDWIN, BIBB, BLECKLEY, CRAWFORD, CRISP, DODGE, DOOLY, HOUSTON, JOHNSON, JONES, LAMAR, LAURENS, MACON, MONROE, MONTGOMERY, PEACH, PIKE, PULASKI, TAYLOR, TELFAIR, TREUTLEN, TWIGGS, UPSON, WASHINGTON, WHEELER, WILCOX and WILKINSON.

PURPOSE: The purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

To collect, preserve and disseminate knowledge and information with reference to genealogical and related historical, biographical and heraldic data;

To inculcate and promote interest in research in these fields;

To stimulate and provide instruction in the use of efficient methods and the adherence to principles of accuracy and thoroughness in research;

To champion ethical standards and to discourage and oppose incompetent and disreputable practices or researchers;

To foster careful documentation and otherwise promote scholarly writing;

To issue publications, and

To promote the collection and the preservation of local records which are of genealogical or historical value.

MEMBERSHIP: Membership in the Society is open to any person interested in promoting the objectives stated above. Annual dues for 1994 are: $20.00 for individual membership; $25.00 for family membership (husband and wife, or two related persons in same household).

TRAINING: At least twice each year the Society conducts classes for beginner genealogists. These classes are free for members in good standing.

WORKSHOP: The Society plans to hold an all day workshop once each year, complete with exhibits, for members and the public. The registration fee will be set to cover the Society's cost and may vary from year to year, depending upon prices charged for food, meeting facilities, speaker fees, etc.

PROJECTS: The Society undertakes special projects for preservation of genealogical and historical information, such as: microfilming old newspapers, abstracting and publishing county court records, federal census records, cemetery records, etc.

PUBLICATIONS: The Society publishes a monthly NEWSLETTER and a QUARTERLY. The QUARTERLY is published four times per year as number 1 thru 4 and is mailed to all members in good standing. The annual volume number represents the years in existence. Many other societies, who are members, receive our QUARTERLY. QUERIES, from members only, are published in the QUARTERLY free of charge. There is no limit as to the number of queries

which a member may submit. BOOK REVIEWS are published when a copy of the book has been received by the Society. After review these books are donated to the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA., whose holdings are one of the largest in the southeast. Members are encourage to submit ARTICLES FOR PUBLICATION in the QUARTERLY, and extra long articles may be serialized. The QUARTERLY is not copyrighted and anyone is welcome to make proper use of the contents; however, the use of articles quoted from other published sources is prohibited without permission from the copyright holder. Appropriate credit will be appreciated. The QUARTERLY is not sold by subscription. Current and back issues may be purchased from the Society when available. The Society welcomes the opportunity to publish FAMILY PEDIGREE CHARTS for members. Mimimum coverage of four generations is required. Our computer designed charts provided for as much information on the fifth generation as the second, third and fourth - most charts provide much less. Give us as much complete information as possible on available forms and separate paper.

MEETINGS: The Society holds regular monthly meetings with planned programs. These meetings are currently held at the Flint Electric Building, 1600 Elberta Road, Warner Robins, Georgia at 7pm on the third Thursday of each month. In addition to the program, time permitting, a question and answer session is usually conducted for the benefit of members who have a problem with their research, or who has found a better way for accomplishing their work. Visitors and guest are always welcome to attend regular meetings of the Society. Our current membership covers many states and we invite you to join our Society. For a membership application write to the Corresponding Secretary at address shown in the heading above or call (912) 953-3114.

RECENT ACQUISITIONS AT WASHINGTON MEMORIAL LIBRARY

POLICY: The Central Georgia Genealogical Society, Inc., during 1987 discontinued the maintenance of a Society Library. The holdings in our Library were small and duplicated publications held in the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA which has one of the largest collections in the southeast. The Macon Library is centrally located within the 27 counties of primary interest of our society and can far better serve our membership. All publications previously held were presented to Willard L. ROCKER, Head Librarian at the Genealogical and Historical Room. All publication received by our society as gifts, donations, by exchange programs or for book reviews will be presented to the same library. Since 1987, it has been our policy to support the Macon Library particularly in the acquisition of microfilms of early county records within our jurisdictional area. We hope to expand our support as future conditions permit. As a service to our membership, this column list the acquisition of all records since the previous Quarterly. Inquiries with SASE (business size) may be addressed to the library at 1180 Washington Ave., Macon, GA 31201. William R. HENRY, Editor

NOTE: The genealogical collection of this library contains 19,975 books, 7570 microfilms, 6400 microfiche, 259 Maps and 60 subscriptions. The library serves over 13,500 visitors annually and the rate is increasing at 10.4% per year. During past nine months they came from 37 states, with Florida, Alabama, Texas, South Carolina, Virginia, Tennessee and California representing states (in order) with the highest number.

HADDOCK - HAWKINS - COLEMAN - MILLS JOINER - SUTTON - EDWARDS JARVIS - SAMPSON - MUSGROVE REDSTICK MASSACRE

....My GGG CHARLES HADDOCK, b. ca1800-1810; d. ca 24 Jun 1842, Dooly Co, GA; burial place unknown, but much sought after. His son, WILLIAM WARREN HADDOCK, SR. was progenitor of numerous HADDOCKS of Early Co., GA. GGG landowner, Houston Co., GA 1834; m. FRANCES HAWKINS, b. 15 Jul 1810, SC; d. 31 Dec 1872; bur. Damascus Cem., Early Co, GA. FRANCES, from Hawkinsville, GA; nothing known of her family. Her 2nd husband, Meth. Minister, REV. THOMAS CLARKE COLEMAN, b. 8 Feb 1794, Jefferson Co., GA; d. 25 Jul 1875; bur. Henderson, GA; (His family medical doctors that community.) GGG thought to be grandson of CHARLES HADDOCK; b. ca 1755, Pitt Co., NC; d. 12 Sep 1820, Pulaski Co., GA; bur. in MILLS/HADDOCK Family Cem.,Pulaski Co., GA. CHARLES & wife, ANNA had following children, all thought to have been b. NC, but resided Pulaski Co.:

1. MARY SPIRE MILLS, in Pulaski Co., GA 1808.
2. WILLIAM HADDOCK, b. 7 May 1783, Pitt Co., NC; wife, ELIZABETH JOINER, d.7 May 1823, Pulaski Co., GA.
3. SARA MOSES SUTTON
4. MARTHA EDWARDS

These Haddocks were closely related to WILLIAM A. HADDOCK & Inferior Court Judge WM. B. HADDOCK of Houston Co., GA, as well as Haddocks of Jones Co., GA. Specifically interested in burial site GGG & his connection to any HADDOCK lineage into Houston or Pulaski Counties. Anything regarding FRANCES HAWKINS family. Will share computer base on all GA HADDOCKS.

....MILLS/HADDOCK FAMILY BURIAL GROUND/CEMETERY on Double Branches, Pulaski Co., GA, "OLD BALLS FERRY ROAD"

Several documents & historical records of Pulaski Co., GA refer to the above cemetery & burial ground. CHARLES HADDOCK, b. 1755 Pitt Co., NC, patriarch of Pulaski Co. Haddocks and presumably members of his dau. MARY HADDOCK MILL'S (husband SPIRE or SPIRA) buried there. Mary & Spire were in Pulaski Co., GA as early as 1808. Charles, ca1819 moved near the "Old Balls Ferry Road & d. 1820. Others report this burial ground was on "Double Branches Creek" on a 202.5 tract, Dist. 21, L 353. Northern part of L 353 is mostly rough undeveloped tract across red dirt road from the Hawkinsville-Pulaski Sanitary Landfill, off 129A going to Cochran, GA. Two years searching area & talking with local residents, including present owner of land, all negative. Would appreciate any information concerning this burial ground or information on location of "OLD BALLS FERRY ROAD" Pulaski Co., GA.

....An 1857 deed to 202.5 ac. tract in present day Miller Co., GA indicates "RIGHT" M. HADDOCK in Doughtery Co., GA. The 1860 Baker Co., GA Census reports "WRIGHT" M. HADDOCK, b.

ca1809, with wife, MALISSA (JARVIS), b. ca 1811. The 1870 Baker Co., GA Census listed presumed wife of Wright residing with dau., MALISSA HADDOCK MUSGROVE, b. ca 1847 & son-in-law, SAMPSON MUSGROVE. Malissa and Sampson Musgrove, both bur. County Line Cem., Baker Co., GA. WRIGHT M. HADDOCK believed identical with "RIGHT M. HADDOCK & JAMES HADDOCK" of Jones Co., GA, who participated in 1832 Land Lottery. MALISSA JARVIS HADDOCK was sole survivor of RED STICK (Seminole Indian massacre at HAWKINS farm adjacent IKE MUSGROVE plantation near present border Miller/Baker/Decatur counties. Site presently JOHNNY FREEMAN road, running off hwy. between Colquitt & Newton, GA. Malissa, est. age 3 mo, was discovered hidden under iron kettle by soldiers Ft. Recovery. She was taken in by massacre site neighbors, an unidentified JARVIS family. Her natural parents killed & never identified were enroute from NC by wagon for settlement in FL. Any information on the above individuals or incident would be much appreciated.

[Editor Note: His submission has been condensed where possible.]

According to information that I have received from distant relatives and from others researching the family, Lewis C. CLARK moved from Virginia to Edgefield District, SC in 1792. He bought 765 acres of land between Johnston and Ward. The land was situated in what is now Saluda County, SC on Highway 23 near Ward, SC. This was also near Edisto River and in the vicinity of Philippi Baptist Church.

Lewis CLARK married Patience HOLMES of Johnston, SC. Patience was the daughter of Frederick and Charity HOLMES. In 1825 Lewis was stabbed in the shoulder and killed. The person commiting this crime was hung soon afterwards. The information I have says the only known reason for this crime was Lewis had exposed the knowledge of having seen this person steal shot in the War of 1812. Ben CLARK, a grandson of Lewis, states the crime was committed about an argument concerning a slave. Lewis and Patience CLARK had the following known children:

William A. CLARK, who married Mary SATCHER and stayed in South Carolina.
Joseph CLARK, who moved to Alabama.
James CLARK, who settled in Liberty County, GA.
Wyatt CLARK, who moved to Texas.
John CLARK, who settled in Johnson County, GA.
Alexander CLARK, who married (c1844) Frances MORING from Ridge Springs, SC and moved to Bulloch County (now Jenkins) about 1853.
One daughter who married Joe CULLUM of Augusta.

One daughter who married Dr. BUSH in Edgefield, SC.

Alexander CLARK, son of Lewis & Patience, was born 30 October 1817 in Edgefield County, SC. About 1844 he married Frances MORING, the daughter of John and Frances (Bell) MORING. Frances was born 12 October 1827 in or near Ridge Springs, Edgefield County, SC. They lived in Edgefield a few years before moving to Bulloch County, GA near Fourpoints. Frances' brother, Joel MORING moved to Swainsboro, GA about the same time. Frances died 24 December 1862 at Fourpoints and is buried in a small cemetery in Emory GAY pasture. After Frances died, Alexander married Saphronia Bland GAY, widow of Berry GAY and mother of Eady, Elmira and Fulton GAY. Alexander and his two oldest son, James & John Lewis were in the Civil War. James was killed near Columbus, GA in the war. Sophronia, who was born 1 January 1831, died 20 September 1900 and Alexander died 9 January 1904. Both are buried in Elam Cemetery at Fourpoints, now Jenkins County, GA. Children of Alexander and Frances were:

James CLARK 1845-
John Lewis CLARK 18 Jul. 1847 - 15 Oct.1921, married Mary Melvina CLIFTON.
Aaron A. CLARK 18 Feb.1850 - 14 May 1934, married Laura DUTTON.
William Wyatt CLARK 1 Jul.1852 - 27 Dec.1927, married Margaret AARON
Joseph CLARK 4 Dec.1854 - 22 Oct. 1938, married Fannie FOREHAND.
Patience (Patia) CLARK 19 Oct.1855 - 25 May 1946, married John T. CLIFTON.

Alexander Conley CLARK 19 May 1860 - 15 Oct.1938, married Martha Rebecca LEWIS.

Children of Alexander and Sophronia were:

Susan (Susie) CLARK 7 Mar.1864 - 4 Jan.1956, married James R. TURNER.
Laura CLARK 15 Sep.1867 - 21 Jan.1959, married Lewis Bartow WOMACK.
Wm Crawford CLARK 3 Apr.1870 - 31 Mar.1953, married Arabella NEWTON

William Wyatt CLARK, the fourth child of Alex and Frances was born 1 July 1852 in Edgefield County, SC and died 27 December 1927 near Garfield, Emanuel County, GA. Wyatt married Margaret AARON, the daughter of Charles and Margaret (Johnson) AARON c1877. They lived near Fourpoints, Bulloch County, GA in the early part of their marriage. On 30 December 1879 they purchased a farm 3.3 miles north of Garfield, Emanuel County, GA where they lived the balance of their lives. Wyatt was short and stumpy and liked to drink whiskey and smoked a pipe. He was a loud type person but he had good financial sense. He had a big farm and a pecan grove. Wyatt was an officer in the Grangers, a farmers organization. Margaret was tall and smiley. She was soft spoken and died from tuberculosis. They are both buried at Mt. Olivet Missionary Baptist Church, near Garfield. Their children were:

Beluah CLARK 2 Feb.1879 - 13 Sep.1950, married Homer ALLMOND.
Charles A. CLARK 18 Nov.1881 - 24 Dec.1929, married Ester BUNN.

Sallie CLARK 30 Aug.1882 - 18 May 1973, married Malley LEWIS.
Lottie CLARK 25 Dec.1885 - 1 Jun.1984, married Rowan JOHNSON.
W. Grover Cleveland CLARK 1 Jul.1884 - 10 Aug.1885, died young.
Wyatt Floyd CLARK 27 Jul.1887 - 10 Jun.1936, 1m. Mollie JOHNSON & 2m. Arrie CANNADY.
Maggie CLARK 13 Apr.1889 - 22 Mar. 1915, married Judson KING.
W.B. (Bill) CLARK 27 Sep.1890 - 29 Jun.1919, drowned - never married.
Dan Moore CLARK 23 Jul.1892 - 15 Feb.1945, married Lois SMALLING.
James K.H. CLARK 23 Sep.1894 - 28 Jan.1967, married Eva HALL.
Robbie W. CLARK 14 Mar.1896 - 12 Apr.1967, married Lula CROSS.
Fannie CLARK 20 Jun.1898 - 13 Oct.1899, died an infant.

Wyatt Floyd CLARK, son of William Wyatt and Margaret (Aaron) CLARK, born 27 July 1887, near Garfield and died 10 June 1936 near Garfield. He married Mollie JOHNSON, the daughter of David Crocket "Crock" and Laura F. (Gay) JOHNSON on 2 April 1911 in Emanuel County, GA. Floyd loved to whistle and sing and was a good father. He liked to drink whiskey and smoked cigarettes. He was a farmer and grew asparagus, cotton, corn, tobacco and peanuts. He alos had a peacan orchard. Mollie was born in December 1890 and died in September 1920. She was small person. She was wonderful, even tempered and loving type person. She had a one horse farm at Red Oak, about one mile north of Mt. Olivet Missionary Baptist Church. She was born Dec. 1890 and being a diabetic died young in September 1920. After Mollie died Floyd married Vianna Ariena "Arrie" CANNADY who was born 18 Oct.1902 and died 15 Mar.1993. Floyd and Mollie are buried at Mt. Olivet Missionary Baptist Church Cemetery. Children of Wyatt and Mollie were:

LIBRARY IMPROVEMENT???

Marilyn N. WINDHAM, [redacted] has sent us a clipping from The Sentinel, Orlando, Florida. The article tells that plans are underway to do away with the Genealogical Department of the Orlando Public Library and merge their records with the social sciences and audiovisual departments to make better use of library space and staff.

The Genealogical Department currently has a 15,000 volume book collection and occupies 4,720 square feet on the second floor. The books will be moved into a 4,726 square foot area in social sciences and microfilms will be shifted to audiovisual. This decision comes just five months after the library came under fire for "weeding" or removing thousands of books that haven't been checked out in two years to make room for more popular works.

Library director Glenn Miller feels that the move will ultimately give researchers better access to a broader range of material. He states no jobs will be lost in the move but the head of the genealogy department will be moved to the planning and local government department. This however has caused an uproar among patrons who frequently use the genealogy department and rely on its helpful staff. Marilyn Kangelos, President of the Central Florida Genealogical Society said the move could be the beginning of the end for the genealogy department. The collections date back to 1923 and many books are one-of-a-kind, very old and fragile.

In 1990, a survey conducted under auspice of the Florida Secretary of State, ranked Orlando's Genealogical Department as best among 29 public and 16 private Florida libraries. Where will it stand in a future rating? Genealogical books are not checked out but will they find a way to determine their use and axe them too?

We are already aware that many of our old county records in different states are being destroyed for lack of storage space? Some State Archives don't want them or have storage space. Your Editor is aware of counties that have issued contracts for microfilming before destroying old records. However these were awarded to low bidders, who did shoddy work, and the quality of the film is virtually unreadable with the documentation lost forever.

NATHAN BRYAN FAMILY

Contributed by: Devaine V. Campbell, [redacted]

Mrs. Campbell is the proud owner of a unique copy of the Nathan Bryan family history. Nathan, who appears in the following picture, was an early settler on the high ridge east of the Flint River above present Marshallville. From 1834 he purchased several sections of land in the area. His house was a stage coach stop on the old road from Knoxville to Travelers' Rest. He operated an early Slave Mart. An intelligent man with no formal education he soon became rich and represented the county in the Legislature in 1842. Contact Mrs. Campbell for further information on this family.

The Bryan Family Cemetery is located on Land Lot 110, 8th District of Original Houston, now Macon County, GA on Bryan Road (County Road 79), about 3½ miles from Marshallville, GA. Located in a woods at bottom of hill (The Bluff) on a curve of the road.

Can anyone connect this HODGES family with Edmond K. HODGES who with his sons-in-law John B. HAMITER and David HAMITER were among the first trustees of the Haynesville Academy, Houston County, Georgia? The academy was chartered in 1838.

[Editor Note: Edmund, Matt & Robert Hodges were on 1818 Tax List of Twiggs County. Edmund, Howell & John Hodges drew in 1820 Land Lottery from Twiggs County. The Messenger & Telegraph, Macon, GA reports Edmund Hodges, age 79, died January 11, 1843, at his residence in Twiggs County, Georgia. Old deeds recorded after the Twiggs County courthouse burned, 6 February 1901, show that Joel Hamiter, of the Territory of Florida, purchased large land holdings there in 1834 and five years later sold same at a $1,000 loss - John Hamiter was a witness to the 1834 transaction. See "Twiggs County Georgia Abstracts", by Bess Vaughn Clark. The July 1962 issue of "The Georgia Genealogical Magazine" shows Capt. Matthew Hodges was a company commander in the regiment of Georgia Militia commanded by Col. Ezekiel Wimberly, with War of 1812 service from Twiggs County, GA.]

CGGS BOOKS ON DISPLAY
MARSHALLVILLE'S CRAPE MYRTLE FESTIVAL

On July 2, 1994, copies of all the books published by the Central Georgia Genealogical Society, Inc., were placed on display at Marshallville's Crape Myrtle Festival. This display was set up in the old railroad depot now being used as a temporary museum by the local historical society. A number of family histories, old pictures and personal items of ancestors were among the displays seen by over 3,000 persons.

An old rawhide trunk owned by Nathan Bryan was the object of many conversations. He kept his savings under his bed in the trunk. When his neighbors sent a note for money, he would drop the note in the trunk, send the money, and the note remained there until the money was returned.

Marshallville is on the historical register, having been settled as a rural farming community in the mid 1820's, on the 8th and 15th District line of original Houston County. Following the 1821 Land Lottery, many of the first settlers were German colonists, who came from North Carolina (1820-1830) and from the Orangeburg and Newberry Districts of South Carolina (1830-1840). By 1840 the plantation system was well established and by 1849 they had a Post Office. The Southwestern Railroad Company laid track through the community in 1851 and the town was incorporated in 1854.

Development of the Elberta, Georgia Bell and Hiley Belle peaches by Marshallville residents gave impetus to the Georgia Peach Industry, that implemented a period of prosperity after 1870. In 1932, the Memorial Highway Association, led by Dr. John D. Wade planted the crape myrtles along Highway 49 as a memorial to Marshallville citizens who distinguished the community between 1830 and 1930.

Davine V. Campbell, who has compiled a number of books on Macon and Houston Counties for the Central Georgia Genealogical Society, was in charge of our display. She is shown above standing beside the display.

CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.
POST OFFICE BOX 2024
WARNER ROBINS, GEORGIA 31099-2024

Non-Profit
Tax Exempt
Org. GA

ORGANIZATION: The CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, Inc. was organized in October 1978 by James T. Martin of Warner Robins, Georgia. In February 1981 the Society was incorporated as a non-profit organization under the law of the State of Georgia. The U.S. Internal Revenue Service has determined that the society is a tax-exemption organization under Section 501(c)(3), U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The Society is governed by a Board of Directors consisting of the elected and appointed officers and six elected Directors.

AREA: The Society's geographical area of primary interest consists of twenty-seven contiguous counties located in central Georgia. They are: BALDWIN, BIBB, BLECKLEY, CRAWFORD, CRISP, DODGE, DOOLY, HOUSTON, JOHNSON, JONES, LAMAR, LAURENS, MACON, MONROE, MONTGOMERY, PEACH, PIKE, PULASKI, TAYLOR, TELFAIR, TREUTLEN, TWIGGS, UPSON, WASHINGTON, WHEELER, WILCOX and WILKINSON.

PURPOSE: The purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

To collect, preserve and disseminate knowledge and information with reference to genealogical and related historical, biographical and heraldic data;

To inculcate and promote interest in research in these fields;

To stimulate and provide instruction in the use of efficient methods and the adherence to principles of accuracy and thoroughness in research;

To champion ethical standards and to discourage and oppose incompetent and disreputable practices or researchers;

To foster careful documentation and otherwise promote scholarly writing;

To issue publications, and

To promote the collection and the preservation of local records which are of genealogical or historical value.

MEMBERSHIP: Membership in the Society is open to any person interested in promoting the objectives stated above. Annual dues for 1994 are: $20.00 for individual membership; $25.00 for family membership (husband and wife, or two related persons in same household).

TRAINING: At least twice each year the Society conducts classes for beginner genealogists. These classes are free for members in good standing.

WORKSHOP: The Society plans to hold an all day workshop once each year, complete with exhibits, for members and the public. The registration fee will be set to cover the Society's cost and may vary from year to year, depending upon prices charged for food, meeting facilities, speaker fees, etc.

PROJECTS: The Society undertakes special projects for preservation of genealogical and historical information, such as: microfilming old newspapers, abstracting and publishing county court records, federal census records, cemetery records, etc.

PUBLICATIONS: The Society publishes a monthly NEWSLETTER and a QUARTERLY. The QUARTERLY is published four times per year as number 1 thru 4 and is mailed to all members in good standing. The annual volume number represents the years in existence. Many other societies, who are members, receive our QUARTERLY. QUERIES, from members only, are published in the QUARTERLY free of charge. There is no limit as to the number of queries

which a member may submit. BOOK REVIEWS are published when a copy of the book has been received by the Society. After review these books are donated to the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA., whose holdings are one of the largest in the southeast. Members are encourage to submit ARTICLES FOR PUBLICATION in the QUARTERLY, and extra long articles may be serialized. The QUARTERLY is not copyrighted and anyone is welcome to make proper use of the contents; however, the use of articles quoted from other published sources is prohibited without permission from the copyright holder. Appropriate credit will be appreciated. The QUARTERLY is not sold by subscription. Current and back issues may be purchased from the Society when available. The Society welcomes the opportunity to publish FAMILY PEDIGREE CHARTS for members. Mimimum coverage of four generations is required. Our computer designed charts provided for as much information on the fifth generation as the second, third and fourth - most charts provide much less. Give us as much complete information as possible on available forms and separate paper.

MEETINGS: The Society holds regular monthly meetings with planned programs. These meetings are currently held at the Flint Electric Building, 1600 Elberta Road, Warner Robins, Georgia at 7pm on the third Thursday of each month. In addition to the program, time permitting, a question and answer session is usually conducted for the benefit of members who have a problem with their research, or who has found a better way for accomplishing their work. Visitors and guest are always welcome to attend regular meetings of the Society. Our current membership covers many states and we invite you to join our Society. For a membership application write to the Corresponding Secretary at address shown in the heading above or call (912) 953-3114.

 CHANGE OF ADDRESS

GEORGIA APPRENTICESHIP LAWS

Our President, Mr. Bud Davis, recently received a letter from Mr. H. Lamar Stewart, [redacted], who is a new member of our society. Mr. Stewart reported that family tradition states his great-grandmother, Nancy Hartford Webb Stewart, moved her children from Decatur County, GA to Florida to escape the Georgia Apprenticeship law that was passed in March of 1866. He remembers his grandfather recounting how the children considered themselves fugitives long after they were safely removed to Florida.

Mr. Stewart also sent Bud a copy of the 1866 law which one might interpret could have been used by Judges and Ordinaries to take advantage of the war-widowed, indigent mothers of the post-civil war period of economic, social and political upheaval. Bud states that his own gg-grandmother relocated her family to Texas in 1867, although he has no record of the move being prompted to protect her children from forced apprenticeship.

Long before the colonies were established, England established laws for the training of young men and women in useful occupations by binding them as apprentices to skilled workers. These laws not only applied to indigent orphans but to parents who wanted their children to learn a trade from a master. The English practice was transferred to the colonies. Early Virginia laws[1] required county courts to bind out, to responsible people, poor orphans and children whose parents could not (or would not) properly educate them "to learn some good and lawful calling." County courts were obligated to bind every poor orphan "apprentice, every male to some tradesman, merchant, mariner, or other person approved by the court, until he shall attain the age of one and twenty years, and every female to some suitable trade or employment, 'til her age of eighteen years..." The Master was required to teach both boys and girls to read and write, and often other educational requirements were included in the contract.

Your Editor has a set of The Codes of Georgia, which have been Annotated up to 1966. All acts that pertain to Master and Servant are listed under Title 66. The term Master and Servants covers a wide range of laws that have been amended and updated since the first constitution of Georgia. They include Employment and Wages, Indentured servants and apprentices, Injuries to employees in general, Injuries to railroad employees, and crimes.

Following the end of the War and of the Confederacy in May 1865, Governor Brown was arrested and taken to Washington. He was released on parole by President Johnson and returned to Georgia where he resigned on June 29th. President Johnson then appointed James Johnson, a former member of Congress and respected lawyer of Columbus who had taken no part in the government of the Confederacy, as Provisional Governor of Georgia[2]. He ordered a constitutional convention to convene in Milledgeville on the fourth Wednesday in October 1865. To qualify as an elector or member of the convention, a person had to meet the qualifications for voting that had prevailed in Georgia on January 19, 1861 and to take the amnesty oath of loyalty to the Constitution and laws of the United States and to the proclamation of the emancipation of slaves. Although many of the State's distinguished leaders, who had held high offices, civil or military, in the Confederacy were ineligible to qualify, the convention was not without able leaders. Of the 294 delegates who assembled, only 21 had been members who voted against secession in the Convention of 1861 and 14 had been defeated candidates in 1861 on an anti-secession platform. Charles J. Jenkins headed a committee of one member from each of the sixteen judicial circuits in the state to "report business for this convention". The convention met to bring Georgia into its former place in the Union. They repealed the ordinance of secession adopted by the convention of 1861; abolished slavery; adopted a new state constitution and repudiated the debt incurred by the state in prosecuting the war. The Federal government disapproved the Georgia Constitution of 1865, over the debt issue, leaving other acts to stand. Following the convention, Charles J. Jenkins was elected on November 15, 1865 as Governor of Georgia and was inaugurated on December 14, 1865. He was unopposed and received 37,200 votes. On December 19, 1865, James Johnson was relieved of his position as Provisional Governor and was directed by Secretary of State Seward to turn over the papers and property of the office to Governor Jenkins. Most of the people were accepting the new order and reconstruction, it appeared, was at an end in Georgia. During the year 1866 the government of Georgia functioned normally, except for the presence of Federal Troops and the Freedmen's Bureau and considerable progress was made toward reestablishing the economic life of the people.

In March 1866, Congress passed the Civil Rights Bill[3] which conferred citizenship on the Negroes-but not the right to vote. The bill also disqualified from federal and state office ex-Confederates who as officeholders had once taken an oath "to support the Constitution of the United States". This Civil Rights Bill was sent to the states in June 1866 and was finally adopted in 1868 as Article XIV of the U.S. Constitution. It was not until Article XV was adopted in 1870 that the Negro was given the right to vote.

A new Georgia convention met in March 1866, to again adopt a constitution acceptable to the Federal government. Again they failed to gain Federal approval but passed several other acts.

It was not until March 30, 1867 that General John Pope[4] arrived in Atlanta to take charge of the military district which included Georgia, Florida and Alabama. The new Radical Congress had just passed the Military Reconstruction Act on March 2nd of that year.

Reconstruction began all over again and there followed years of bitter experiences under stern military rule. Radical reconstruction was a greater hardship to endure then military defeat. Everything was turned around. Freemen, fresh out of slavery and with no preparation for citizenship, were given the right to vote and hold office. A state wide registration in April 1867 totaled 95,214 whites and 93,457 colored. Men who had held high Confederate political or military positions could not vote or hold office. Many historians feel that the rights of Negroes under the Military Reconstruction Act were illegal since Articles XIV & XV had not yet been approved by the states and thus adopted. Between 1867 and 1870 the southern negro had the rights of citizenship and vote while the northern negro did not.

A Constitutional Convention was held, under military supervision, in Atlanta on December 9, 1867 and remained in session until March 11, 1868 (The Constitution of 1868). There were 169 delegates, 37 were black, 9 were white carpetbaggers, 12 conservative whites, and 111 were native white or scalawags, so called because they aligned with the reconstructionist. The conservatives in the group gained sufficient strength to prevent domination by the blacks and carpetbaggers. Under the circumstances the Constitution[5] was the most progressive Georgia had ever had. The relief of debtors was given more attention than any other issue. Among other things a $3,000 homestead exemption was made free from judgment and allowed to each head of a family, guardian, or trustee of a family of minor children. However Governor Jenkins[6] refused to issue an order for payment of the delegate expenses. Upon his refusal he was replaced in 1868 by Gen. Thomas H. Ruger, a member of the Union Army from New York, who was detailed to act as Governor of Georgia. Georgia was readmitted to the Union in January 1871 but it was not until the convention of 1877 that the ablest men in the state met to adopt a new constitution.

To reiterate, the acts passed by the conventions of 1865 and 1866 were made by leading Georgian's most experienced in law. The major change to the Master and Servants acts was to drop all references to slaves. The Constitution of 1868[7] did away with the Inferior Court, which up till this time in each county was composed of a panel of Justices of the Peace, who set for county purposes. The Inferior Court was replaced by office of Judge Ordinarius, or the Ordinary. In more recent years the Ordinary was replaced by Judge of Probate and the business of managing county government was given to the County Board of Commissioners. A few counties still use the Ordinary as the chief administrative officer of county government.

Title 66-203 of the Code of Georgia which is a combination of the acts of 1865, 1866 & 1875 is still in effect to-day and reads as follows:

> "It shall be the duty of the judge of the county court, or the ordinary, to bind out in like manner all minors whose parents are dead, or whose parents reside out of the country, the profits of whose estates are insufficient for their support and maintenance; also, all minors whose parents, from age, infirmity, or poverty, are unable to support them; Provided, that before the judge of county court or ordinary shall bind out any such minor, such judge or ordinary shall give 15 days notice, by a plainly written citation, calling upon all persons interested to show cause why such minor should not be bound out, and specifying the time and place when he will pass upon the same; one of which citations shall be posted on the courthouse door of the county, and the other at some public place in the militia district in which said minor may then be, and shall also cause copies of said citation to be served upon the next of kin of said minor, if any be found in said county, at least 10 days before the hearing, and if no next of kin are found in the county, then the citation to be published once a week, for four weeks in the paper in which legal advertisements are published; and in all such cases the judge or ordinary shall appoint for such minor a guardian ad litem before binding him or her out, which guardian ad litem shall not be the applicant nor any relation of his. After a full hearing such judge or ordinary may bind out such minor or minors, if no blood kin of said minor or minors who are willing and competent to undertake their support and maintenance appear, and if no other good cause to the contrary be shown by such guardian ad litem, or any other person".

All other portions of these codes (66-2) that effect Indentured Servants and Apprentices were made by Acts of 1796, 1860, 1865 & 1866 and are still in effect today. There is no record of any codes in this series having been passed during conventions between 1867 and 1870 while under strict military control of the Military Reconstruction Act. In fact the wording of code 66-208, Right of apprentice to maintenance, protection and humane treatment, by Acts of 1796, has never been changed and remains in effect to-day. There have been many court cases involving Apprenticeships, such as mother giving consent without knowledge of father; illegitimate children; child of tender years (below age 14) does not assume risk arising from negligence of fellow servants; hiring out the apprentice by the master, etc.

So why would a mother, move her children from Georgia to Florida and tell them they were fugitives from the Georgia Apprenticeship law? They could not be fugitives unless a court citation had been issued and served. Florida was under the same military control. Florida, like all other states, had laws governing indentured servants and apprentices. If the family had money to move they surely had money to remain in Georgia and not place themselves as a burden on the county. Maybe the mother had other reason for moving. Maybe the children objected leaving their friends or sweethearts and the mother used this excuse to compel her children to leave and to control them from returning to Georgia.

Decatur County lies in the southwest corner of Georgia. This part of Georgia and upper part of Florida were served primarily by a railroad running from Tallahassee to Jacksonville. Many plantation owner in the area shipped their cotton to Jacksonville and hence by boat to northern states. Many opposed withdrawal from the Union because they would lose a source for their products, but once secession was approved, they came to-gather and served the south. Some didn't, and the 2nd Florida Union Cavalry, was formed by Union sympathizers and deserters from the Confederate army. It was made up mostly from residents of Jefferson County, Madison County and others from nearby Florida & Georgia counties and after the war was headquartered at Monticello, FL. For years after the war there was many conflicts between those who served on opposite sides.

My wife, had a relative Mary Emma Brown, whose father-in-law George Washington Gelzer had served the south, got into an argument on December 25, 1867 on the streets of Monticello, Florida with Richard Hightower, a person who served the north. Gelzer was shot and killed. Sheriff Oakley had to obtain the permission of the Federal Agent to go after the murderer with a posse. Agent Grumwell objected to the use of dogs. This took many hours before permission was granted and needless to say, the murderer was long gone and never apprehended. During this period of upheaval one can see why a widowed mother may have had reasons to move her children from the area.

SARAH RIDGE - A GEORGIA CHEROKEE

The Baytown Sun, a daily newspaper in Baytown, Texas on 21 April 1986 published "The Texas Sesquicentennial Souvenir Edition" which contained 30 pages of historical stories on the area. 6,000 copies were donated to local area school districts for use in their history classes and 4,000 copies were placed on public sale. One of feature stories, by staff writer Jim Kyle, was about a Georgia born Indian girl. The story is condensed where possible.

SARAH RIDGE Paschal Pix, resident of Smith Point in Chambers County in the 1800s, was the daughter of Maj. Ridge, a well-known Cherokee chief. One of his good friends was Sam Houston when Houston was serving as a congressman from Tennessee. Years later in Texas, Sarah's daughter and Houston's daughter became close friends.

Sarah Ridge was born in 1814 on her family's plantation in the Cherokee Nation near what is now Rome, Ga. Her father, Maj. Ridge, was a Cherokee chief. He had earned the rank of major under Gen. Andrew Jackson when fighting in the Battle of the Horseshoe against the Creeks. Ridge led a force of Cherokees in that battle. Sarah's mother was Princess Susannah, daughter of the last chief of the Cherokees, Choctaws, Chickasaws, Creeks and Seminoles.

Their territory ran from near the Great Lakes, south to the Gulf and west to the Mississippi. Princes Susannah and Maj. Ridge were among the Cherokees who supported education for children of their nation. Sarah was educated in mission schools and later at Cornwall, Conn. She attended a seminary in Winston-Salem, N.C., from 1826 to 1829.

As a small girl, Sarah became a pet of Sam Houston, a frequent visitor in their home. Houston was a Tennessee congressman, and Maj. Ridge took his daughter to Washington on tribal affairs. Houston took Sarah sightseeing in the nation's capital on many of their visits. Years later Sam Houston visited Sarah and her husband, John Paschal, and children in Galveston.

In 1835 Maj. Ridge signed the Treaty of New Echota which eventually led to the movement of the Indians to the west of the Mississippi on the infamous Trail of Tears. This sad, and long journey ended the once powerful Indian nation in the South. "I have signed my death warrant," Maj. Ridge said when he signed the treaty. Ridge, his son, John, and his cousin, Elias Boudenot, were later assassinated in Arkansas for supporting the treaty.

In 1837 Sarah Ridge married George Washington Paschal, an Army lieutenant from Georgia. Paschal opened a law office in Van Buren, Ark., where he and Sarah made their home. During the 10-year stay in Arkansas, Sarah gave birth to five children. The first two, girls, died at an early age. A girl and boy later died, leaving on 6-months-old Emily Agnes Paschal.

George Paschal had two brothers living in San Antonio and decided to move with Sarah and Emily to Galveston. Sarah gathered her family and slaves she had inherited from her father's estate and went to Galveston by steamer. They had ordered pre-cut lumber for a house from Maine sent by schooner in 1848.

In 1850 Galveston had a terrible epidemic of yellow fever. The dead were being buried in sand trenches. Sarah Ridge Paschal threw open her house to the ill, filling the halls and rooms with cots and beds. She sent slaves to beg for all the leaves from orange trees in Galveston yards. Using an Indian remedy, she made an orange leaf tea which healed the inflammation of the stomach and brought down the fever. Patients would return home in a few days, making room for more. Sarah never lost a patient. Dr. Edward Randall, who tended the sick, thought she was a miracle worker and gave her all the credit for saving so many lives. Her children had no fear and her slaves thought she could do anything. None of them even became ill.

In Galveston, Sarah Ridge Paschal again met Sam Houston. Her daughter, Emily Agnes, and Sam Houston's daughter, Nettie, became lifelong friends. Sarah's sons, George and Ridge Paschal, attended Fouchettes Military Academy in Galveston.

It was in Galveston that Sarah and George Paschal were divorced. He moved to Austin where he married Marcia Price. They had one daughter, Elizabeth. In the divorce, Sarah retained all the property and the dozen or so slaves as they were all acquired with her money or inheritance. She also had custody of their children, George, Ridge and Emily. George and Ridge became lawyers and George joined his father's law firm in Austin. Ridge became the U.S. collector of customs at Corpus Christi and later went back to Indian territory.

MR. AND MRS. Sisson Pix posed in this photo with their son, Forest Pix, who died at the age of 17. Sarah Ridge Paschal married Pix when she was 41 and he was 19.

In May 1856, Sarah married Charles C. Sisson Pix at the home of Gen. Mirabeau B. Lamar in Richmond. Pix was an Englishman whose father had a department store in Galveston. Sarah was 41 and Pix was 19. Sarah's new husband had visions of a big sugar plantation to be worked by his wife's slaves so she traded the Galveston home to Elinanor Frankland for 500 acres at Smith Point in Liberty (now Chambers) County.

Sarah Pix's last child, Charles Forest Pix, was born at Smith's Point in July 1857. The baby was idolized by his 10-year-old sister who chose Forest for his name. Forest's life was short. He died in Galveston in November 1874 at the age of 17. His body was brought back to his mother and he is buried under an oak tree he had planted as an acorn.

The sugar cane venture failed and the ranch had been stocked with cattle. There were no fences so cattle ranged from the Point to Liberty, Sarah used a brand shaped like a "lizard." It was the exact replica her father used in the Cherokee Nation, to identify her cattle.

Sisson Pix was a graduate of Fouchettes Military Academy at Galveston so he trained the young men of Double Bayou for the Confederacy. As the War went on, Sarah gave her husband a letter to Col. Stand Watie, her cousin in Indian Territory. He went on horseback to Stand Watie's regiment and was placed on Watie's staff. At war's end, he was a colonel and Stand Watie a brigadier general of the Confederate Army.

While Sarah Pix and her daughter, Emily Agnes Paschal, supported the Confederacy, her sons - like their father and Sam Houston - opposed secession. They remained loyal to the Union which made them very unpopular in Austin.

George Ridge paid $100 in gold for a fine horse and left Austin for Smith Point. He traded the horse to his sister, Agnes, for a sailboat and set sail for Galveston. There he got aboard a Union ship that was helping to blockage Galveston. George joined the Union Army and rose to rank of colonel.

The battle of Galveston could be both heard and seen from Smith's Point, only 18 miles across Galveston Bay. The war brought shortages and when there was no salt Sarah took her slaves to pools of tide water in the marshes where they boiled the water and extracted salt for the family.

While her husband was away at war for four years Sarah built up the ranch and herds of cattle until her place was headquarters for visiting cattlemen. They respected her and used her corrals for handling their cattle on the then open range.

THIS HISTORICAL marker can be found one mile north of Sn Point on Farm Road 562. Behind the marker is the site of the family homestead and cemetery. Heirs of Sarah Ridge Paschal still own the land.

The end of the Civil War meant the downfall of all Sarah Pix had worked so hard for. Losing her slaves meant the loss of labor for the cattle. The slaves wanted to stay but she told them there were good jobs in Galveston and she couldn't afford to keep them.

The years after the war brought trouble to the county when the Dicks moved in. They altered brands or just ignored them on other people's cattle. Since the Dicks consisted of 10 grown sons and their father, riding in groups of five or six with rifles and pistols, they terrorized the ranches.

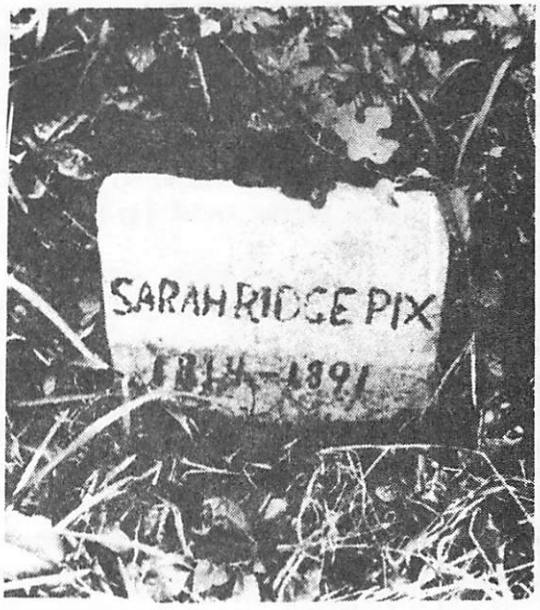
During this time, Sarah's daughter and her husband, William McNeir, of Maryland, came back to the ranch from Washington, D.C. They found that her mother's husband had deserted her and was living with Emma Dick of the cattle thieves. With their encouragement, Sarah filed suit for divorce on January 15, 1880.

At that time, a woman's property also belonged to her husband. The first judgment then gave Sisson Pix half the property although all of it had originally belonged to Sarah. Her daughter sat up all night writing an appeal to the court which was filed and heard the next fall. Judge Edwin Hobby had been hearing the story of Pix's wastefulness and infidelity for 20 years. Since Sisson Pix had only $19 when he married his wealthy wife and had brought nothing into the marriage, the judge ruled he could take nothing out.

Agnes' husband, William McNeir, died suddenly, leaving her with two sons, Forest 4 and Paschal 2. They continued to live with Sarah. There was little to live on until the two boys grew old enough to hunt game for the market in Galveston. They became first-class marksmen. Forest in later life won the Grand American Handicap at Vandalia, Ohio, and was a member of the United States Olympic Trap Shooting Team in 1929. He won the Queen Anne"s gold cup for the first perfect score of 100 straight clay pigeons.



Sarah died at age 73 on January 8, 1891. She is buried in the family cemetery in Chambers County and her son, Forest Pix, is buried at her side. In a handwritten will dated March 8, 1879, Sarah left all her property to her daughter Agnes Paschal McNeir. Agnes then left the property to Forest and Paschal McNeir, whose heirs still own most of the property. Sarah's grandson, Paschal, in his biographical tribute to her, stated:

> "Sarah Ridge was a wonderful woman and died as she had lived, respected by all who knew her, as a proud representative of a grand race of the earliest Americans, yet genial and kindly to rich and poor alike."

RECENT ACQUISITIONS AT WASHINGTON MEMORIAL LIBRARY

POLICY: The Central Georgia Genealogical Society, Inc., during 1987 discontinued the maintenance of a Society Library. The holdings in our Library were small and duplicated publications held in the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA which has one of the largest collections in the southeast. The Macon Library is centrally located within the 27 counties of primary interest of our society and can far better serve our membership. All publications previously held were presented to Willard L. ROCKER, Head Librarian at the Genealogical and Historical Room. All publication received by our society as gifts, donations, by exchange programs or for book reviews will be presented to the same library. Since 1987, it has been our policy to support the Macon Library particularly in the acquisition of microfilms of early county records within our jurisdictional area. We hope to expand our support as future conditions permit. As a service to our membership, this column list the acquisition of all records since the previous Quarterly. Inquiries with SASE (business size) may be addressed to the library at 1180 Washington Ave., Macon, GA 31201. William R. HENRY, Editor

NOTE: The genealogical collection of this library contains 19,975 books, 7570 microfilms, 6400 microfiche, 259 Maps and 60 subscriptions. The library serves over 13,500 visitors annually and the rate is increasing at 10.4% per year. During past nine months they came from 37 states, with Florida, Alabama, Texas, South Carolina, Virginia, Tennessee and California representing states (in order) with the highest number.

"SAY IT AIN'T SO, VIRGINIA"

Our CGGS Newsletter for November referenced an article in The Family Tree which quoted an article from the Bryan County, OK Heritage Quarterly entitled "Be Prepared When Researching Virginia".

The article implied that you must present a letter from the Circuit Court Clerk of each county to receive permission to research the loose papers of said county at the Virginia State Archives. Not all counties grant permission.

Our member, Mrs. Laurie Coggan Wharton, [redacted], reports she wrote to Culpeper, Caroline, Hanover, Essex, Spotsylvania and Orange counties. She say one was extremely abrupt and rude in his reply, stating he saw no reason for "their fragile records to be viewed". Two wrote best wishes on your research, two said permission was not necessary, and one stated you only need to comply with the Archives Research Room rules.

She found the latter to be the case. On arriving at the Virginia State Archives, permission letters were not asked for and the people on duty were very helpful in displaying the loose files.

CENSUSES - A SHORT HISTORY

By the time this issue of our Quarterly is in print, our latest book "1890 Federal Census, Court of Ordinary, Washington County, Georgia" should also be off the press and available for purchase. The contents of this census and others published by the CGGS has led to some interesting research findings.

Archaeologists have unearthed clay tablets that indicate the ancient Babylon begin head counts about 3800 B.C. in Mesopotamia. By 2300 B.C. the practice had spread to all regions and to Egypt. The Chinese begin a census about 3000 B.C. Exodus 30:11-14 describes the first Jewish census, which is generally dated at 1491 B.C. William the Conqueror[8] ordered his agents in 1086 A.D. to begin a sampling technique on one man in each hundred which led to the famed Domesday Book. Virginia was the first English colony to take a census in 1624.

The term "Census" comes from the Latin verb "censere" and meant different things over the course of time. Under old European law, it meant a tax, a tribute and a toll. Under Roman law it meant a numbering or enrollment of the people, with a valuation of their fortunes. Under current laws[9] it means the official counting or enumeration of people of a state, nation, district or other political subdivision. Such containing classified information relating to social and economic conditions.

In 1787 the Constitutional Convention met in Philadelphia and provided in Article 1, Section 2 of the Constitution that a census be taken in 3 years after the first meeting of the Congress of the United States, and within every subsequent term of ten years. It provided further that:

> Representation and direct taxes shall be apportioned among the several States which may be included within this Union, according to their respective Numbers, which shall be determined by adding to the whole Number of free Persons, including those bound to Service for a Term of Years, and excluding Indians not taxed, three-fifths of all other Persons... The Number of Representatives shall not exceed one for every thirty Thousand, but each State shall have at least one Representative, and until such enumeration is made, the State of New Hampshire shall be entitled to choose three, Massachusetts eight, Rhode Island and Providence Plantation one, Connecticut five, New York six, Virginia ten, North Carolina five, South Carolina five, and Georgia three.

An person over 18 years of age refusing to answer could be fined $20. So many strange names appeared in the first census - Preacher, Rector, Murder, Demon, Pepper, Cheese, Coffin, Sinners. To day, Chapter 7 of Title 13 of the U.S. Code covers Offenses and Penalties. A fine of up to $10,000 and jail terms up to one year can be imposed for giving a false answer concerning a business. No penalty has ever been imposed to the maximum of the law.

The 1790 through 1870 censuses were taken by Federal Marshals. From 1790 through 1830 there was no confidentiality in census findings. In 1790 the Federal Marshals were required by law to post copies of the findings thus gathered at "two of the most public places in their respective districts, for the inspection of all concerned." The 1790 and 1800 censuses recorded only names of heads of families, number of free persons by age and sex, and number of slaves in each family. But beginning in 1810 there were many additional questions pertaining to literacy, military service, manufacturing, trade, crop production, etc.

Businessmen retaliated that the questions were an attempt to tax them more and at the same time giving away their trade secrets. Beginning in 1840 the Federal Marshals and their assistants were instructed that all information taken in performance of their duties would be kept strictly confidential and in 1850 the posting of census forms in public places was discontinued. By 1880 trained supervisors and enumerators replaced the Federal Marshals and there were new laws with fines up to $500 to safeguard the privacy of census information. At that time another safeguard was instituted which forbid the old practice of retaining copies of the original census schedules in the local area. Only name, age, sex and race were filled locally.

The 1840 census listed the name and age of each living veteran of the Revolutionary War. Something congress wanted to know for pension purposes. In 1850 the census was divided into separate schedules, for population, agriculture, slaves, mortality, etc. The as-of-date of this census was 1 June 1850 regardless of date of the Federal Marshal's visit. Entries on all of these schedules were made on the same date of visit. Following the order of households/families visited on the population schedule, one can quickly find the same family on the agriculture and slave schedules. You may also be able to determine the families for which deaths are recorded in the mortality schedule for the 12 month period prior to 1 June 1850. Often more than one copy of the population schedule was made by family members of the Federal Marshal. In the case of Crawford County[10], GA the ordinary court received a copy that spelled out many of the first names of the family head where the federal copy contained many initials. Sometimes the agriculture or slave schedule also contained the first name where initials were given on the population schedule.

Census takers, whether Federal Marshals or trained Enumerators were known to add information beyond that required as well as to take short cuts. The 1850 census for Muscogee County, GA under the column "state of birth" also contains the county of birth. I found this very rewarding, a few years ago, in tracing a Henry family that moved from North Carolina to Hancock, hence to Twiggs, hence to Henry & Newton and members who moved on to Muscogee and Stewart. Some census takers were noted to skip visits to place of abode and take their census at work camps building railroads, canals, etc. One such case I found was a logging camp in Marion County, FL. Here the census taker wrote across the form that the workers were scattered over 30 square miles of swamp land and could only be reached by boat. He felt this justification to enumerate each at their work site.

The 1890 census ask 470 questions, many of which were drafted by Congress. However it carried out the safeguard of only name, age, sex and race could be filled locally. Thus that is the extent of information found in Ordinary Court records of Washington County. One other thing found in the 1890 census was the definition of race. White persons were recorded with a W. Negro persons were recorded as B for Black, or written out as Mulatto, Quadroon, or Octoroon for mixed blood and this definition carried over into the copies of the 1890 census filled locally. The 1890 census of Washington County contains a strange phenomenon. There are 22 persons of Afro-American race with the surname Lee and 81 with the first name Lee. Less than a dozen are females. There were no white families named Lee but there were 32 with that first name.

The size and complexity of the census grew rapidly. By the time the 1870 census got underway, the Census Office in the Department of Interior had not finished sorting out the data of the 1860 census. This logjam prevented an 1875 census that many demanded as a fitting centennial celebration. The 1880 census was the last one to be tallied by hand using the 1111 and crossed over with a slash (/) for the 5 count method. An electronic tabulating machine[11] was used for tallying the 1890 census. By 1940 census information was being transferred to punch cards for electronic sorting. That year was the first in which a sampling technique was used to ask a small percent of the population certain questions that would suffice for the whole nation. The 1950 census was tabulated by use of the first UNIVAC computer and soon there after came faster computers.

Present privacy act laws provide that copies of the census can be released after a period of 72 years. The 1890 census was due for release in 1962. However the 1890 census was destroyed by fire in 1921. A few burnt and partial copies were saved from the fire but Congress ordered these destroyed. Thus we are most fortunate that the Ordinary Court of Washington County ordered and received this brief list of persons enumerated in 1890 before the original copies burned in Washington.

The Bureau of the Census[12] is located in the Suitland Federal Center, at Suitland, Maryland near Andrews Air Force Base. It's large computer center and library facilities are located there. Record processing and other clerical work is done at Jeffersonville, Indiana with Here any American (or their authorized representative in certain cases) can request proof of existence, age, citizenship, or family relationships. The fee is only a few dollars and may take about 60 days. It's a good place to obtain needed proof of a relatives age to qualify for admission to the retirement home. Restrictions on information available changes from time to time as new regulations develop on Medicare and Social Security. In addition to the above field operations there are 12 Regional Census Offices located in Atlanta, Boston, Charlotte, Chicago, Dallas, Denver, Detroit, Kansas City (KS), Los Angles, New York, Philadelphia and Seattle. Microfilm copies of just about everything the Bureau of the Census at Suitland has can be viewed on a visit to a Regional Office. Hours of operation are 7:30 am - 4:30 pm Monday thru Friday; 7:30 am - 9:30 pm Tuesday and 9:00 am - 5:00 pm Second Saturday. It is advisable to call for reservation time, particularly for the Second Saturday each month.

State & Territorial Censuses: Many states have taken their own census. These can be found for one or more dates in Alabama, Colorado, Florida, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Nebraska, New Jersey, New York, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Virginia, Washington and Wisconsin.

Tax Lists: For many Georgia counties there are available Tax Lists and Land Lottery registrations that genealogist use as a census substitute for missing census years. The censuses for 1790, 1800 & 1810 are not available for Georgia. Twiggs county is missing for 1820 but the 1818 Tax Digest and those who drew in the Lottery of 1820 is available[13]. Often when a new county was formed such as Macon in 1837 a tax digest[14] was taken within a year. In Decatur County[15], Georgia a Judge Overstreet for the Inferior Court made a county census on 22 July 1859. Among his finding were 71 old bachelors and 46 old maids. A man had to attain the age of 35 or over to be called an old bachelor and a maiden lady 30 years or older was an old maid.

GEORGIA PIONEER DESCENDENT CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

Starting in CGGS Quarterly 1995 Volume 17, No. 1 we will begin a brief sketch on each Georgia Pioneer on whom a certificate has been awarded to a descendent. We will indicate the documentary evidence that he or she was in Georgia prior to 1 January 1826 and give the name of the spouse and children where known. We will also include the name & address of the descendent plus the certificate number and date awarded. This has been a continuing program since 1985 and to-date 125 certificates have been awarded.

Documentary evidence means proof by such instruments as Birth Records, Death Records, Marriage Records, Wills, Deeds, Old Bible Records, Court Records, Tombstone Photo's, Newspaper Obituaries and Legal Ads, Church Records, Some Census Records, Tax Lists, and many others. Published family histories and family sketches in county histories are not acceptable as documentary evidence since they seldom contain copies of the instruments needed for proof. Many have failed to qualify. Please write for application forms and follow our instructions carefuly.

SURNAME INDEX VOL. 16, 1994

NOTE: This surname index covers Quarterlies No. 1 through 4. Pages 1-72 are in No. 1, Pages 73-123 are in No. 2, Pages 125-173 are in No. 3 and Pages 175-214 are in No. 4. A dash between page numbers means that the name also appears on each page between such numbers. For example 63-66 means that the name appears on pages 63, 64, 65 and 66. Read carefully for a name may appear more than once on any designated page. Surnames spelled with two or more of the vowels, A, E, I, O & U may be found in many forms, i.e. HUDGINS.

WARNER ROBINS, GEORGIA 31099-2024

Non-Profit
Tax Exempt
Org. GA

ORGANIZATION: The CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, Inc. was organized in October 1978 by James T. Martin of Warner Robins, Georgia. In February 1981 the Society was incorporated as a non-profit organization under the law of the State of Georgia. The U.S. Internal Revenue Service has determined that the society is a tax-exemption organization under Section 501(c)(3), U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The Society is governed by a Board of Directors consisting of the elected and appointed officers and six elected Directors.

AREA: The Society's geographical area of primary interest consists of twenty-seven contiguous counties located in central Georgia. They are: BALDWIN, BIBB, BLECKLEY, CRAWFORD, CRISP, DODGE, DOOLY, HOUSTON, JOHNSON, JONES, LAMAR, LAURENS, MACON, MONROE, MONTGOMERY, PEACH, PIKE, PULASKI, TAYLOR, TELFAIR, TREUTLEN, TWIGGS, UPSON, WASHINGTON, WHEELER, WILCOX and WILKINSON.

PURPOSE: The purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

To collect, preserve and disseminate knowledge and information with reference to genealogical and related historical, biographical and heraldic data;

To inculcate and promote interest in research in these fields;

To stimulate and provide instruction in the use of efficient methods and the adherence to principles of accuracy and thoroughness in research;

To champion ethical standards and to discourage and oppose incompetent and disreputable practices or researchers;

To foster careful documentation and otherwise promote scholarly writing;

To issue publications, and

To promote the collection and the preservation of local records which are of genealogical or historical value.

MEMBERSHIP: Membership in the Society is open to any person interested in promoting the objectives stated above. Annual dues for 1994 are: $20.00 for individual membership; $25.00 for family membership (husband and wife, or two related persons in same household).

TRAINING: At least twice each year the Society conducts classes for beginner genealogists. These classes are free for members in good standing.

WORKSHOP: The Society plans to hold an all day workshop once each year, complete with exhibits, for members and the public. The registration fee will be set to cover the Society's cost and may vary from year to year, depending upon prices charged for food, meeting facilities, speaker fees, etc.

PROJECTS: The Society undertakes special projects for preservation of genealogical and historical information, such as: microfilming old newspapers, abstracting and publishing county court records, federal census records, cemetery records, etc.

PUBLICATIONS: The Society publishes a monthly NEWSLETTER and a QUARTERLY. The QUARTERLY is published four times per year as number 1 thru 4 and is mailed to all members in good standing. The annual volume number represents the years in existence. Many other societies, who are members, receive our QUARTERLY. QUERIES, from members only, are published in the QUARTERLY free of charge. There is no limit as to the number of queries

which a member may submit. BOOK REVIEWS are published when a copy of the book has been received by the Society. After review these books are donated to the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA., whose holdings are one of the largest in the southeast. Members are encourage to submit ARTICLES FOR PUBLICATION in the QUARTERLY, and extra long articles may be serialized. The QUARTERLY is not copyrighted and anyone is welcome to make proper use of the contents; however, the use of articles quoted from other published sources is prohibited without permission from the copyright holder. Appropriate credit will be appreciated. The QUARTERLY is not sold by subscription. Current and back issues may be purchased from the Society when available. The Society welcomes the opportunity to publish FAMILY PEDIGREE CHARTS for members. Mimimum coverage of four generations is required. Our computer designed charts provided for as much information on the fifth generation as the second, third and fourth - most charts provide much less. Give us as much complete information as possible on available forms and separate paper.

MEETINGS: The Society holds regular monthly meetings with planned programs. These meetings are currently held at the Flint Electric Building, 1600 Elberta Road, Warner Robins, Georgia at 7pm on the third Thursday of each month. In addition to the program, time permitting, a question and answer session is usually conducted for the benefit of members who have a problem with their research, or who has found a better way for accomplishing their work. Visitors and guest are always welcome to attend regular meetings of the Society. Our current membership covers many states and we invite you to join our Society. For a membership application write to the Corresponding Secretary at address shown in the heading above or call (912) 953-3114.

FRACTIONAL LAND GRANTS
1821 LAND LOTTERY

When the original surveys for the 1821 Land Lottery were laid out, there were fractional lots laying along rivers & streams and between counties that contained less than 202½ acres. These fractional lots were not drawn in the lottery. They were later placed on sale and certificates granted in the same manner as full lots in the lottery. The following are found in Microfilm 4745, Fractional Grant Index to 1821 Land Lottery at the Washington Memorial Library in Macon, GA.

OLD AGENCY (HAWKINS) RESERVE ON FLINT RIVER CRAWFORD & TAYLOR COUNTIES, GEORGIA

Contributed by: Martha J. HAMPTON, [redacted]

The following information was found in Volume V of the scrapbooks which were kept by Stiles A. Martin of Atlanta, GA (27 Apr.1882 - 23 Oct.1962) and donated to the Crawford County Public Library. These notebooks have a wealth of information, articles from the Knoxville Post, and various other materials which would be of interest to anyone researching Crawford County.

GEORGIA PIONEER DESCENDENT PROGRAM

This is a continuing program, announced in 1985, to provide a certificate to anyone (Member of non-member) who can supply documentary evidence that they are a direct descendant of an ancestor who settled in Georgia before 1 January 1826. Documentary evidence means proof by such instruments as Birth Records, Death Records, Marriage Records, Wills, Deeds, Old Bible Records, Court Records, Tombstone Photo's, Newspaper Obituaries and Legal Ads, Church Records, Some Census Records, Tax Lists, Militia Records, Pension Records, and many others. Published family histories and family sketches in county histories are not acceptable as documentary evidence since they seldom contain copies of the instruments needed for proof. For complete information and an application please send your name and address to Central Georgia Genealogical Society, Inc., ATTN: Georgia Pioneer Chairman, P.O. Box 2024, Warner Robins, GA 31099-2024. The instructions and application form consist of 10 pages, so we can only mail one form per applicant. You may reproduce as many copies as needed. Preferably only one ancestor per certificate. A fee of $10 per certificate is required for administrative processing.

To-date over 125 certificates have been awarded. Beginning in this Quarterly we will provided a brief sketch of the ancestor on whom a certificate was awarded to one or more descendents. The complete file of each applicant has been placed in the Genealogical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA and can be viewed there.

RECENT ACQUISITIONS AT WASHINGTON MEMORIAL LIBRARY

POLICY: The Central Georgia Genealogical Society, Inc., during 1987 discontinued the maintenance of a Society Library. The holdings in our Library were small and duplicated publications held in the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA which has one of the largest collections in the southeast. The Macon Library is centrally located within the 27 counties of primary interest of our society and can far better serve our membership. All publications previously held were presented to Willard L. ROCKER, Head Librarian at the Genealogical and Historical Room. All publication received by our society as gifts, donations, by exchange programs or for book reviews will be presented to the same library. Since 1987, it has been our policy to support the Macon Library particularly in the acquisition of microfilms of early county records within our jurisdictional area. We hope to expand our support as future conditions permit. As a service to our membership, this column list the acquisition of all records since the previous Quarterly. Inquiries with SASE (business size) may be addressed to the library at 1180 Washington Ave., Macon, GA 31201. William R. HENRY, Editor

NOTE: The genealogical collection of this library contains 19,975 books, 7570 microfilms, 6400 microfiche, 259 Maps and 60 subscriptions. The library serves over 13,500 visitors annually and the rate is increasing at 10.4% per year. During past nine months they came from 37 states, with Florida, Alabama, Texas, South Carolina, Virginia, Tennessee and California representing states (in order) with the highest number.

JOHN HORNE DENSON OF TWIGGS COUNTY, GEORGIA 1806-1893. His direct line of ancestors and some of his descendants. Compiled by our members Robert Ricks Denson, Jr., and Dorothy E. (Stephens) Denson, [redacted] 1994. Softbound, 44p. Copy donated to CGGS.

The family history begins with William Denson, who came to Virginia from England or Wales in 1638 and a brief lineage sketch to John Horne Denson (7th generation). It also begins with Isaac Ricks (Rickesis) born England in 1638 and descends to the 5th generation where the two lines (both early Quakers) were united in marriage in North Carolina. This was John Denson and Sarah Ricks who moved to Jefferson County, GA where in 1803 he was united and baptized into Bark Camp Church. In 1809 they settled in Twiggs County. The 6th generation was Joel J. Denson and Nancy Horne, whose first son was John Horne Denson born 14 June 1806 in Wilkinson County, GA (which later became a part of Twiggs). He married Elizabeth "Betsey" Jones and from this point the history goes into greater detail on their descendants, many of whom live to-day in the middle Georgia area. The history is not indexed but well supported with documentation. Copy will be placed with Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA.

FRANKLIN COOK - AND THE SEARCH GOES ON, by Janet Medlock Cook, [redacted], 1994, Spiral Bound, 139p. Copy donated to CGGS.

The author has accumulated and published an amaze of public records in an effort to determine the parentage of Franklin Cook, born c1803 GA and died April 1870 in Henderson County, Texas. He arrived in Texas in November 1841 a married man from Kemper County, AL. Her research includes records on Cook families in many Georgia counties where she found more than one with a son Franklin. The one who married 21 September 1823 to Sarah Anderson in Elbert County is the most probable but lacks absolute proof. The book is very well documented and fully indexed. If you are looking for any Cook in Georgia, read this. Copy will be placed with Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA.

SINGLETON - FOREMAN CEMETERY
MONROE COUNTY, GEORGIA

Contributed by Merlyn WHITING, [redacted]

This is the family cemetery of my GGG-Grand parents and three of their children which I recently found. There are indications of other graves but none marked. I used interfacing cloth and a black crayon to do the rubbing. This cemetery is located on Moore Road in Monroe County, GA just south of Pleasant Grove Church. From Bolingbroke go north on US 41 about 2 miles and turn left (south) on Shi Road. Go 1½ miles on Shi Road and turn left (south) on Moore Road. Cemetery can be seen from road and is about one half mile on right (west side of road). From Macon or I-75 take Zebulon Road into Monroe County to Moore Road and turn right (north) on Moore Road to cemetery.

The diseases that predominate in Houston County, the last year, were pneumonia and disorders of the respiratory organs. Epidemic and contagious diseases were measles and hooping cough. Among horses and mules were blind or sleepy staggers and the disease killed near 3/4th of the hogs.

MAP MEASUREMENTS

A base line is a government survey line to establish township lines.
The standard length of a wooden fence rail was 11 feet, therefor 6 rails equalled 1 chain.
The average city street was usually 1 chain (66 feet) wide, and a city block was usually 3 chains long.

* Beginning in 1786, the first Government survey of public land used 640 acres as a standard for a section of land. This applies in all states who are a part of the Federal Public Domain.

A FIRST IN GEORGIA

Contributed by: Millie C. STEWART, [redacted]
A short story about her great-great-grandmother.

Palatia Harrison Stewart was born April 2, 1805 in Jones County, about 2 miles east of Bradley. She was the daughter of Larkin and Mary Cabaniss Wilson. In 1821, she married Thomas Ware Stewart of Jones County, formerly of Mecklenburg County, NC., the owner of vast land holdings, and at the time of his death in 1846, owned 62 slaves. He left a young widow and 13 children.

Palatia was a strong woman, both in mind and statue. She took the business in hand and increased it in value and managed it with an iron hand. She apparently was well loved by her slaves, as they didn't leave after being freed.

She was very studious, and an avid reader, though she had only the education received in her day and time. She was especially interested in science and pursued every avenue in that field. On May 13, 1856, she became the first female in the State of Georgia to become a licensed Doctor of Medicine.

Mrs. Stewart never received gratuity for services, even though she went far and near to administer to the sick. It was the love of science, and healing that drove her. Her own death in 1866 was the end result of going to Pulaski County to tend the sick, where she contracted Malaria Fever.

She is buried along side her husband and one son in Stewart Family Cemetery in Jones County, near the sight of her birth.

He was shown as resident of Screven Co., GA, but had ties to Washington Co., GA, and was living in the "little village of Thomasville," by 1833 when his first son, WILLIAM RICHARD NICKS, was born. Did he receive this draw as an orphan of the Rev. War from his Father, WILLIAM NICKS? In 1832 Gold Land Lottery, he received two draws to his close friend & bro-in-law, JAMES RUSSELL GREENE, son of McKEEN GREENE, a Rev. War veteran, who was bro. to J. R. NICKS's Mother's Ist husband, BENJAMIN GREENE. How did they dispose of their draws? Both moved to Leon Co., Territory of FL, residing near Lake Iamonia, within 2 miles of GA state line. J. R. GREENE moved in the 1840's first to Columbus, GA, then to Opelika, AL. Will share with GREENE/NICKS descendants, especially an original letter from Congressman/Senator ALFRED IVERSON (1798-1873) from Washington, DC in 1848 directed to both men regarding a claim to a committee in Washington. This two page letter is part of effects of NICKS. If anyone is an expert on ALFRED IVERSON SR. (1798-1873), please let me know.

CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.
POST OFFICE BOX 2024
WARNER ROBINS, GEORGIA 31099-2024

Non-Profit
Tax Exempt
Org. GA

ORGANIZATION: The CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, Inc. was organized in October 1978 by James T. Martin of Warner Robins, Georgia. In February 1981 the Society was incorporated as a non-profit organization under the law of the State of Georgia. The U.S. Internal Revenue Service has determined that the society is a tax-exemption organization under Section 501(c)(3), U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The Society is governed by a Board of Directors consisting of the elected and appointed officers and six elected Directors.

AREA: The Society's geographical area of primary interest consists of twenty-seven contiguous counties located in central Georgia. They are: BALDWIN, BIBB, BLECKLEY, CRAWFORD, CRISP, DODGE, DOOLY, HOUSTON, JOHNSON, JONES, LAMAR, LAURENS, MACON, MONROE, MONTGOMERY, PEACH, PIKE, PULASKI, TAYLOR, TELFAIR, TREUTLEN, TWIGGS, UPSON, WASHINGTON, WHEELER, WILCOX and WILKINSON.

PURPOSE: The purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

To collect, preserve and disseminate knowledge and information with reference to genealogical and related historical, biographical and heraldic data;

To inculcate and promote interest in research in these fields;

To stimulate and provide instruction in the use of efficient methods and the adherence to principles of accuracy and thoroughness in research;

To champion ethical standards and to discourage and oppose incompetent and disreputable practices or researchers;

To foster careful documentation and otherwise promote scholarly writing;

To issue publications, and

To promote the collection and the preservation of local records which are of genealogical or historical value.

MEMBERSHIP: Membership in the Society is open to any person interested in promoting the objectives stated above. Annual dues for 1994 are: $20.00 for individual membership; $25.00 for family membership (husband and wife, or two related persons in same household).

TRAINING: At least twice each year the Society conducts classes for beginner genealogists. These classes are free for members in good standing.

WORKSHOP: The Society plans to hold an all day workshop once each year, complete with exhibits, for members and the public. The registration fee will be set to cover the Society's cost and may vary from year to year, depending upon prices charged for food, meeting facilities, speaker fees, etc.

PROJECTS: The Society undertakes special projects for preservation of genealogical and historical information, such as: microfilming old newspapers, abstracting and publishing county court records, federal census records, cemetery records, etc.

PUBLICATIONS: The Society publishes a monthly NEWSLETTER and a QUARTERLY. The QUARTERLY is published four times per year as number 1 thru 4 and is mailed to all members in good standing. The annual volume number represents the years in existence. Many other societies, who are members, receive our QUARTERLY. QUERIES, from members only, are published in the QUARTERLY free of charge. There is no limit as to the number of queries

which a member may submit. BOOK REVIEWS are published when a copy of the book has been received by the Society. After review these books are donated to the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA., whose holdings are one of the largest in the southeast. Members are encourage to submit ARTICLES FOR PUBLICATION in the QUARTERLY, and extra long articles may be serialized. The QUARTERLY is not copyrighted and anyone is welcome to make proper use of the contents; however, the use of articles quoted from other published sources is prohibited without permission from the copyright holder. Appropriate credit will be appreciated. The QUARTERLY is not sold by subscription. Current and back issues may be purchased from the Society when available. The Society welcomes the opportunity to publish FAMILY PEDIGREE CHARTS for members. Mimimum coverage of four generations is required. Our computer designed charts provided for as much information on the fifth generation as the second, third and fourth - most charts provide much less. Give us as much complete information as possible on available forms and separate paper.

MEETINGS: The Society holds regular monthly meetings with planned programs. These meetings are currently held at the Flint Electric Building, 1600 Elberta Road, Warner Robins, Georgia at 7pm on the third Thursday of each month. In addition to the program, time permitting, a question and answer session is usually conducted for the benefit of members who have a problem with their research, or who has found a better way for accomplishing their work. Visitors and guest are always welcome to attend regular meetings of the Society. Our current membership covers many states and we invite you to join our Society. For a membership application write to the Corresponding Secretary at address shown in the heading above or call (912) 953-3114.

SOUTH WEST GEORGIAN
OGLETHORPE, GEORGIA
May 8, 1851 - Jan 6, 1853

The prospectus of this newspaper, 7 May 1851, states it is printed every Thursday morning in the new town of Oglethorpe at the low price of two dollars a year, to be paid in advance. The politics of the "Georgian" advocate the measures of the great conservative Union Party...the editorial department will be occupied by Col. A.C. Scott, who is well known as an ardent friend to the Union. Publisher was listed as Charles B. Youngblood and Robert W. Allen as Traveling Agent.

[Editor: The new town of Oglethorpe was being built to serve as a terminus for the new South Western Railroad coming down from Macon. There was great speculation about the beginning of cheaper transportation with markets in Savannah. Tracks at this time were approaching the city from the north. The Macon county seat was later moved in 1854 from Lanier to Oglethorpe. This is the beginning part of an on-going series of items abstracted by your Editor from a microfilm of available issues of the newspaper, the property of Guelda Hay of Bolingbroke, GA. Thanks Guelda.]

Vol. 1, #4 May 8, 1851:

Vol. 1, # 6 May 22, 1851:

Several ordinances for the town of Oglethorpe appear in this issue: Gambling; Disorderly driving carriages; Disposing of trash; Obstruction of sidewalks or streets; Waste thrown from upper windows or doors; Public pumps and wells; Privies; Slaughter Houses; Building fires in open or streets and Notices & demand of Taxes.

Capt. Z.T. Conner, late Post Master in this city, it is said, is a defaulter to the government in the sum of $5,000 to $6,000. He is also said to be a defaulter to a large amount to various planters, whose factor he was. He left the city some eight or ten days since.

Court of Ordinary - May Term 1851: Present their honors, Ichabod Davis, Joseph Mott, George Williams, O.C. Horne, and Nathan Bryan, Justices. It appearing to the court that Abigal Doster, Adm'r. on the estate of Wilson Doster, dec., has fully settled up said estate as appears by the vouchers filed in office, and prays to be dismissed from said Administration. It is therefore ordered by the court that the Clerk of this court cause a Notice to be published, calling upon all persons concerned, to be and appear at the next Term of said court and show cause if any why letters of Dismission should not be granted. A true extract from the minutes. W.W. Corbett, Clk. 22 May 1851.

Whereas Zachariah Gammage applies to me for Letters of Guardianship for the orphans of Joshua Taylor, dec. These are therefore to cite, summons and demand all persons concerned that they be and appear at my office within the time prescribed by law, to file their objections if any they have, otherwise said letters will be granted...W.W. Corbett, CCO.

Notice - Town of Oglethorpe: There will be an election held at the office of Dr. Iverson on Friday, the 30th instant between the hours of 10 to 12 o'clock A.M. for two Commissioners of the Town...to fill vacancies occasioned by the resignation of B.J. Head and A.W. Collins. James R. Nelson, Marshall give notice that all persons must pay their city taxes before the 22nd day of July.

Meeting - Town of Oglethorpe: May 20, 1851. Accounts of Henry M. Bailey and John Rogers against the council were ordered paid. Bedford J. Head and A.C. Collins tendered their resignations as commissioners and were accepted.

Advertisements: T. Kaufman & Bros. announced their new Dry Goods & Clothing Store on Cresent Street, between the Magnolia and Pavilion Houses; Carson, Grier & Co., announced their new Staple and Fancy Dry Goods store opposite Price's Ware House and Baker Street; Allen Sutton announced the opening of the Oglethorpe Hotel.

Vol. 1, # 7 May 29, 1851:

The opening of the South Western Rail Road to Fort Valley will be celebrated at Fort Valley on the 31 instant.

We saw the other day, a specimen of lime, burned within a mile of this place. It was as fine as any lime we have ever seen. It was discovered on the premises of Mr. Armstrong, by John Harris who is now making preparations to manufacture several thousand bushels. This is a valuable addition to the many facilities for building in Oglethorpe.

Additional ordinances for Town of Oglethorpe were published including the subjects of: Camping in streets; No fires on public lots or near house; Cellar door & porches; Guns, Pistols, Fire arms not to be fired off; Quarreling & fighting prohibited.

Four months after date (May 24, 1851) application will be made to the Court of Ordinary of said County for an order to sell lot of land No. 130, 2nd District of once Muscogee, now said county of Macon, as the property of Wilson Tomlinson, dec., for the benefit of his heirs and creditors...E. Guy, Administrator.

Samuel White, applies for the guardianship of May J. Cain and John R. Cain, orphans of Benjamin H. Cain, deceased. All persons concerned are requested to appear at the Court of Ordinary for said county on the first Monday in July next, and object if they can, otherwise the motion of White will be granted...W.W. Corbitt, CCO

Sheriff Sale (Postponed Sale): Will be sold on first Tuesday in July next, before the courthouse door in Lanier. Four mules levied on as the property of McKinneth Taylor, to satisfy two fi fa's from the Macon Superior Court, one in favor of Isaac Winship, the other in favor of John Sturdivant, one vs said Taylor and other vs McKinneth Taylor, Alexander Taylor and Jas. G. Moulton...Thomas Dixon, Sheriff.

Vol. 1, # 8 June 5, 1851:

Notice: Messrs. Nelson & Cummings would inform the public that persons hiring Buggies from their Stables must expect to pay on the delivery of them, and persons boarding horses with them must pay monthly...all persons indebted to them by note or account will please settle immediately.

We call attention to the advertisement of the Magnolia House. We feel perfectly safe in saying Dr. Thomason, the proprietor of this House, keeps as good table as any hotel in South-Western Georgia. In another column will be found the advertisement of Messrs. Smith & Rogers. Although they have been here but a short time they have gained many customers on account of the cheapness of their goods.

The Railroad: No doubt is now entertained but that the Cars will reach Oglethorpe, the terminus of the South Western Rail Road, by the 20th of July next at farthest; and we can say confidently, that we believe there is no doubt of it. (The article goes on to say how the citizens are looking forward to this mode of transportation and how it will benefit the community).

Bank Agency: ...an Agency of the Planter's Bank of Savannah, will be established here, and will be conducted by R.H.D. Sorrel, agent for the Bank. Mr. Sorrel is well known to the citizens of Pike, Fayette, Meriwether, Henry, Upson, Monroe and a portion of Talbot and DeKalb Counties...he resides in Griffin, Georgia for the last two or three years...the agency will commence about the first of September at this place.

Young, Mathew Leggett, Ichabod Davis and James Caldwell, the lot of negroes are likely, 16 in number...the balance of the property, of said estate, will be sold on the place on the day following...Nathan Bryan, September 26, 1851.

Tailoring: John Crane would respectfully inform the citizens of Oglethorpe and surrounding county that he has now opened a Shop in this place for the purpose of executing all business in his line...

Vol. 1, # 25, October 3, 1851:

Connection of the Central and S.W. Rail Roads: On Wednesday night last a freight train of eleven cars arrived at this place direct from the city of Savannah. The bridge across the river at Macon, connecting the two roads, is now complete, and the necessity of unloading and re-loading at that city is now obviated entirely. This will greatly reduce freight on merchandise shipped from Savannah to this place, and will enable our merchants to sell goods as cheap as it can be done in the city of Macon.

By the postscript of a letter received in this place, from a citizen of Albany, we learn that Dr. Byrd killed Newton C. Jones a day or two since, by stabbing him. The difficulty grew out of an affair of honor.

Executors Sale: Will be sold before the Court House door in Lanier on the first Monday in November next, a likely Negro woman, by the name of Harriet, as the property of Martha J. Bell, minor...James Bell, Guardian.

Georgia - Macon County: Whereas Joseph H. McKenzie, applies to me for letter of Guardianship on the persons and property of the minors of William Powell, deceased. These are therefore to cite and admonish all who are concerned to be and appear at my office within the time prescribed by law, to show cause if any then can, why said letters should not be granted...W.W. Corbitt, CCO.

Administrators Sale: Pursuant to an order of the Inferior Court, while sitting for ordinary purposes, for the county of Macon, will be sold on the first Tuesday in December next, before the Court House door in the town of Lanier, Lots of Land Nos. 174 in the 1st Dist; 20 & 59 in the 2nd District formerly Muscogee now Macon County, and No. 4 in the 3rd District originally Lee now Macon County, belonging to the estate of John J. Haugabook, deceased...James S. Caldwell, Administrator de bonis non.

Valuable Mills for Sale: The undersigned offers for sale, his Saw and Grist Mills, situated a quarter of a mile south of Oglethorpe...also several residence lots situated about the same distance south...J.D. Cotton.

MUSCOGEE COUNTY
1st District (Now Macon & Taylor Counties)

[Editors Note: The 6 April 1827 Executive Minutes of Georgia, show the 1827 Land Lottery drawing was well under way when it was discovered that the clerks who prepared the lottery tickets had designated a number of square lots (202½ acres) as fractions and a number of fractions as square. Many grantees of lots in the 1st District of Muscogee County complained of numerous errors. Some of these lots had been misnumbered on the trees and posts marking their bounds, and part of the district had not been run out at all. The legislature directed the governor to suspend the granting of lots in this district until the problem could be rectified. Mr. William P. Reid, the district surveyor, was given six months to resurvey the district. A year later, an act was passed to validate the grants of all fractions drawn in the lottery, to confirm the grants of those lots whose numbers had been changed by the resurvey, and to provide for demarcation, by the county surveyor, of any lines in the district that still had not been surveyed. A look at present day Land Lot Maps showing the 1st District in Macon and Taylor Counties will show some distortion of lines.]

CGGS SERVICE DIRECTORY

The purpose of this directory is to publicize genealogical services offered by our members. It is a FREE service for members only. If you need help please correspond directly with the member listed in this directory -- do not write to the society for referrals. If you would like to be listed in this service directory, please write the Corresponding Secretary for an application form.

Some members listed in this directory may charge for their services, others may offer free services. The amount a member charges is up to the member. The society does not know who charges and who does not, neither does the society recommend one member over another.

DEATH NOTICES ABSTRACTED FROM THE MINUTES OF THE BETHLEHEM BAPTIST CHURCH, WASHINGTON COUNTY, GEORGIA FOR THE PERIOD OF 1791-1880

Contributed by: Andy Baker, [redacted]
The roll of microfilm (reel #14) of the minutes is available through Mercer University in Macon, GA as a part of their Baptist Historical Collection. The notices appear from 1845 to 1873. None were found prior to 1845. None were found from 1873 through 1880. In the original minute book, the pages for the years 1874-76 were smeared and difficult to read. All spelling and punctuation are as they appeared on the original.

The entry on Saturday, June 19, 1847 reads:

"Resolved that in the future the Clerk of this Church enter on the Church Book, the deaths that may take place of its members, their age, and the time of the reception into fellowship, as far as circumstances will admit."

(The first two entries actually appeared before the above notice in the minutes.)

Departed this life July 24th 1845, Sarah RUSHING in the 82nd year of her age, who had been a member of the Babtist [sic] Church 55 years.

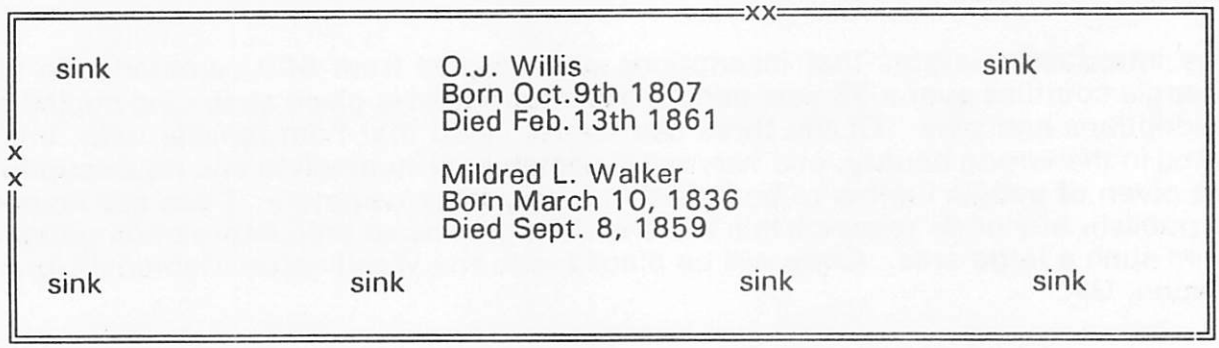
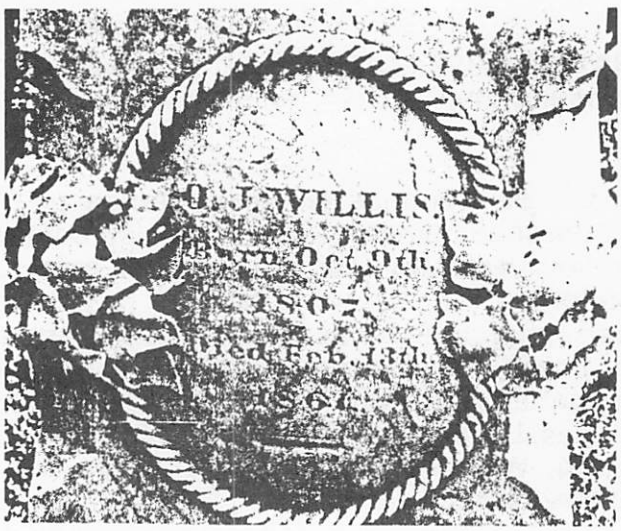
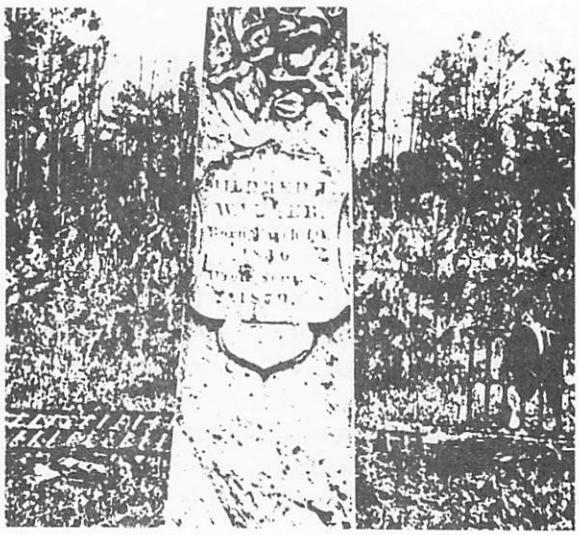
WILLIS CEMETERY
LAMAR COUNTY, GEORGIA

Documented and Contributed by: Virginia C. LLOYD, [redacted]. It's location was unknown for a number of years but recently found by a relative Larry KING. Unless obits can be found we will not know who is in the "sunken" spots. From Barnesville, take the Johnstonville Road, towards Monroe County to the Marvin Church. Just beyond the church turn left on Woods Road and then turn left on road into woods which surrounds the cemetery. The cemetery is surrounded by a fence which is broken on two sides. The six sunken places have bricks and rocks placed around. Drawing below is not to scale.







BOOK REVIEWS

POLICY: Book reviews of publications pertaining to genealogy and related subject are published in our QUARTERLY as a service to our readers. Authors and publishers are invited to contribute publications for review. Books contributed for review become property of Central Georgia Genealogical Society, Inc., and after review, are placed with the Genealogical & Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA. Non-member contributors, on request, will be provided a copy of the review. Flyers announcing publication and sale of books and other publications, except those sponsored by CGGS, will not be reprinted or enclosed in the QUARTERLY but may be given a very brief announcement, on a space available basis, in our NEWSLETTER. Books for review should be addressed to: Quarterly Editor, Central Georgia Genealogical Society, Inc., P.O. Box 2024, Warner Robins, GA 31099-2024.

30,638 BURIALS IN GEORGIA, by Jeanette Holland Austin. Genealogical Publishing Company, Baltimore, MD., 1995. Hard bound, 708 pages. Price not given. Copy donated to CGGS.

The introduction states that inscriptions were copied from 600 cemeteries in 100 Georgia counties over a 35 year period. No information is given as to who copied the inscriptions and why. Of the three cemeteries listed that I am familiar with, one is listed in the wrong county, one very small cemetery is incomplete and no inscriptions are given of people I know to be buried in a very large cemetery. I can see no need to publish, buy or do research in a book which contains so little information gathered from such a large area. Copy will be placed with the Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA.

RECENT ACQUISITIONS AT WASHINGTON MEMORIAL LIBRARY

POLICY: The Central Georgia Genealogical Society, Inc., during 1987 discontinued the maintenance of a Society Library. The holdings in our Library were small and duplicated publications held in the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA which has one of the largest collections in the southeast. The Macon Library is centrally located within the 27 counties of primary interest of our society and can far better serve our membership. All publications previously held were presented to Willard L. ROCKER, Head Librarian at the Genealogical and Historical Room. All publication received by our society as gifts, donations, by exchange programs or for book reviews will be presented to the same library. Since 1987, it has been our policy to support the Macon Library particularly in the acquisition of microfilms of early county records within our jurisdictional area. We hope to expand our support as future conditions permit. As a service to our membership, this column list the acquisition of all records since the previous Quarterly. Inquiries with SASE (business size) may be addressed to the library at 1180 Washington Ave., Macon, GA 31201.

William R. HENRY, Editor

NOTE: The genealogical collection of this library contains 19,975 books, 7570 microfilms, 6400 microfiche, 259 Maps and 60 subscriptions. The library serves over 13,500 visitors annually and the rate is increasing at 10.4% per year. During past nine months they came from 37 states, with Florida, Alabama, Texas, South Carolina, Virginia, Tennessee and California representing states (in order) with the highest number.

DODGE CEMETERY BOOK AUTHORS HONORED

An "Open House" was held on Sunday, March 26, 1995 at the Dodge County Historical Society home in Eastman, Georgia. The occasion was to honor the authors of the book, Cemeteries of Dodge County, Georgia 1827-1989, to kick off the joint sales project, and for the membership of both societies to join sociably in their new historical register home.

Chester Saunders, President of the Dodge County Historical Society, and his wife Martha M. Saunders, as Authors of the book, spent some five years coping inscriptions on 14,574 stones in 139 black and white cemeteries. Mr. Victor R. Myrick, a member of both societies, took over the typing of the handwritten manuscript, in the late stages, and completed that portion of the project. Mr. William R. Henry, as Book Editor of the CGGS, did the final edit and indexing.

There were approximately 100 persons in attendance and over $800 in initial book sales were record. Eighteen members of the CGGS were in attendance and assisted with the punch and food and other joint host activities. A most enjoyable time was had by all.

A grant was obtained from the R.J. Taylor, Jr., Foundation for %50 of the estimated book cost and the CGGS funded the other half. Both societies have agreed to equally share the profits after all expenses are covered.

The book in printed with softcover, 8½" x 11", 431 + pages with full name index, $38.25 plus $1.50 postage in U.S. Georgia residents must add $1.91 state sales tax. Copies of the book can be purchased in the Eastman area by contacting Mr. & Mrs. Saunders. Copies can also be purchased at the Washington Memorial Library in Macon, GA and at monthly meetings of the CGGS held at the Flint Electric Building in Warner Robins. See the CGGS Publication List at the end of this quarterly issue for instructions on how to order by mail.

BIRD - BYRD - CHRISTIAN

....Can anyone assist me in locating the BIRD or CHRISTIAN Cemetery in Jones, Co., GA? FRANK M. ABBOTT in his Jones Co., GA books listed the "BIRD" Cemetery, but gave no directions to its location. My ancestors, SUSAN CHRISTIAN & MIKE BIRD, were issued marriage license in 1868, Jones Co., GA. Mike is listed 1881-1883and Susan listed 1883-1892 in Deed Registration Books, Gray, Jones Co., GA, and owned land in Finney's District. They disappear without a trace thereafter. Had 5 children: HENRY L. BYRD, MIKE BYRD, WALTER C. BYRD, LILLA G. BYRD, & CLIFFORD PAUL BYRD. Have no explanation for change of surname spelling. These descendants lived Macon, Bibb Co., GA or Fort Valley, Peach Co., GA. Can anyone help me find out what happened to MIKE BIRD and SUSAN CHRISTIAN BIRD?

CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.
POST OFFICE BOX 2024
WARNER ROBINS, GEORGIA 31099-2024

Non-Profit
Tax Exempt
Org. GA

ORGANIZATION: The CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, Inc. was organized in October 1978 by James T. Martin of Warner Robins, Georgia. In February 1981 the Society was incorporated as a non-profit organization under the law of the State of Georgia. The U.S. Internal Revenue Service has determined that the society is a tax-exemption organization under Section 501(c)(3), U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The Society is governed by a Board of Directors consisting of the elected and appointed officers and six elected Directors.

AREA: The Society's geographical area of primary interest consists of twenty-seven contiguous counties located in central Georgia. They are: BALDWIN, BIBB, BLECKLEY, CRAWFORD, CRISP, DODGE, DOOLY, HOUSTON, JOHNSON, JONES, LAMAR, LAURENS, MACON, MONROE, MONTGOMERY, PEACH, PIKE, PULASKI, TAYLOR, TELFAIR, TREUTLEN, TWIGGS, UPSON, WASHINGTON, WHEELER, WILCOX and WILKINSON.

PURPOSE: The purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

To collect, preserve and disseminate knowledge and information with reference to genealogical and related historical, biographical and heraldic data;

To inculcate and promote interest in research in these fields;

To stimulate and provide instruction in the use of efficient methods and the adherence to principles of accuracy and thoroughness in research;

To champion ethical standards and to discourage and oppose incompetent and disreputable practices or researchers;

To foster careful documentation and otherwise promote scholarly writing;

To issue publications, and

To promote the collection and the preservation of local records which are of genealogical or historical value.

MEMBERSHIP: Membership in the Society is open to any person interested in promoting the objectives stated above. Annual dues for 1995 are: $20.00 for individual membership; $25.00 for family membership (husband and wife, or two related persons in same household).

TRAINING: At least twice each year the Society conducts classes for beginner genealogists. These classes are free for members in good standing.

WORKSHOP: The Society plans to hold an all day workshop once each year, complete with exhibits, for members and the public. The registration fee will be set to cover the Society's cost and may vary from year to year, depending upon prices charged for food, meeting facilities, speaker fees, etc.

PROJECTS: The Society undertakes special projects for preservation of genealogical and historical information, such as: microfilming old newspapers, abstracting and publishing county court records, federal census records, cemetery records, etc.

PUBLICATIONS: The Society publishes a monthly NEWSLETTER and a QUARTERLY. The QUARTERLY is published four times per year as number 1 thru 4 and is mailed to all members in good standing. The annual volume number represents the years in existence. Many other societies, who are members, receive our QUARTERLY. QUERIES, from members only, are published in the QUARTERLY free of charge. There is no limit as to the number of queries

which a member may submit. BOOK REVIEWS are published when a copy of the book has been received by the Society. After review these books are donated to the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA., whose holdings are one of the largest in the southeast. Members are encourage to submit ARTICLES FOR PUBLICATION in the QUARTERLY, and extra long articles may be serialized. The QUARTERLY is not copyrighted and anyone is welcome to make proper use of the contents; however, the use of articles quoted from other published sources is prohibited without permission from the copyright holder. Appropriate credit will be appreciated. The QUARTERLY is not sold by subscription. Current and back issues may be purchased from the Society when available. The Society welcomes the opportunity to publish FAMILY PEDIGREE CHARTS for members. Mimimum coverage of four generations is required. Our computer designed charts provided for as much information on the fifth generation as the second, third and fourth - most charts provide much less. Give us as much complete information as possible on available forms and separate paper.

MEETINGS: The Society holds regular monthly meetings with planned programs. These meetings are currently held at the Flint Electric Building, 1600 Elberta Road, Warner Robins, Georgia at 7pm on the third Thursday of each month. In addition to the program, time permitting, a question and answer session is usually conducted for the benefit of members who have a problem with their research, or who has found a better way for accomplishing their work. Visitors and guest are always welcome to attend regular meetings of the Society. Our current membership covers many states and we invite you to join our Society. For a membership application write to the Corresponding Secretary at address shown in the heading above or call (912) 953-3114.

Cold Weather: The present is certainly the coldest winter that we have had in Georgia, since the long to be remembered winter of 1835. If the cold is not so severe as it was in 1835 it makes up the deficiency in uniform continuance. No doubt but many of the more tender shrubs and fruit trees have been materially injured if not entirely destroyed. On Monday night we had a real snow which covered the earth to the depth of about two inches. On Tuesday it was intensely cold, and our citizens were shivering about the streets more like Greenlanders than natives of the 'Sunny South.' This intense cold will in all probability be a benefit to fruit as it will prevent the blooming of fruit-trees until after the Spring frosts.

Vol. 1, # 47, March 12, 1852:

Movements for Navigating Flint River: We learn that there is a movement on foot for the purpose of opening the river above this place, as far up as the "Old Agency" or what was formerly called Crowell's Ferry, for the purpose of boating down the produce above, to this city. The article went on to express the benefits to Oglethorpe and that the only obstructions were fallen trees and drift wood which may be easily removed at trifling expense thus rendering the river navigable for a small steamer. The article further stated that in 1836 a small steamer, drawing 22 inches water, called the "Henry Crowell" was built by Mr. James R. Butts at Crowell's Ferry, some 40 or 50 miles above this place. It was launched, and made some two or three trips to Apalachicola, under direction of a Captain Blair, before the government pressed it into service...

BLACK CEMETERY: Located on Land Lot 59, District 12 behind residence and current property of Tom Mason, on Maynard Mill Road, Route 4, Box 223, Forsyth, GA 31029. This land lot was originally granted in 1821 Land Lottery to James Sims, living in Clarke County, GA. He sold to John Thomas Floyd in 1821. Floyd in turn sold to Thomas Evans of Baldwin County. Evans was probably first to actually settle here and in 1834 the lot begin to be broken up. Some owners were Varner, Cherry, Rutland, Fletcher, Childs, Williams, Cheeves, Jossey & others in recent years. There is an old house ruins on adjoining land belonging to Mr. Glavin and known as the old Britt place. Area had an early Post Office known as Manilla. Research with help of Jane Newton, Bessie Turner and Jack Childs.

MARY LIZZIE DEWBERRY, only marked grave, no dates.
Approximate 70 unmarked graves - only two known burials after 1930 were SINGLETONS.

FRENCH CANADIAN RESEARCH

Contributed by: Laura J. ALLEY, [redacted]

She writes to inform the membership about an excellent library for Canadian research located in Manchester, NH. It's the library of the American-Canadian Genealogical Society, located at 4 Elm Street, Manchester, NH.

The marriage records for Quebec are fantastic, most including the parents of the bride and groom. In the three days that she spent at the library, she was able to almost complete the front of her 15 generation pedigree chart with documentation for each marriage. She also was able to trace several lines back to France from information available in the library.

The American-Canadian Genealogical Society functions similar to our society. They publish a Society Journal, hold workshops & conferences and sell publications. Individual membership is $20 for Americans and $23 for Canadians. Membership begins in the month dues are paid and is renewable on the anniversary of that date. Information on membership should be addressed to the society at P.O. Box 668, Manchester, NH 03105-0668.

The holdings of the library are ever-growing and deal primarily with Catholic marriages in the provinces of Quebec, Ontario and New Brunswick. U.S. sources include marriage repertoires for New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Maine, Vermont and Louisiana. They have limited resources from Alberta, Manitoba, Nova Scotia, Rhode Island, Minnesota and Connecticut. The also have the 49 volume set of marriages indices for 1700 parishes in Quebec; all the marriages of all cities and towns in Massachusetts from 1840 to 1895; and their latest collection is a set of 454 microfilms of the births, marriages and deaths of the State of Vermont from 1760 to 1908.

The society also provides a research service for members on their direct line to France. Requests should be addressed to the society at P.O. Box 6478, Manchester, NH 03108-6478. A fee of $20 is required for each line requested. If they are unable to trace the line back to France, their fee is $2 per marriage found, with a minimum charge of $5 in any case. Research services for non-members is done at the rate of $40 per line.

When requesting a search, you must enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope (SASE) and give as much information as possible: names, dates, places and all other information you may have. Include a pedigree chart or request their form for same.

[EDITOR: In answer to your question, "Does permanent letters of administration mean one does not have to make a final accounting to the court?" A temporary letter of administration is normally granted to administer the affairs of a decedent estate for a short period of time before a permanent administrator can be appointed and qualified. You may not find a detailed final accounting was recorded but the administrator must satisfy the court that he took care of everything in order to receive a letter of dismissal. Be sure to check the Annual Return Books and Deed Books in addition to Court Minute Books.]

RECENT ACQUISITIONS AT WASHINGTON MEMORIAL LIBRARY

POLICY: The Central Georgia Genealogical Society, Inc., during 1987 discontinued the maintenance of a Society Library. The holdings in our Library were small and duplicated publications held in the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA which has one of the largest collections in the southeast. The Macon Library is centrally located within the 27 counties of primary interest of our society and can far better serve our membership. All publications previously held were presented to Willard L. ROCKER, Head Librarian at the Genealogical and Historical Room. All publication received by our society as gifts, donations, by exchange programs or for book reviews will be presented to the same library. Since 1987, it has been our policy to support the Macon Library particularly in the acquisition of microfilms of early county records within our jurisdictional area. We hope to expand our support as future conditions permit. As a service to our membership, this column list the acquisition of all records since the previous Quarterly. Inquiries with SASE (business size) may be addressed to the library at 1180 Washington Ave., Macon, GA 31201. William R. HENRY, Editor

NOTE: The genealogical collection of this library contains 19,975 books, 7570 microfilms, 6400 microfiche, 259 Maps and 60 subscriptions. The library serves over 13,500 visitors annually and the rate is increasing at 10.4% per year. During past nine months they came from 37 states, with Florida, Alabama, Texas, South Carolina, Virginia, Tennessee and California representing states (in order) with the highest number.

CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.
POST OFFICE BOX 2024
WARNER ROBINS, GEORGIA 31099-2024

Non-Profit
Tax Exempt
Org. GA

ORGANIZATION: The CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, Inc. was organized in October 1978 by James T. Martin of Warner Robins, Georgia. In February 1981 the Society was incorporated as a non-profit organization under the law of the State of Georgia. The U.S. Internal Revenue Service has determined that the society is a tax-exemption organization under Section 501(c)(3), U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The Society is governed by a Board of Directors consisting of the elected and appointed officers and six elected Directors.

AREA: The Society's geographical area of primary interest consists of twenty-seven contiguous counties located in central Georgia. They are: BALDWIN, BIBB, BLECKLEY, CRAWFORD, CRISP, DODGE, DOOLY, HOUSTON, JOHNSON, JONES, LAMAR, LAURENS, MACON, MONROE, MONTGOMERY, PEACH, PIKE, PULASKI, TAYLOR, TELFAIR, TREUTLEN, TWIGGS, UPSON, WASHINGTON, WHEELER, WILCOX and WILKINSON.

PURPOSE: The purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

To collect, preserve and disseminate knowledge and information with reference to genealogical and related historical, biographical and heraldic data;

To inculcate and promote interest in research in these fields;

To stimulate and provide instruction in the use of efficient methods and the adherence to principles of accuracy and thoroughness in research;

To champion ethical standards and to discourage and oppose incompetent and disreputable practices or researchers;

To foster careful documentation and otherwise promote scholarly writing;

To issue publications, and

To promote the collection and the preservation of local records which are of genealogical or historical value.

MEMBERSHIP: Membership in the Society is open to any person interested in promoting the objectives stated above. Annual dues for 1995 are: $20.00 for individual membership; $25.00 for family membership (husband and wife, or two related persons in same household).

TRAINING: At least twice each year the Society conducts classes for beginner genealogists. These classes are free for members in good standing.

WORKSHOP: The Society plans to hold an all day workshop once each year, complete with exhibits, for members and the public. The registration fee will be set to cover the Society's cost and may vary from year to year, depending upon prices charged for food, meeting facilities, speaker fees, etc.

PROJECTS: The Society undertakes special projects for preservation of genealogical and historical information, such as: microfilming old newspapers, abstracting and publishing county court records, federal census records, cemetery records, etc.

PUBLICATIONS: The Society publishes a monthly NEWSLETTER and a QUARTERLY. The QUARTERLY is published four times per year as number 1 thru 4 and is mailed to all members in good standing. The annual volume number represents the years in existence. Many other societies, who are members, receive our QUARTERLY. QUERIES, from members only, are published in the QUARTERLY free of charge. There is no limit as to the number of queries

which a member may submit. BOOK REVIEWS are published when a copy of the book has been received by the Society. After review these books are donated to the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA., whose holdings are one of the largest in the southeast. Members are encourage to submit ARTICLES FOR PUBLICATION in the QUARTERLY, and extra long articles may be serialized. The QUARTERLY is not copyrighted and anyone is welcome to make proper use of the contents; however, the use of articles quoted from other published sources is prohibited without permission from the copyright holder. Appropriate credit will be appreciated. The QUARTERLY is not sold by subscription. Current and back issues may be purchased from the Society when available. The Society welcomes the opportunity to publish FAMILY PEDIGREE CHARTS for members. Mimimum coverage of four generations is required. Our computer designed charts provided for as much information on the fifth generation as the second, third and fourth - most charts provide much less. Give us as much complete information as possible on available forms and separate paper.

MEETINGS: The Society holds regular monthly meetings with planned programs. These meetings are currently held at the Flint Electric Building, 1600 Elberta Road, Warner Robins, Georgia at 7pm on the third Thursday of each month. In addition to the program, time permitting, a question and answer session is usually conducted for the benefit of members who have a problem with their research, or who has found a better way for accomplishing their work. Visitors and guest are always welcome to attend regular meetings of the Society. Our current membership covers many states and we invite you to join our Society. For a membership application write to the Corresponding Secretary at address shown in the heading above or call (912) 953-3114.

FOUR GENERATIONS OF LIGHTHOUSE KEEPERS

Contributed by: Ralph T. WILLIAMS, [redacted]

The Alabama Pioneers:

This account of four generations of lighthouse keepers begins in wilderness lands of the Mississippi Territory that were soon to become, by an act of Congress, part of the newly formed Alabama Territory. The story begins, more precisely, in the region just west of the Chattahoochee River, an area that would become a county of the State of Alabama in 1819. At the time, there were no lighthouses closer than those that existed on the Atlantic coast, and the lights these lighthouse keepers would tend had not yet been built. The first Williams who broke from the land in Alabama moved southward, and the earliest lighthouses established in that direction from the Alabama frontier were Mobile Point Lighthouse, in Alabama, built in 1822, and Pensacola Lighthouse, in the Florida Panhandle, built in 1824.

Around March 1817, settlers began crossing the Chattahoochee River from Georgia to claim land in the region that would become Alabama. They came over the Old Federal Road from Virginia, the Carolinas, and north Georgia, and crossed the river at Ft. Gaines, Georgia. William Williams, my third great-grandfather, and two of his sons, John and Braddock, who became my second great-grandfather, were among these early settlers of the area that became Henry County, Alabama, on 13 December 1819 (Warren, pp. 8, 9; pp. 12-14).

Franklin was Henry County's first settlement; it was located on the west bank of the Chattahoochee River, across from Fort Gaines. The second town established in Henry County, in 1820, was Williamston, some thirty miles northwest of Franklin; it was named for William Williams (Warren, p. 15). In 1832, Barbour County was formed from Henry County and land acquired by the Creek Cession of that year, and Williamston, by political fiat, moved into Barbour County. That shift allows Anne Kendrick Walker to say that Williamston was the first settlement in Barbour County. She also says it was settled about 1820 by emigrants from South Carolina, and took its name from the William family who staked their claims near the east fork of the Choctawatchee River (Walker, p. 17). The information about the founding of Williamston differs somewhat in these two accounts, but the correct version of the story doesn't really matter now, because the town did not survive. W. Stuart Harris writes; "The oldest town in Barbour County, Williamston was on the headwaters of Choctawatchee River, approximately 12 miles southwest of Eufaula and 6.5 miles southeast of Clayton. Williamston existed until the Civil War but vanished soon after the conflict, when the farmers of the area began to trade in Clayton and Eufaula" (Harris, p. iii).

Marie H. Godfrey has compiled, in two volumes, Early Settlers of Barbour County, Alabama, in which she mentions my third great grandfather and his family: William Williams, born circa 1760, in North Carolina, died by November 1846, married Elizabeth ?, born circa 1770 in North Carolina, died after 1845. They had eleven children: (1) Jarrid, born circa 1790, died by January 1843, married Tempy Vinson, in Jones County, Georgia[1], she was born circa 1790, died by 1849; (2) Braddock, my second great-grandfather (see following sections); (3) Sarah; (4) John L. born circa 1804 in Georgia, died by April 1875, married Sarah Leverett, born 1813, in Georgia, died after 1875; (5) Matilda, born circa 1807, in Georgia, died 3 July 1851, buried in the Fenn Cemetery near Clayton, Alabama, married Matthew Fenn; (6) Malinda, died by February 1849, married N.W. Turner; (7) Elizabeth, married James Pugh 17 November 1822 in Henry County, AL; (8) William Jr., born circa 1817 in Georgia, married Arrensa Bush, born circa 1825, in Alabama, died by 1852, daughter of Zachariah Bush; (9) Council B. born circa 1820; (10) Lucinda; (11) Owen G., died by 1845. Details on most of these children are sketchy.

Braddock Williams/Sarah Deborah Williams:

On 22 December 1922 in Henry County, AL., Braddock Williams, born in NC c1800, married Sarah Deborah Williams, born in GA c1803. The family appears in the 1830 federal census for Pike County, AL and in the 1840 federal census for Dale County, AL. Then in the 1850 federal census for Escambia County, FL., the first federal census to name every family member. I found Sarah D. Williams living in Pensacola in the household of Joseph F. Lee and his wife Elizabeth. Sarah is 47 years old, and she has six of her children with her; James A. age 23, my great-grandfather (see the following section); John W. age 22; Sheldon S. Walkly age 16; Michael (should be Michelle), age 11; Arad, age 9; and the youngest, Victoria age 7. All of the children were born in Alabama except Victoria, age 7 born in FL. I deduce from Victoria's age that Braddock and Sarah must have arrived in Florida around 1843. Braddock himself is not counted with his wife and children, and I have not been able to find him at all in the 1850 census. He is included, however, in the Walton County list of Florida Voters in Their First Statewide Election, May 26, 1845 (Michaels. p. 84). To be eligible to appear on this list Braddock had to be in Florida at least two years before the state's admission to the Union.

Located at the edge of Apalachicola Bay, in Florida, there is a sand barrier forty miles long known as St. George Island, and the next time I locate Braddock Williams he is Keeper of the Cape St. George Light, located on the southernmost point of the island. He kept this light from 23 February 1854 until some time in 1860 (Hurley, p. 23). His presence there in 1860 is confirmed by the federal census of Franklin County, FL, at age 61, with Deborah Williams age 54, and children: Arad age 18; J.P. no age given; and Victoria age 16.

From 1860 to 1866 - during which time the Civil War was fought - I have few records of Braddock Williams and his family, but on 2 November 1866, he was assigned as Keeper of the Cape San Blas Light, located in Gulf County, FL, between Apalachicola and Port St. Joe. He served in that station until 13 May 1868 (Hurley, p. 25). He then returned to the Cape St. George Light and served as Keeper until 6 March 1874 (Hurley, p. 23). In the 1870 federal census of Franklin County, FL, Braddock is counted, age 75, occupation Lighthouse Keeper; Mary (sic) age 70, is there, and Arad their son age 34 is listed. Arad's occupation is Assistant Lighthouse Keeper. (I don't know why Sarah, on this occasion, became "Mary").

On 6 March 1874, Braddock Williams was reduced in rank to Assistant Keeper of Cape St. George Light; Arad Williams, his son, became Keeper, and held the position until 9 June 1875, when he was killed in a fall from the lighthouse tower. James Albert Williams, the oldest son of Braddock and my great-grandfather, became Keeper of the Cape St. George Light, and served there until 1 August 1893. Braddock continued as Assistant Keeper until 13 January 1879, on that date he resigned from the U.S. Lighthouse Service (Hurley, p. 23).

In the 1880 federal census of Franklin County, FL., living in Apalachicola, Braddock Williams, age 80, appears for the last time in any census. Under the occupation heading he is listed as having "no occupation". From this census, I learn that both his father, William Williams, and his mother Elizabeth ? were born in NC. Sarah Deborah Williams, age 77, is with him, and her father and mother were born in Virginia.

On a Family History Library microfilm (#988,192 item 1), "Burial Permits Issued in Apalachicola, 1856-1885," permit #373 reads "August 13, 1881; Lot: Old Graveyard Block; Body of Braddock Williams age 82 years." From North Carolina to Florida via Georgia and Alabama, Braddock experienced the dangers of being a pioneer and the loneliness of keeping lights, and if he was like most of the lighthouse keepers I have known, the salient features of his character were stubbornness and self-sufficiency. Sarah Deborah Williams was still alive in January 1883, because she sold a house and lot she and Braddock had owned together in Apalachicola. I have a copy of the deed, and I'm still looking for her parents and her obituary.

James Albert Williams/Lucretia Foster:

My search for James Albert Williams illustrates why anyone doing rigorous genealogical research needs to look for more than one source of documentation on every significant event in a subject's life. Much of the data I have on the early years of his life was relayed to me from a Bible that belonged to one of his sons, Charles Henry Williams, but my research turns up conflicting dates and places on some of the information. If you can't trust Bible entries, what can you trust? I suspect, however, that the information was entered some time after events occurred.

On 22 August 1827, James Albert Williams was born in Dade County, AL (Charles Henry Williams's Bible). The date may be correct, but there was no Dade County in Alabama in 1827, and there is none now. I found his father and family in Pike County, AL in the 1830 federal census. There are two males listed with ages under 5 years. I don't know that James Albert was one of those two, but I assume he was. In any case, I must look further to make certain.

The same uncertainty arises from Lucretia Foster, the future wife of James Albert. According to Charles Henry Williams's Bible, Lucretia was born on 5 January 1837 in Wilcox County, GA. I know her father's name was Henry Foster[2] and her mother's maiden name was Harriet Liverman, both born in Georgia. I wanted to check the 1840 federal census for Wilcox County, GA but that county didn't exist until 1857, when it was formed from parts of Irwin, Dooly, and Pulaski Counties.

In 1850, as I mentioned in the Braddock Williams/Sarah Deborah Williams section, James A. Williams appears in the federal census taken in Escambia County, FL. He was born in Alabama, is 23 years old, and his occupation is "sailor." In the 1850 federal census of Gadsden County, FL., Lucretia Foster, age 14 is counted with here father Henry Foster, age 35, occupation "laborer," her mother Harriet age 30; sister Ellen, age 12; and brother Henry age 10. They were all born in Georgia.

On 30 March 1853, James Albert Williams and Lucretia were married (Charles Henry Williams's Bible). I have written to the Clerk of Courts in both Escambia and Gadsden counties, but no record of the marriage appears. I have not been able to find James Albert and his family in either the 1860 or the 1870 federal census. On 9 June 1875, the day his brother Arad died in a fall from the lighthouse tower, James Albert Williams was appointed Keeper of the Cape St. George Light (Hurley, p. 23).

The 1880 federal census of Franklin County, FL, lists James Albert Williams, age 53, Lighthouse Keeper; wife Lucretia (Foster) Williams age 43; and their children: Alice age 21; John W. age 17; Chester (who became my grandfather), age 13; James A. Jr. age 6; and Charles H. age 4. This census shows James Albert's father and mother born in Alabama. My research indicates his father was born in North Carolina and his mother born in Georgia. It also shows Lucretia and her mother and father born in Florida. My research tells me they were all born in Georgia. Census research is tricky, and the data are not always reliable.

James Albert Williams was assigned as Keeper of the Apalachicola Bay Range Front Light on 29 January 1893 (Hurley, p. 123). On 4 October 1895 he transferred to Crooked River Light, and remained there until 1 January 1906 (Hurley, p. 43). Crooked River Light was built to serve the deep-water port of Carrabelle. He was the first keeper of that light, and he made it beam for the first time on the evening of 28 October 1895. Automated, it is still on active navigational aid.

[2]Editor Note: Henry Foster married Harriet Liverman on 11 Jan.1835, Early County, GA. Henry appears on p136, 1840 Census of Early County, GA. Harriet Liverman was the daughter of Brown and Martha Liverman. Brown Liverman was listed in the 1820 Census of Wilkinson County, GA and drew Lot 118, Sec. 21 of Early County, GA in 1820 Land Lottery. Brown then moved to Early County and was murdered there in 1821 by his slave named Wilson. There are several records on the settlement of his estate between 1821 and 1834. Distributions were made to the widow Martha (who married Henry Ball on 15 Mar.1824) and to James Liverman; Elijah Pearce as guardian of Polly Liverman; and Martin Wood as guardian of Harriet Liverman and Notley W. Liverman.

On 18 December 1906, Lucretia (Foster) Williams died, and on 14 April 1908, James Albert Williams followed her (Charles Henry Williams's Bible).

James Chester Williams/Delia Cornelia Vause:

My grandfather James Chester Williams, was born 9 May 1866, presumably on St. George Island, FL. Hurley, p. 24, says he was born in Pensacola, FL. I have not been able to determine the exact place. His wife to be, and my grandmother, Delia Cornelia Vause was born in Wakulla County, FL. Her father was Francis Marion "Med" Vause born in Darlington District, South Carolina. He fought for the Confederacy in the 3rd Florida Regiment. Her mother was Ann Marie Kersey, born in Georgia.

On 2 June 1886, James Chester was appointed Assistant Keeper of the Cape St. George Light. His father, James Albert Williams was the Keeper. On 9 May 1889, James Chester married Delia Cornelia Vause, in Apalachicola, FL. He resigned from the U.S. Lighthouse Service on 1 August 1893, but returned on 13 November 1896 to tend the Apalachicola Bay and St. George Sound Bulkhead Cut, 6-foot Spot, and Porter Bar Beacons. I don't know what he did to support his expanding family between 1893 and 1896.

In the 1900 federal census for Franklin County, FL., James C. Williams, age 34, Beacon Light Keeper, and Delia C. Williams age 33, are listed. All of their six children have been born, in Apalachicola, FL. With their complete names and dates of birth they were: John Leroy Williams born 1 June 1890; James Tabor Williams, my father, born 16 November 1891; Lola Geraldine Williams born 20 September 1893; Ethel Antoinette Williams born 2 January 1896; Elma Lucretia Williams born 10 August 1897; and Buford Marion Williams born 4 March 1900.

Sometime after 1912, James Chester was assigned as Keeper of the Fort Morgan Light in Alabama. That was his last duty as a lighthouse keeper, and he died 21 June 1937 in Tallahassee, FL. Delia Cornelia (Vause) Williams died on 27 September 1954 at Eastpoint, FL.

James Tabor Williams/Nora Margaret Gordon:

My father, James Tabor Williams was born 16 November 1891 in Apalachicola, Franklin County, FL. My mother, Nora Margaret Gordon was born 21 January 1904 at Round Island Lighthouse, located in the Mississippi Sound off Pascagoula, Harrison County, Mississippi. Her father was Ralph Gordon, Keeper of the Round Island Light, born around 1881 in London, England. Her mother was Nanetta "Netta" Haasis Mills born 15 January 1885 in Orrville, AL.

On 16 November 1911, James Tabor was appointed Assistant Keeper of Gasparilla Island Light, FL. He resigned from the U.S. Lighthouse Service on 10 November 1914 (Hurley, p 63). All references to James Tabor from this point will be taken from his personal papers, which were passed on to me by my mother.

I don't know what my father did to support himself between 11 November 1914 and 26 February 1916, except that at some time during 1915, he worked approximately six months as a clerk in the Boca Grande Mercantile Company, Boca Grande, FL. On 27 February 1916, however, he returned to the U.S. Lighthouse Service as Assistant Keeper of Merrill Shell Bank Light, located in the vicinity of Cat, St. Joseph's and Grand Islands, in the Mississippi Sound. He served in this position until 16 October 1916.

He was next assigned as Second Assistant Keeper of Bolivar Point Light on 17 October 1916. This light was located at the entrance to Galveston Bay, Texas, and James Tabor served there until 28 April 1917. The light was discontinued by the Lighthouse Service on 29 May 1933. From 29 April 1917 until 18 June 1917, James Tabor was Assistant Keeper at Sabine Pass Light, in Texas.

On 19 June 1917, he was given leave from the Lighthouse Service to join the U.S. Navy. When he was discharged, he was issued a War Service Certificate (# 260625), which states that "James T. Williams, E2/c (R), U.S.N., performed honorable active service in the United States Navy from 6/19/17 to 7/31/19, on board the following ships and stations: USS Nevada, USS Allen." He served as a radioman in Allen.

On 19 September 1919, James Tabor returned to Sabine Pass Light as Second Assistant Keeper, and remained at that light until 23 November 1919. He decided to make use of his wartime experience in USS Allen, one of the classic four-stack destroyers, and requested to be transferred to a U.S. Lighthouse tender. His request was granted and between 24 November 1919 and 31 March 1922, he served as Radio Operator in USLHS Magnolia.

On 9 March 1922, James Tabor Williams and Nora Margaret Gordon were married in Gretna, Jefferson Parish, Louisiana. I was born on 5 December 1922 in Port Eads, Louisiana, and my brother, Norman Gerald Williams was born 11 April 1919, in New Orleans, Louisiana. My parents had no other children.

My father was transferred ashore on 1 April 1922, when he relieved my maternal grandfather, Ralph Gordon as U.S. Lighthouse Depot Keeper, at Port Eads, Louisiana. Ralph Gordon had been given the option of resigning or being fired from the Lighthouse Service. He had been accused of having an affair with the wife of an officer in the Army Engineer Corps. The charge against him must have been prima facie, because he resigned. James Tabor retired from the Lighthouse Service on 30 September 1930, and our family moved to Covington, Louisiana.

Port Eads was located in the South Pass of the Mississippi River just before the river makes it last run to the Gulf of Mexico. At the time of James Tabor's retirement, the town, which stretched along both banks of the Mississippi River, was flourishing as well as could be expected in hard times and in that remote location. The essential elements keeping the place alive then were the South Pass Lighthouse, the Lighthouse Depot, a U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, and a collection of industrious Cajun fishermen, oystermen, and trappers. Port Eads was never accessible by road; the road ends at Venice - still does - and now Port Eads is a ghost town. The Lighthouse Depot was decommissioned. The South Pass Light was automated, the Army Engineers moved away, and the Cajuns migrated to bayous and other rivers in the Mississippi River Delta. Recent maps of Louisiana no longer show Port Eads. Like Williamston in Alabama, my place of birth has disappeared.

James Tabor Williams was a restless man; he seemed to always be on the move, so his retirement didn't last long. He applied for reinstatement to the Lighthouse Service, and was assigned as Keeper of New Canal Light, New Orleans, Louisiana on 16 June 1932. The light marks the entrance to the canal at Lake Pontchartrain. It is still an active light. Coast Guardsmen man the station there and are responsible for all rescue work in Lake Pontchartrain and the bayou country surrounding the greater New Orleans area.

On 16 May 1938, James Tabor became Assistant Deport Keeper, New Orleans, Louisiana. The depot is located on the Industrial Canal, which links the Mississippi River with Lake Pontchartrain. On 7 July 1939, the U.S. Lighthouse Service was absorbed by the U.S. Coast Guard, and my father was forced to retire. This time his retirement lasted until his death, on 13 November 1963, in the Veterans Administration Hospital, Bay Pines, Pinellas County, FL. He is buried in the Bay Pines Veterans Cemetery. My mother, Nora Margaret (Gordon) Williams died on 20 December 1990, in Virginia Beach, VA.

Epilogue:

When I joined the U.S. Navy in 1940, I broke a career tradition that began with Braddock Williams, my second great-grandfather, was carried on by James Albert Williams, my great-grandfather, continued by James Chester Williams, my grandfather, and ended with James Tabor Williams, my father. These four generations of men in my Williams lineage - and women who shared their lives - served as lighthouse keepers in stations on and near the coast of the Gulf of Mexico. Over a period of seventy-five years, they kept lights in Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas. The years of their combined service began in February 1854 and ended 1 July 1939, the date on which the U.S. Coast Guard assumed control of the U.S. Lighthouse Service. Four successive generations of lighthouse keeper may not be a record for family longevity in U.S. lighthouses, but I don't know of any other family that equals it. In any case, it's probably long enough to be called a dynasty.

10,000 ACRES OF ORIGINAL LAND GRANTS NEVER SOLD

Contributed by: Guelda L. Hay & Millie C. Stewart, [redacted].
An article found in the Butler Herald, Butler, GA dated Thursday, June 26, 1952.

"Atlanta, June 19th - The State of Georgia still has a legal claim to more than 10,000 acres of original Land Grant which were never sold from the Public Domain.

But Gov. Herman Talmadge assures persons living on these lots which are scattered all over the state that they will not be evicted.

Secretary of State Ben Fortson, who is charged by law with keeping track of the Public Lands, reported to the Governor that there are some 42 lots of land which the State holds legal title.

An Attorney looking into the titles, said 19 of the lots were land set aside by an Act of 1818 to educate poor children, but the land was never sold. Another 23 lots reverted to the State because of fraudulence in Land Lotteries under which much of the Public Domain was disposed of in the early days of the State.

The lots are scattered in Pearce, Seminole, Decatur, Thomas, White, Lumpkin, Worth, Crawford, Monroe, Pickens, Cherokee, Bartow, Walker, Henry, Butts, Talbot, Troup, Fulton, Spalding, Fayette, Newton and Harris Counties."

Vol. 2, # 1, April 23, 1852:

Plank Road Meeting, Oglethorpe, April 15, 1852: In pursuance of a call made by the Major, a portion of the citizens of Oglethorpe met at the Council Chamber this evening, to take into consideration the practicability of constructing a Plank Road commencing at Oglethorpe, and extending in a south, or southwestern direction to some point in the valley, lying between the Flint and Chattahoochee Rivers. On motion of Maj. Huson, the meeting was organized by calling His Honor the Mayor to the chair, and requesting Thomas A. Swearingen to act as Secretary. The Chairman explained the object of the meeting in a brief and appropriate address - urging upon the consideration of the meeting the importance of Plank Roads to the commercial prosperity of the city, and of South Wester Georgia. Vol. 2, # 3, May 7, 1852:

General Presentments March Term: The first panel of the Grand Jury for the County of Macon make the following presentments (which we will summarize): They found the public buildings of the county in very bad repair - recommended that the Jail be repaired and the Court House be entirely refurnished. The court room needed chairs, tables and other furniture. They found the books of the Clerk of Superior Court and Clerk of Ordinary Court neatly and correctly kept, however the books of Inferior Court have been kept in a bad and slovenly manner, reflecting discredit upon that officer. They reported that the taxes for 1851 had been collected, paid out and properly vouchered for but the tax collected for 1850 had been grossly misapplied and squandered, both by the Tax Collector, James W. Cunningham, and County Treasurer, W.J. Collins, for that year. They recommended that the courts take action. They recognized the courtesy received by his honor, Judge Powers, and Solicitor General D. Graffenreid. Member were Mark J. McMullin, Foreman; William Felton, J. R. Felton; Lewis M. Peters; Reuben H. Slappey; Randolph McMullin; Robert F. Baldwin; John Wichard; John Garner; E.A. Robinson; Stephen Peacock; Josiah Moody; Elijah Williams; Emanuel Sharpe; Jesse Tarrer; Julius Turner; William H. Lee; Thomas G. Hudson; James H. Hannon and John T. Carson.

Vol. 2, # 7, June 1, 1852:

Destructive Fire: A destructive fire broke out in the southeastern portion of the city at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The district over which it swept, destroying every thing before it, but one tenement house, is bounded by South Broad street on the south, Lincoln on the west. Sixteen dwelling houses, the Methodist Sunday School Room, and one carpenter's shop were destroyed. The buildings were all wood. The fire originated in Mr. Gilbert Butler's carpenter shop on York street where a large quantity of lumber was consumed...from the shop the fire soon reached Capt. H.J. Dickerson's dwelling, on the west. This was consumed but not before some of the furniture was saved in a damaged state. Capt. Dickerson estimates his loss at $10,000 with insurance of $1,500. On Abercorn street, south of Capt. Dickerson's was the tenement house owned by Mr. H.S. Bell and occupied by himself and Mr. Bryan O'Conner, which was quickly on fire and consumed with loss from two to three thousand dollars. Passing round to South Broad street, four houses were destroyed - the first belonging to the estate of Mrs. M. Cleland and occupied by Thomas Kreeger, the second owned by William Rahn, of Effingham County, and occupied by A. Bennett, the third owned and occupied by Mrs. Sterling and the fourth owned and occupied by O.J.H. Dibble whose loss in probably four or five thousand dollars. The Methodist School room was also on this street. Extending back to the lane from the corner of South Broad and Lincoln streets, there were several small houses occupied by colored persons, all of which were burnt. On Lincoln street house occupied by F.L. Gue and another by Capt. Thomas Shaw on the corner of Lincoln and York streets were destroyed. On York street, Mr. William Olmstead's dwelling, Mrs. Jane Younge's a house occupied by Mr. Arden, and another by J.J. Cornell, adjoining Mr. Butler's carpenter shop were all entirely consumed. Crossing York street the fire next appeared in the large dwelling house on the corner of Lincoln and President streets owned by the estate of Gordon and occupied by the family of the late William B. Bulloch... The brick house fronting on Oglethorpe square, owned by Mrs. Marshall, was reportedly on fire and several window frames burnt out...one tenement of this house was Mr. John T. Rowland, whose furniture was injured to the extent of $1,000 by fire and water but he was fully insured.

Convention of the Union Party: The President and Vice Presidents of the convention called for a meeting on Thursday the 15th day of July next at Milledgeville to consider the nominations for Presidency that had been made by the Whig and Democratic Parties. An editorial by this newspaper objected strongly to both candidates and recommended a third ticket with the names of Crittenden and Buchanan. The editor stated the South was unsafe in the hand of either of the candidates that are now before the county. General Scott has given repeated and unmistakable evidence that he is rotten in principle upon the question of slavery. General Pierce has given the same evidences by his votes in Congress...under all these circumstances, how can Southern Rights Democrats, or Compromise Union men either North or South, find a pretest to support either of these candidates...

THE PHILLIP SCHOFIELD CONNECTION

SCOFIELD, SCOFILLS, SCOFILS, SCHOFIELD, COFFELL, SCOVEL, SCOVILL, SCOFILL

Contributed by: Gail MERRINGTON, [redacted]

In 1735, the first Phillip Schofield appears in South Carolina. He seems to have been a member of the Colony from England brought over by the Rev. William Turberville, the Episcopal minister. The first Phillip Schofield appears with wife Rachel, in the register book of the old Prince Frederick Episcopal Church of old Craven county. By 1753, he and wife Rachel, are bapitising two daughters on 2 June 1753, Sarah Scofield born 3 June 1750 and Elizabeth Scofield born 26 April 1752. There were no entries after 1753 at St. Mark Parish, but by that time Kershaw County had a township on the westside of the Watersee River known as West Wateree. Phillip Schofield owned land in both Fairfield and Kershaw County at his death in 1786. His will[3] proven in Camden fall term of court 1786 and a file in Winnsboro ordered Isaac Love to swear in any three men of Gardner Love, John McKinnie, John Nickle, William Cloud, to truly appraise the goods and affects of Phillip Schofied, deceased, on 10 Nov. 1786. Rachel, his wife, was deceased and not listed, Hannah Schofield, Elizabeth Moore, Helen Elkins, Nancy Nettles, and a grandson William Schofield are mentioned in the will.

[3]Listed as Phillip Scoldfield in Will Book 1, p221, Kershaw County, SC and on Microfilm Roll 14 at South Carolina State Archives.

Although Camden was the British camp of Lord Cornwallis and remained fairly Tory, Zachariah Nettles, Nancy Schofield's husband, was said to have served in the Revolution. Did Phillip, like many in the Camden area, travel to Spanish East Florida with Joseph Coffell, a back country self-styled Colonel, and one of the leaders of the Moderator Movement, 1769? Or was Phillip happy to become like some of his neighbours very involved on the side of the Revolution?

"Joseph Coffell's name appears in many different spellings, e.g., Scophol, Scofel, Scovil, or variants thereof. In the public records it is always Coffell or Cofell. The records do not disclose Coffell's origin, but he may have come from Prince Frederick parish, in whose register book Philip and Rachel "Scofuld" are mentioned in 1753. Joseph Coffell seems to have roamed about the Back Country from the Santee to the Savannah. Until 1772 he served as a constable in the Broad-Saluda fork, but in 1771 a tract of 250 acres was surveyed for him on Sandy Run, a branch of Cattle Creek in Saint George Dorchester. Cattle Creek rises a few miles south of Orangeburg and flows into the Edisto. In 1768 and later Coffell was a constable, but in 1772 the provincial grand jury asked for his removal. During the Revolutionary War, Coffell served the British. In the spring of 1778 he gathered together four or five hundred Tories near Ninety Six and led them across the Savannah whence they plundered their way to a camp on the St. Mary's River in East Florida. These men and woman were known as the Scopholites in St. Augustine. Margaret, John, NJ, Luis and Luis Juan, are some of the Scofields to be noted in the INDEX TO WHITE BIRTHS 1784-1792, St. Augustine East Florida. After the Revolutionary War, some of these Tories returned to South Carolina and Camden, Georgia and tried to rebuild their lives.

Philip Schofield's will has a reference to "do this Leventh Day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and Eighty six and in the Leventh year of the independence of a Maraca Make and publifh this my Last Will and Testament".

In 1803, Philip Schofield, was born in South Carolina, according to the 1830 Georgia census. He married Chairty in 1826 in Crawford County, Georgia. Would he be a grandson to Philip Schofield of Fairfield County, or possibly a great grandson? Building the connection is the great challenge of genealogy. Asking the questions of the route they took to Crawford County, GA from South Carolina? Were they Tories or Revolutionary Soldiers, and if they were pro-revolution, is that the explanation for Joseph Coffel making minor adjustments to his name? Like a rose unfolding, as some questions are answered, others are hidden. We all find more questions than answers, but with ancestors like these living in such fascinating times, we will continue to search.

HUTCHINS - TOOK(E) - SHERRELL - HOLT

...Am looking for MARTHA HUTCHINS who married JOHN DAVID TOOK(E) 14 May 1838, possible in Stewart, Ranolph, Houston or adjacent county, GA. Martha died 12 Oct. 1846, probably in Houston County, GA, the first of four wives. Issue from this marriage, possibly all born in Houston was: LOVERD/LOVE; WILLIAM; ISTERN; MARTHA ELIZABETH (BETTY - this is mine b. 26 Jun.1842); ISAM and JOHN DAVID Jr. John D. Took(e) was a son of ISHAM TOOK(E) and ELIZABETH SHERRELL of Greene County, GA, both of whom died after 1839, probably in Houston County. John D. also was a nephew of JOSEPH TOOKE and ALLEN TOOKE of Bibb and Houston Counties. John D. Tooke, his second wife ELIZABETH (WILLIAMS) HOLT, and their eleven children (his, hers, and theirs) moved to Texas c1850. Will exchange info., pay for postage and copy costs.

95-1242 - Judi WINDERWEEDLE, [redacted]

WINDERWEEDLE - CAIN - FAULK - SMITH

...Would like to correspond with anyone doing any type of research on the following families: CAIN of Washington County; WINDERWEEDLE and FAULK of Wilkinson County., and CAIN, KING, SMITH and WINDERWEEDLE of Macon, Stewart, and Randolph Counties. (Editor Note: Susan Winderweedle and Porter Faulk were married 29 Sep.1824 Wilkinson County, GA. Lydia Cain on 1825 through 1837 Tax Lists of Washington County with land in Washington, Wilkinson and Houston Counties. Houston County records show Lydia and Joel Childs, Administrator of Washington County purchased Lot 199, 5th Dist. of Houston from Jonathan & Elizabeth Paulk of Houston in 1826. Houston Deed Book G, p568 shows John R. Cain, Joel Cain, Benjamin H. Cain, William T. Cain and Jane B. Winderwell of Macon County, legatees of the estate of Nathaniel Cain sold the above mentioned Lot 199 on 9 Nov.1838. The 1838 Tax Digest of Macon County shows William T. Cain as agent for 6 slaves belonging to Lydia Cain and 2 slaves in Macon plus land in Stuart(sic), Randolph & Cherokee for Jane B. Windawedle. Both Lydia Cain and Jane B. Windaweedle are shown in 1840 census of Macon County.)

DIXON - DICKSON - LESSELS

...My ancestor THOMAS DIXON married PRISCILLA (?). Priscilla might have been a CRUDUP or THOMAS. All of these families were in the Halifax are of Virginia in the middle 1700's. Willing to share information.

...Am looking for anyone researching LESSELLS, LISSELS, LASCELLES in the SC area. I found them in 1810 census, but want to go back further. Will exchange information.

...Also looking for anyone researching the DICKSON family in Chester County, PA prior to 1746. Also looking for DICKSON's in Maryland and New York. HELP!! (Editor Note: Dickson's and Dixson's in Chester County prior to 1746 can be found in the Records of the Kennett Square Monthly Meeting, established in 1686. I have some of the old Churchman survey records, pertaining to my Rogers family, along the border of Chester County, PA with Hartford and Cecil County, MD when the state line was in dispute. One shows a Thomas Dixon with 116 acres on a survey of 2 Feb.1737 in West Nottingham.)

NOTICE

HAVE YOU PAID YOUR 1996 MEMBERSHIP DUES? THIS WILL BE THE LAST QUARTERLY FOR 1995 MEMBERS.

During November 1995 we mailed 1996 Membership Cards to all 1995 Members. This card is not valid unless your renewal dues are paid. Those who do not pay their renewal by 31 January 1996 will be dropped from the rolls, effective that date.

Also, please complete the CGGS Membership Research Directory Survey and if possible return it by 31 January 1996. This is a list of up to 10 names you are researching.

We plan to publish the 1995-1996 directory beginning in the first quarterly for 1996 Volume 18-1. All surveys received during 1995 membership year will be included unless replaced by a new list prior to 31 January 1996. We are limited to only 10 names per member for this directory. Surveys received after 31 January 1996 will be published in subsequent 1996 quarterly issues if no previous list was published.

BOOK REVIEWS

POLICY: Book reviews of publications pertaining to genealogy and related subject are published in our QUARTERLY as a service to our readers. Authors and publishers are invited to contribute publications for review. Books contributed for review become property of Central Georgia Genealogical Society, Inc., and after review, are placed with the Genealogical & Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA. Non-member contributors, on request, will be provided a copy of the review. Flyers announcing publication and sale of books and other publications, except those sponsored by CGGS, will not be reprinted or enclosed in the QUARTERLY but may be given a very brief announcement, on a space available basis, in our NEWSLETTER. Books for review should be addressed to: Quarterly Editor, Central Georgia Genealogical Society, Inc., P.O. Box 2024, Warner Robins, GA 31099-2024.

SEWARD AND RELATED FAMILIES, Second Edition, Edited and published by George C. Seward, [redacted] Printed by Efficiency Printing, White Plains, New York. Soft bound 5½" x 8½", 316 pages, price $28.50. Copy donated to CGGS.

Mr. Seward is 85 years old, a lawyer with Seward & Kissel since 1953 (New York City, Washington, D.C. and Budapest, Hungary). His book contains his Seward lineage back to Obadiah, I, born c1635, who married in 1660 at Milford, CT to Bethyah Hawes and moved to Long Island before 1664. Related families include Sweger, Bradley, Cummings, Rugh, McKays, Yantis and many others. William Henry Seward (1801-1872), Secretary of State of the United States in the Cabinets of Presidents Abraham Lincoln and Andrew Johnson is included. Dozens of documents and pictures are included in the various appendix. Contains a table of contents, bibliography, place index and name index. Copy will be placed with the Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA.

INDEX TO MELTON P. MEEK, M.D. GENEALOGICAL COLLECTION, by Melton P. Meek, M.D., [redacted]. Copy donated to CGGS.

Contains a general summary index to the microfilmed Meek collection of genealogical lineages and materials. A total of 96 microfilm reels, for over 500 primary Surname Families and Albums as filmed (1993-1994) by Genealogical Society of Utah, Salt Lake City. Included are over thirty "Georgia Families" on early Georgia History. These films are available for rental through any & all local Mormon Stake libraries. Copy will be placed with the Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA.

Mr. Meek is a CGGS member. His records in our "Georgia Pioneers" Collection contains our earliest proven settler, John Sallis in 1758 and he has received certificates on more Georgia Pioneers than any other member.

CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.
POST OFFICE BOX 2024
WARNER ROBINS, GEORGIA 31099-2024

Non-Profit
Tax Exempt
Org. GA

ORGANIZATION: The CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, Inc. was organized in October 1978 by James T. Martin of Warner Robins, Georgia. In February 1981 the Society was incorporated as a non-profit organization under the law of the State of Georgia. The U.S. Internal Revenue Service has determined that the society is a tax-exemption organization under Section 501(c)(3), U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The Society is governed by a Board of Directors consisting of the elected and appointed officers and six elected Directors.

AREA: The Society's geographical area of primary interest consists of twenty-seven contiguous counties located in central Georgia. They are: BALDWIN, BIBB, BLECKLEY, CRAWFORD, CRISP, DODGE, DOOLY, HOUSTON, JOHNSON, JONES, LAMAR, LAURENS, MACON, MONROE, MONTGOMERY, PEACH, PIKE, PULASKI, TAYLOR, TELFAIR, TREUTLEN, TWIGGS, UPSON, WASHINGTON, WHEELER, WILCOX and WILKINSON.

PURPOSE: The purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

To collect, preserve and disseminate knowledge and information with reference to genealogical and related historical, biographical and heraldic data;

To inculcate and promote interest in research in these fields;

To stimulate and provide instruction in the use of efficient methods and the adherence to principles of accuracy and thoroughness in research;

To champion ethical standards and to discourage and oppose incompetent and disreputable practices or researchers;

To foster careful documentation and otherwise promote scholarly writing;

To issue publications, and

To promote the collection and the preservation of local records which are of genealogical or historical value.

MEMBERSHIP: Membership in the Society is open to any person interested in promoting the objectives stated above. Annual dues for 1995 are: $20.00 for individual membership; $25.00 for family membership (husband and wife, or two related persons in same household).

TRAINING: At least twice each year the Society conducts classes for beginner genealogists. These classes are free for members in good standing.

WORKSHOP: The Society plans to hold an all day workshop once each year, complete with exhibits, for members and the public. The registration fee will be set to cover the Society's cost and may vary from year to year, depending upon prices charged for food, meeting facilities, speaker fees, etc.

PROJECTS: The Society undertakes special projects for preservation of genealogical and historical information, such as: microfilming old newspapers, abstracting and publishing county court records, federal census records, cemetery records, etc.

PUBLICATIONS: The Society publishes a monthly NEWSLETTER and a QUARTERLY. The QUARTERLY is published four times per year as number 1 thru 4 and is mailed to all members in good standing. The annual volume number represents the years in existence. Many other societies, who are members, receive our QUARTERLY. QUERIES, from members only, are published in the QUARTERLY free of charge. There is no limit as to the number of queries

which a member may submit. BOOK REVIEWS are published when a copy of the book has been received by the Society. After review these books are donated to the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA., whose holdings are one of the largest in the southeast. Members are encourage to submit ARTICLES FOR PUBLICATION in the QUARTERLY, and extra long articles may be serialized. The QUARTERLY is not copyrighted and anyone is welcome to make proper use of the contents; however, the use of articles quoted from other published sources is prohibited without permission from the copyright holder. Appropriate credit will be appreciated. The QUARTERLY is not sold by subscription. Current and back issues may be purchased from the Society when available. The Society welcomes the opportunity to publish FAMILY PEDIGREE CHARTS for members. Mimimum coverage of four generations is required. Our computer designed charts provided for as much information on the fifth generation as the second, third and fourth - most charts provide much less. Give us as much complete information as possible on available forms and separate paper.

MEETINGS: The Society holds regular monthly meetings with planned programs. These meetings are currently held at the Flint Electric Building, 1600 Elberta Road, Warner Robins, Georgia at 7pm on the third Thursday of each month. In addition to the program, time permitting, a question and answer session is usually conducted for the benefit of members who have a problem with their research, or who has found a better way for accomplishing their work. Visitors and guest are always welcome to attend regular meetings of the Society. Our current membership covers many states and we invite you to join our Society. For a membership application write to the Corresponding Secretary at address shown in the heading above or call (912) 953-3114.

CGGS MEMBERSHIP REARCH DIRECTORY 1995-1996

This directory of 1337 names contains a list of up to ten ancestors being researched by members, of the Central Georgia Genealogical Society, current for years 1995 and/or 1996. The directory was last published in CGGS Quarterly Vol. 16, No's. 1 through 4, (1994) for members current for the years 1993 and/or 1994. Ancestors in that or earlier directories are not repeated here unless they were resubmitted during the 1995-1996 membership years. If more than one submission was received, only the lastest is included. Late submissions will be included in subsequent 1996 Quarterly issues. Use the "member" number, in the right hand column, to find the member's name and address in the CGGS Membership Roster 1885-1996, which follows on page 27. An (*) following the "member's" number indicates research if for African-American families.

SOUTH WEST GEORGIAN
OGLETHORPE, GEORGIA
May 8, 1851 - Jan 6, 1853

This is the fourth and final in a series of abstracted items and is continued from CGGS Quarterly 1995 Volume 17, No. 4.

Vol. 2, # 13, July 17, 1852:

Sad Intelligence from California - Mortality among Georgia Emigrants: The steamship Crescent City arrived at New York on Monday evening, brings among other items of news from the Pacific side, the intelligence of the arrival of the British ship "Sir Charles Napier" at San Francisco on the 21st of May after a voyage of 90 days from Panama...when the ship had been out only one day from Panama the measles, dysentery and fever began...and continued about three weeks, in which time no less than 36 were consigned to the deep. The list of the Georgians who died on board the ship were: T. Banks and James Hamblin of Murray County; M. Rogers of Cherokee; ____Burns, and T. Havies of Jackson; Z. Grimble, John Sears, T. Robertson, W.J. Groane, W.A. Dawson, Boly Wickett of Gordon county; E. Rouse, William Birt, G. Carson, Z. Baker of Lumpkin County; J.W. Tunalin, G. Vinacut, A. Reid of Cass County; J.M. Kincaid, Adley and Osborne (black boys) of Burke County. Died on board steamship "McKim" on the passage from Panama were Joseph Bolin and W.W. Johnson of Georgia. Died in California was J.J. Simons of Georgia. It will be remembered that a considerable number of Georgians from interior counties, with several from Tennessee, North and South Carolina, sailed in the "Isabel" with a number of slaves for California, via Havana. We presume the passengers on the Sir Charles Napier were of company.

Dissolution: The copartnership heretofore existing between Barclay & Scott is this day dissolved by mutual consent. All person indebted will immediately settle with F.W. Barclay or his attorney P.G. Arrington at Oglethorpe...F.W. Barclay and John Scott, July 17, 1852.

Georgia - Macon County: One month after date application will be made to the Court of Ordinary, of Macon Co., for leave to sell one improved lot and one unimproved lot in the Town of Thomaston, Upson County, Ga and also one negro woman. Sold as the property of Elizabeth Collier, for the benefit of Sarah A. Elizabeth and Mary Jane Black, minors...J.M.Black, Guardian, July 17, 1852.

Taylor Sheriff Sale: Will be sold on the public square in the Town of Butler, Taylor Co., on the first Tuesday in September next...one Lot of Land No. 10 in the 13th Dist of originally Muscogee now Taylor County, levied on as the property of Simon Hobbs to satisfy a fi fa from a Justices Court of Gwinnette Co., in favor of William Abbois vs said Hobbs. Said property pointed out by the plaintiff, and levy made and returned to me by G.M. Dean, Constable...J.M. Thompson, Sheriff.

Vol. 2, # 14, July 23, 1852:

Executor's Sale: By authority of the last Will and Testament of Shadrack R. Felton, deceased, the undersigned Executor offers at private sale, a valuable body of Land. Nine hundred acres of which two hundred are in cultivation and the balance mostly covered with oak and hickory...this settlement is known as the Rushin Land, extending from Beaver creek to Flint River and adjoining Montezuma and also the lands of Daniel Haugabrook, Senes H. Clark and Gen. Armstrong. If not previously disposed of, the said body of land will be sold at public auction at the Town of Montezuma on the first Tuesday, 2nd day of November next...G.H. Young and L.M. Felton, Executors, Montezuma, July 21, 1852.

Council Chamber, Oglethorpe, July 9, 1852: The council approved the sum of $265 towards the purchase of a Fire Engine for the protection against fires and appointed Alterman Huson, Jelks, O.C. Horne and R.H.D. Sorrell plus the Mayor himself. They also approved a resolution that the Mayor call a meeting of the citizens of Oglethorpe to take into consideration the building of a Bridge across Flint River.

Council Chamber, Oglethorpe, July 15, 1852: The Sexton presented a petition from the several citizens praying for this body to purchase and lay out a new grave yard in a different part of the City, upon which the Mayor appointed a committee of Alderman Huson, Moody and Stanfield to investigate and report back. Council also set a Poll Tax of $1 on all mail (male) persons between the ages of 21 and 60 years and a Street Tax of $3 on all mail (male) persons between the ages of 21 and 45. They reported that the local election held to determine if city council should subscribe Ten Thousand dollars in a Plank Road, called the South-Western Plank road received 16 votes for and 46 against.

Vol. 2, # 16, August 6, 1852:

Fatal Affray: On Saturday night last about 8 o'clock an altercation took place between Samuel Jackson, Jacob Gregory and Thomas Whatley, in which Whatley was killed by a stab from Gregory in the left thigh, which cut the Femoral Artery into. The difficulty appears to have originated between Jackson and Whatley concerning some three foot boards, with the former of whom Gregory was interested. Each, (Jackson and Whatley) had a pile of boards in the woods, standing near each other. Whatley sold his pile, which had as many boards in it as Jackson's pile had, save two. A drayman was sent to haul them, but missing the direction given him, hauled Jackson's boards whereupon Jackson demanded satisfaction for the mistake made by the drayman, a fight ensued in which Gregory became the murder of Whatley. The unfortunate man lived about twenty minutes after receiving the wound. The two scamps were arrested and brought before justicies Harris and Artington, who saw proper (we presume with some maimness in the evidence) to discharge them both.

Sudden Death: Died on the 7th inst. at the house of P.M. Huson in this city, Mrs. Margaret W. Bradley, consort of J.W. Bradley. Mrs. R. was only yesterday well, and up to 12 o'clock last night in apparent good health, but about 2 o'clock this morning the messenger of Death summoned her to the spirit land.

Assignee's Notice; Stephen F. Miller announced that the books, notes, and accounts of Messrs Collians, Ashburns, McKenzie & Co. Merchants of Oglethorpe have been assigned to him.

[Editor Note: This was the last issue, of this newspaper, contained on the microfilm. The owner and Editor, Charles B. Youngblood, had for several months advertised a half-interest in the paper was for sale. Mr. Youngblood last appears as owner and editor in the November 12th 1852 issue. In this last issue F.W. Allen, being the sole proprietor, published an article titled "A Bargain for Printers" in which he placed the paper up for sale. Until a purchaser come along, he stated he would continue to do the editorials, except the political part, which "I have neither time, taste, inclination nor experience to fill." Therefore it appears that this issue may not have been the end of this newspaper. For further information on Oglethorpe, see History of Macon County, Georgia, 1979 by Louise F. GEORGIA PIONEER DESCENDENT PROGRAM

The following entry in CGGS Quarterly 1995 Vol. 17-3, page 159 is corrected to read as follows:

~~THOMAS WINGFIELD, SR~~ JOHN WINGFIELD, SR

Born 1723 New Kent/Hanover(?) County, VA., son of Thomas Wingfield & Sarah Garland. He married 1744 to Francis Oliver Buck 1725-1795 and he died 1791 in Wilkes County, GA. They moved to Wilkes County, GA in 1784. Their son John Wingfield, Jr., born 1761 and died 1802 Wilkes County, GA. John Jr. married Mary Darracourt. Sarah Garland Wingfield, daughter of John Jr., was born 21 November 1797 Wilkes County and died 21 April 1863 Rockdale County, GA. Sarah married 5 August 1828 Wilkes County, GA to Joshua Nichols Glenn 1799-1879. [EDITOR NOTE: Sarah Garland Wingfield was daughter of Edward Garland Sr., my great(7), grandfather.]

[Editor: Thanks to Ms Ann Griggs Foster, 1870 Irvin Bridge Road, Conyers, GA 30207 who brought to my attention that I had copied the incorrect name of the pioneer ancestor. Ms Foster also stated that the parents of John Wingfield Sr were John Wingfield and Sarah Garland. This is an incorrect family tradition which started when some one back about 1850 published a Wingfield Family Tree showing John Wingfield married Sarah Garland. Many family histories and the Wingfield Family Newsletter have repeated this incorrect information. Several years ago, I copied the research of Dr. John Goodwin Herndon, while at the Virginia State Archives. Dr. Herndon did an in-dept study of the Wingfield Genealogy which was printed in The Virginia Magazine of History & Biography, Volume 60, 1952. His research proved that Thomas Wingfield Sr., instead of his brother John, was the husband of Sarah Garland.]

RECENT ACQUISITIONS AT WASHINGTON MEMORIAL LIBRARY

POLICY: The Central Georgia Genealogical Society, Inc., during 1987 discontinued the maintenance of a Society Library. The holdings in our Library were small and duplicated publications held in the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA which has one of the largest collections in the southeast. The Macon Library is centrally located within the 27 counties of primary interest of our society and can far better serve our membership. All publications previously held were presented to Willard L. ROCKER, Head Librarian at the Genealogical and Historical Room. All publication received by our society as gifts, donations, by exchange programs or for book reviews will be presented to the same library. Since 1987, it has been our policy to support the Macon Library particularly in the acquisition of microfilms of early county records within our jurisdictional area. We hope to expand our support as future conditions permit. As a service to our membership, this column list the acquisition of all records since the previous Quarterly. Inquiries with SASE (business size) may be addressed to the library at 1180 Washington Ave., Macon, GA 31201. William R. HENRY, Editor

NOTE: The genealogical collection of this library contains 21,000 books, 15,000 microforms, 259 Maps and 60 subscriptions. The library serves over 13,000 researchers annually and the rate is increasing each year. During past year they came from 5 foreign countries and 38 states, with Florida, Alabama, Texas, South Carolina, Virginia, Tennessee and California representing states (in order) with the highest number.

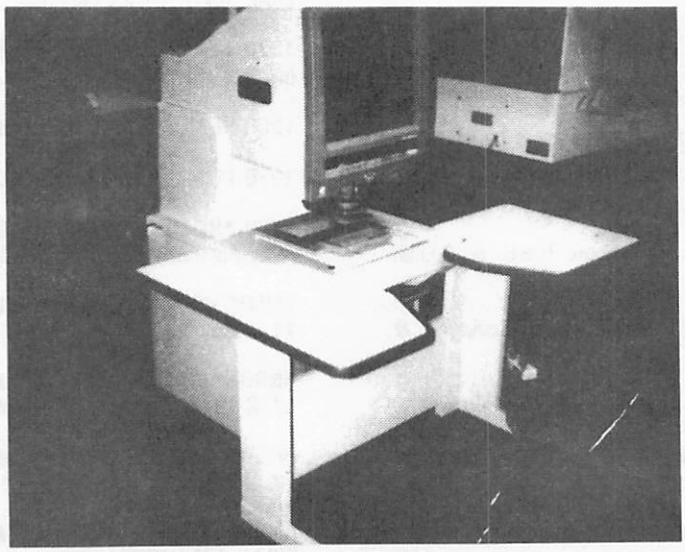
CGGS DONATION

Last summer, the Central Georgia Genealogical Society presented a check for $8,650.00 to Mr. Willard Rocker, Genealogical Librarian, at the Genealogical & Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, 1180 Washington Avenue, Macon, Georgia to purchase a new Minolta RP606Z Reader-Printer. The unit, pictured below, has now been purchased and is in place in the Genealogical & Historical Room. A metal plate has been place on the unit noting it was donated by our Society.

This new reader-printer is the first available in the Library that will provide fiche printouts. It comes with both Prism and Zoom Lens and is a complete work station. Attachments are also available to supplement and relieve the almost constant use of several other units to read and print microfilms.

The Officers and Directors are very proud and grateful that the genealogical collection in the Washington Memorial Library is perhaps, the largest collection in the Southeastern United States. We are also thankful that the sale of CGGS Publication has continued to increase whereby we are able to continue to contribute to the growth of their holdings and equipment. This in turn benefits our membership and other genealogical researchers.

Plans are incomplete but a formal dedication is planned to be held in the near future.



MINOLTA RP606Z READER-PRINTER

On the last page of this issue is a layout map of the Genealogical & Historical Room. It show the location of book racks by state and country and overlaid with the Dewey Decimal System for finding books referenced in the Card Catalog files. Copy and use the map to help in your research at the Library.

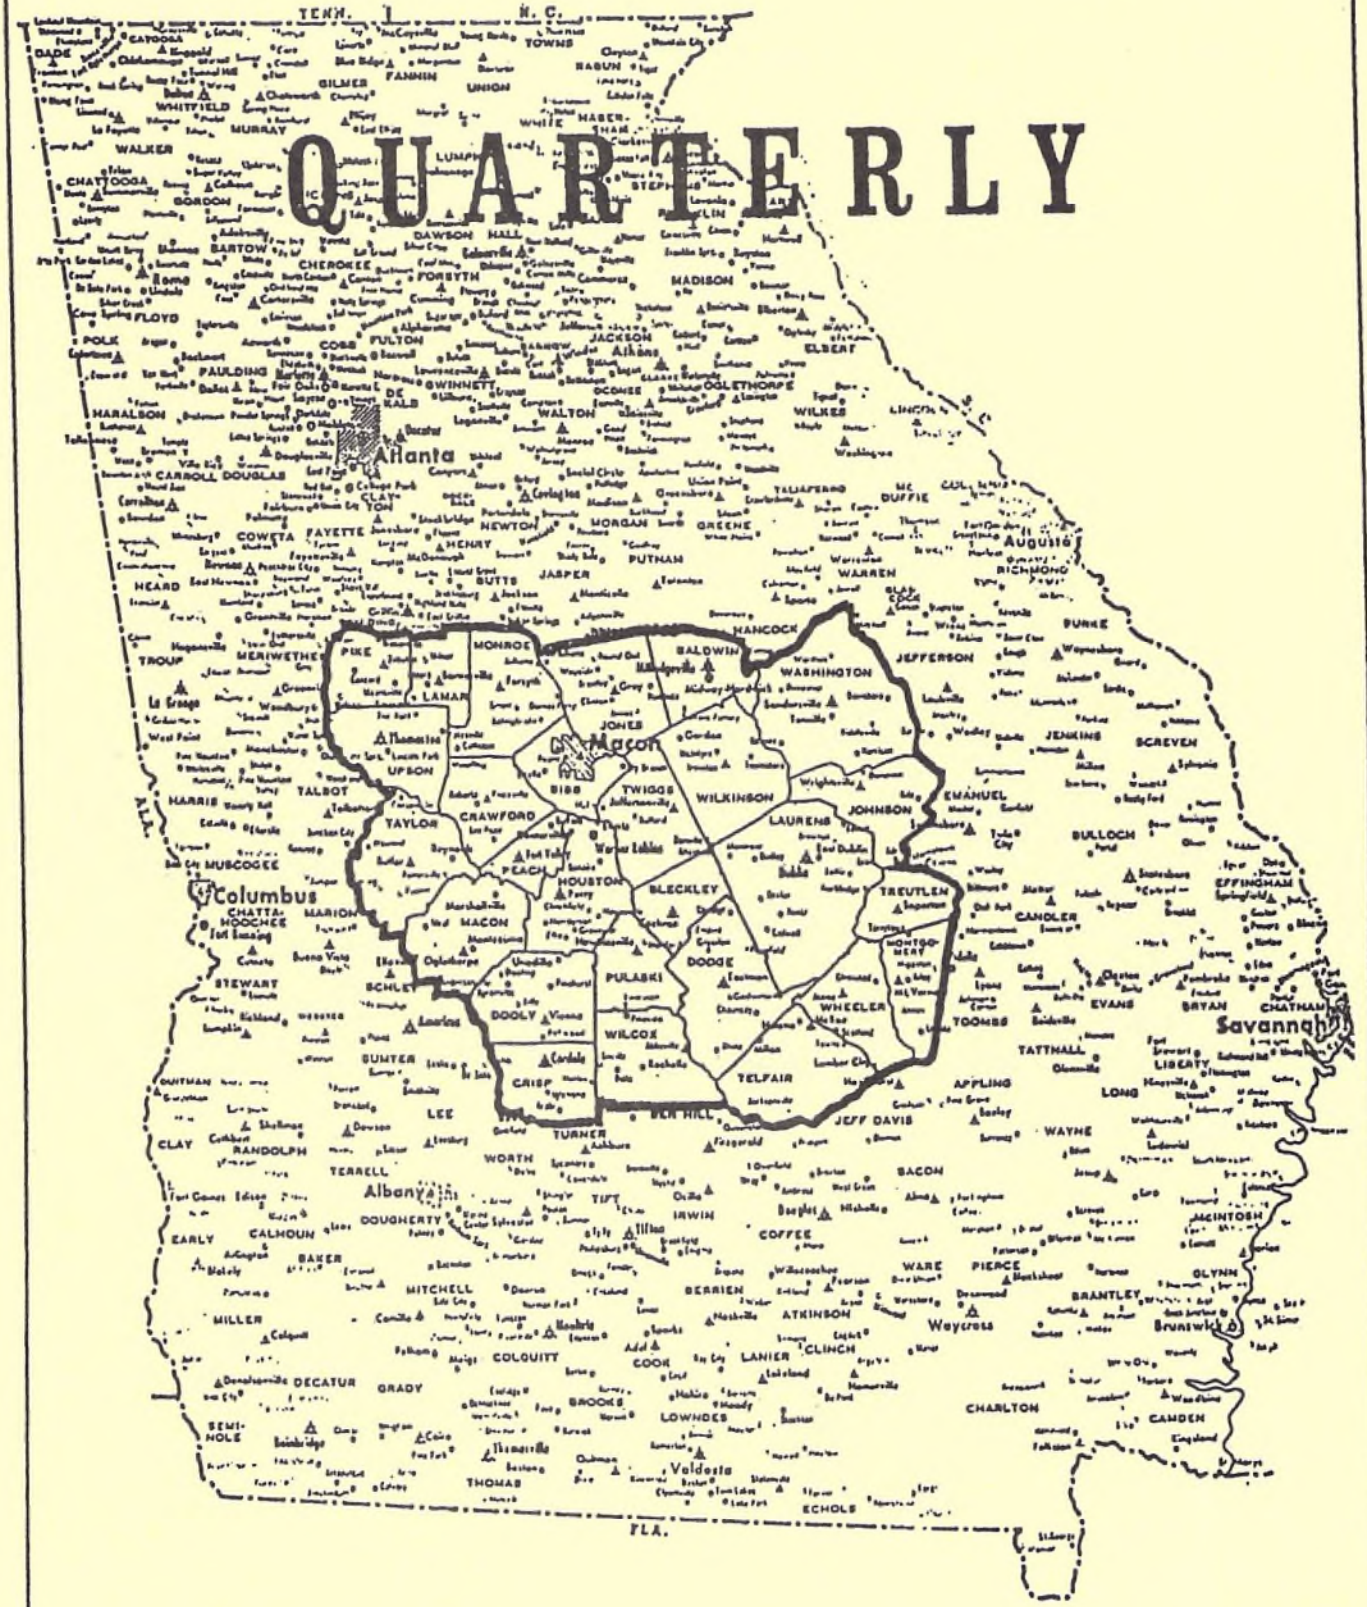
WASHINGTON MEMORIAL LIBRARY

MACON GEORGIA

CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.



1996 Vol. 18, No. 2

William Rogers Henry
1921 - 1996

We dedicate this issue of our Quarterly to William Rogers Henry, Editor and Chairman of the Publications Committee. Bill, as he was known to all, joined the Central Georgia Genealogical Society in January 1983 and soon became a member of the Publications Committee. In 1986 he completed compiling EARLY SETTLERS of GREEN COUNTY, INDIANA (From Southern States), and promoted publication as a joint venture of CGGS and the Green County Historical Society, Bloomfield, Indiana. The book was an instant success and sold out through two reprints. This put us in the book publishing business and Bill led the way. He was a stickler for accuracy in all he did and dedicated to providing publications which researchers could depend upon. It is through Bill's efforts and expertise that we have been able to published over forty books. But books were not his only concern. As Editor of our Quarterly he continually upgraded the contents and format until we have a Quarterly second to none. Bill was also a helper. He never hesitated to lay aside whatever it was he was doing to help others with their research, computer problems, or whatever. He was a "scholar and gentleman" in the fullest sense and because of his dedication and untiring efforts to serve his fellow genealogist our Society has grown to its present position.

CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.
POST OFFICE BOX 2024
WARNER ROBINS, GEORGIA 31099-2024

Non-Profit
Tax Exempt
Org. GA

ORGANIZATION: The CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, Inc. was organized in October 1978 by James T. Martin of Warner Robins, Georgia. In February 1981 the Society was incorporated as a non-profit organization under the law of the State of Georgia. The U.S. Internal Revenue Service has determined that the society is a tax-exemption organization under Section 501(c)(3), U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The Society is governed by a Board of Directors consisting of the elected and appointed officers and six elected Directors.

AREA: The Society's geographical area of primary interest consists of twenty-seven contiguous counties located in central Georgia. They are: BALDWIN, BIBB, BLECKLEY, CRAWFORD, CRISP, DODGE, DOOLY, HOUSTON, JOHNSON, JONES, LAMAR, LAURENS, MACON, MONROE, MONTGOMERY, PEACH, PIKE, PULASKI, TAYLOR, TELFAIR, TREUTLEN, TWIGGS, UPSON, WASHINGTON, WHEELER, WILCOX and WILKINSON.

PURPOSE: The purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

To collect, preserve and disseminate knowledge and information with reference to genealogical and related historical, biographical and heraldic data;

To inculcate and promote interest in research in these fields;

To stimulate and provide instruction in the use of efficient methods and the adherence to principles of accuracy and thoroughness in research;

To champion ethical standards and to discourage and oppose incompetent and disreputable practices or researchers;

To foster careful documentation and otherwise promote scholarly writing;

To issue publications, and

To promote the collection and the preservation of local records which are of genealogical or historical value.

MEMBERSHIP: Membership in the Society is open to any person interested in promoting the objectives stated above. Annual dues for 1995 are: $20.00 for individual membership; $25.00 for family membership (husband and wife, or two related persons in same household).

TRAINING: At least twice each year the Society conducts classes for beginner genealogists. These classes are free for members in good standing.

WORKSHOP: The Society plans to hold an all day workshop once each year, complete with exhibits, for members and the public. The registration fee will be set to cover the Society's cost and may vary from year to year, depending upon prices charged for food, meeting facilities, speaker fees, etc.

PROJECTS: The Society undertakes special projects for preservation of genealogical and historical information, such as: microfilming old newspapers, abstracting and publishing county court records, federal census records, cemetery records, etc.

PUBLICATIONS: The Society publishes a monthly NEWSLETTER and a QUARTERLY. The QUARTERLY is published four times per year as number 1 thru 4 and is mailed to all members in good standing. The annual volume number represents the years in existence. Many other societies, who are members, receive our QUARTERLY. QUERIES, from members only, are published in the QUARTERLY free of charge. There is no limit as to the number of queries

which a member may submit. BOOK REVIEWS are published when a copy of the book has been received by the Society. After review these books are donated to the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA., whose holdings are one of the largest in the southeast. Members are encourage to submit ARTICLES FOR PUBLICATION in the QUARTERLY, and extra long articles may be serialized. The QUARTERLY is not copyrighted and anyone is welcome to make proper use of the contents; however, the use of articles quoted from other published sources is prohibited without permission from the copyright holder. Appropriate credit will be appreciated. The QUARTERLY is not sold by subscription. Current and back issues may be purchased from the Society when available. The Society welcomes the opportunity to publish FAMILY PEDIGREE CHARTS for members. Mimimum coverage of four generations is required. Our computer designed charts provided for as much information on the fifth generation as the second, third and fourth - most charts provide much less. Give us as much complete information as possible on available forms and separate paper.

MEETINGS: The Society holds regular monthly meetings with planned programs. These meetings are currently held at the Flint Electric Building, 1600 Elberta Road, Warner Robins, Georgia at 7pm on the third Thursday of each month. In addition to the program, time permitting, a question and answer session is usually conducted for the benefit of members who have a problem with their research, or who has found a better way for accomplishing their work. Visitors and guest are always welcome to attend regular meetings of the Society. Our current membership covers many states and we invite you to join our Society. For a membership application write to the Corresponding Secretary at address shown in the heading above or call (912) 953-3114.

CGGS MEMBERSHIP REARCH DIRECTORY 1995-1996

(Additions to Vol. 18, No. 1, 1996)

This directory of 91 names contains a list of up to ten ancestors being researched by members, of the Central Georgia Genealogical Society, current for years 1995 and/or 1996. It is a continuation of the 1337 names contained in our last issue. The directory was last published in CGGS Quarterly Vol. 16, No's. 1 through 4, (1994) for members current for the years 1993 and/or 1994. Ancestors in that or earlier directories are not repeated here unless they were resubmitted during the 1995-1996 membership years. If more than one submission was received, only the lastest is included. Late submissions will be included in subsequent 1996 Quarterly issues. Use the "member" number, in the right hand column, to find the member's name and address in the CGGS Membership Roster 1885-1996, which follows on page 27. An (*) following the "member's" number indicates research if for African-American families.

NOTICE: This is my final issue as your Quarterly Editor. In early March, I was dignosed with a rare form of terminal stomach cancer and I have struggled to complete this issue more than a month ahead of time. I have had some bad days that I could not set my mind to the task but some better days give me an hour or so at the computer. Hopefully, I will be around to see this issue in print.

Our President, David Stephens, has not yet announced who will be appointed as your next Quarterly Editor. It must be done quickly as several subjects in the Quarterly are continuing entries. Who ever he or she be has my best wishes for a long and sucessful term.

My thanks also go out to the Officers & Directors, plus the membership for allowing me to serve the past four years as your Quarterly Editor.

PULASKI COUNTY, GEORGIA
ADMINISTRATORS AND GUARDIANS BONDS
December, 1810 - March, 1825

Contributed by: Victor R.Myrick, [redacted]

The date on the first page of this book gives the dates of the contents as ending in 1823 but the material continues without interruption to 1825. In copying this information I have used the following abbreviations: adm. for administrator, temp. for temporary, sec. for security, gdn. for guardian, admx. for administratrix and adms. for administrators.

This material is included in the records of estates in the ordinary court minutes of the county but they were also listed in a sepatrate book. Having them in a separate listing enables researchers to find the material easier because the estate record books are not indexed. Once you have found a person you are researching, you can use the date given here and go to the court minutes.

GEORGIA PIONEER DESCENDENT PROGRAM

Continued from CGGS Quarterly, 1995, Volume 17, No. 3. This is the fifth of a series listing a brief sketch of an ancestor on whom a Georgia Pioneer Descendent certificate has been issued to one or more descendants. See the first series in CGGS Quarterly, 1995, Volume 17, No. 1. for details on this program. A certificate is available to any persons who can prove they descend from an ancestor who settled in Georgia prior to 1 January 1826. The complete file of each applicant (approved or disapproved) has been or will be placed in the Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA and can be viewed there.

William Rogers Henry
1921 - 1996

We dedicate this issue of our Quarterly to William Rogers Henry, Editor and Chairman of the Publications Committee. Bill, as he was known to all, joined the Central Georgia Genealogical Society in January 1983 and soon became a member of the Publications Committee. In 1986 he completed compiling EARLY SETTLERS of GREEN COUNTY, INDIANA (From Southern States), and promoted publication as a joint venture of CGGS and the Green County Historical Society, Bloomfield, Indiana. The book was an instant success and sold out through two reprints. This put us in the book publishing business and Bill led the way. He was a stickler for accuracy in all he did and dedicated to providing publications which researchers could depend upon. It is through Bill's efforts and expertise that we have been able to published over forty books. But books were not his only concern. As Editor of our Quarterly he continually upgraded the contents and format until we have a Quarterly second to none. Bill was also a helper. He never hesitated to lay aside whatever it was he was doing to help others with their research, computer problems, or whatever. He was a "scholar and gentleman" in the fullest sense and because of his dedication and untiring efforts to serve his fellow genealogist our Society has grown to its present position.

CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.
POST OFFICE BOX 2024
WARNER ROBINS, GEORGIA 31099-2024

Non-Profit
Tax Exempt
Org. GA

ORGANIZATION: The CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, Inc. was organized in October 1978 by James T. Martin of Warner Robins, Georgia. In February 1981 the Society was incorporated as a non-profit organization under the law of the State of Georgia. The U.S. Internal Revenue Service has determined that the society is a tax-exemption organization under Section 501(c)(3), U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The Society is governed by a Board of Directors consisting of the elected and appointed officers and six elected Directors.

AREA: The Society's geographical area of primary interest consists of twenty-seven contiguous counties located in central Georgia. They are: BALDWIN, BIBB, BLECKLEY, CRAWFORD, CRISP, DODGE, DOOLY, HOUSTON, JOHNSON, JONES, LAMAR, LAURENS, MACON, MONROE, MONTGOMERY, PEACH, PIKE, PULASKI, TAYLOR, TELFAIR, TREUTLEN, TWIGGS, UPSON, WASHINGTON, WHEELER, WILCOX and WILKINSON.

PURPOSE: The purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

To collect, preserve and disseminate knowledge and information with reference to genealogical and related historical, biographical and heraldic data;

To inculcate and promote interest in research in these fields;

To stimulate and provide instruction in the use of efficient methods and the adherence to principles of accuracy and thoroughness in research;

To champion ethical standards and to discourage and oppose incompetent and disreputable practices or researchers;

To foster careful documentation and otherwise promote scholarly writing;

To issue publications, and

To promote the collection and the preservation of local records which are of genealogical or historical value.

MEMBERSHIP: Membership in the Society is open to any person interested in promoting the objectives stated above. Annual dues for 1995 are: $20.00 for individual membership; $25.00 for family membership (husband and wife, or two related persons in same household).

TRAINING: At least twice each year the Society conducts classes for beginner genealogists. These classes are free for members in good standing.

WORKSHOP: The Society plans to hold an all day workshop once each year, complete with exhibits, for members and the public. The registration fee will be set to cover the Society's cost and may vary from year to year, depending upon prices charged for food, meeting facilities, speaker fees, etc.

PROJECTS: The Society undertakes special projects for preservation of genealogical and historical information, such as: microfilming old newspapers, abstracting and publishing county court records, federal census records, cemetery records, etc.

PUBLICATIONS: The Society publishes a monthly NEWSLETTER and a QUARTERLY. The QUARTERLY is published four times per year as number 1 thru 4 and is mailed to all members in good standing. The annual volume number represents the years in existence. Many other societies, who are members, receive our QUARTERLY. QUERIES, from members only, are published in the QUARTERLY free of charge. There is no limit as to the number of queries

which a member may submit. BOOK REVIEWS are published when a copy of the book has been received by the Society. After review these books are donated to the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA., whose holdings are one of the largest in the southeast. Members are encourage to submit ARTICLES FOR PUBLICATION in the QUARTERLY, and extra long articles may be serialized. The QUARTERLY is not copyrighted and anyone is welcome to make proper use of the contents; however, the use of articles quoted from other published sources is prohibited without permission from the copyright holder. Appropriate credit will be appreciated. The QUARTERLY is not sold by subscription. Current and back issues may be purchased from the Society when available. The Society welcomes the opportunity to publish FAMILY PEDIGREE CHARTS for members. Mimimum coverage of four generations is required. Our computer designed charts provided for as much information on the fifth generation as the second, third and fourth - most charts provide much less. Give us as much complete information as possible on available forms and separate paper.

MEETINGS: The Society holds regular monthly meetings with planned programs. These meetings are currently held at the Flint Electric Building, 1600 Elberta Road, Warner Robins, Georgia at 7pm on the third Thursday of each month. In addition to the program, time permitting, a question and answer session is usually conducted for the benefit of members who have a problem with their research, or who has found a better way for accomplishing their work. Visitors and guest are always welcome to attend regular meetings of the Society. Our current membership covers many states and we invite you to join our Society. For a membership application write to the Corresponding Secretary at address shown in the heading above or call (912) 953-3114.

CGGS MEMBERSHIP REARCH DIRECTORY 1995-1996

(Additions to Vol. 18, No. 1, 1996)

This directory of 91 names contains a list of up to ten ancestors being researched by members, of the Central Georgia Genealogical Society, current for years 1995 and/or 1996. It is a continuation of the 1337 names contained in our last issue. The directory was last published in CGGS Quarterly Vol. 16, No's. 1 through 4, (1994) for members current for the years 1993 and/or 1994. Ancestors in that or earlier directories are not repeated here unless they were resubmitted during the 1995-1996 membership years. If more than one submission was received, only the lastest is included. Late submissions will be included in subsequent 1996 Quarterly issues. Use the "member" number, in the right hand column, to find the member's name and address in the CGGS Membership Roster 1885-1996, which follows on page 27. An (*) following the "member's" number indicates research if for African-American families.

NOTICE: This is my final issue as your Quarterly Editor. In early March, I was dignosed with a rare form of terminal stomach cancer and I have struggled to complete this issue more than a month ahead of time. I have had some bad days that I could not set my mind to the task but some better days give me an hour or so at the computer. Hopefully, I will be around to see this issue in print.

Our President, David Stephens, has not yet announced who will be appointed as your next Quarterly Editor. It must be done quickly as several subjects in the Quarterly are continuing entries. Who ever he or she be has my best wishes for a long and sucessful term.

My thanks also go out to the Officers & Directors, plus the membership for allowing me to serve the past four years as your Quarterly Editor.

PULASKI COUNTY, GEORGIA
ADMINISTRATORS AND GUARDIANS BONDS
December, 1810 - March, 1825

Contributed by: Victor R.Myrick, [redacted]

The date on the first page of this book gives the dates of the contents as ending in 1823 but the material continues without interruption to 1825. In copying this information I have used the following abbreviations: adm. for administrator, temp. for temporary, sec. for security, gdn. for guardian, admx. for administratrix and adms. for administrators.

This material is included in the records of estates in the ordinary court minutes of the county but they were also listed in a sepatrate book. Having them in a separate listing enables researchers to find the material easier because the estate record books are not indexed. Once you have found a person you are researching, you can use the date given here and go to the court minutes.

WEEP NOT FOR ME, DEAR MOTHER. By Elizabeth Whitley Roberson. Pelican Publishing Company, Gretna, Louisiana, 1996. Soft Bound with Laminated Cover, 168 pages, price $19.95. Copy donated to CGGS.

More than one hundred letters written by a Confederate soldier from Gwinnett County, Georgia form the nucleus of this excellent book. The letters, written by Eli Pinson Landers to his mother, Susan Landers, and to other family members, were rescued from a trash can in Atlanta in the 1960's and then more or less forgotten for another two decades. In 1989 they were brought to the attention of author Elizabeth Whitley Roberson, a history teacher at Martin Community College and East Carolina University in North Carolina.

The young soldier's informative and intensely personal letters span the period from his enlistment at age nineteen in Company H, 16th Georgia Volunteers to October, 1863, shortly before his death from typhoid fever following the Battle of Chicamauga. They chronicle his participation in a number of battles, including Chancellorsville and Gettysburg, his responses to the life of soldier far from home, and his love for his family. The author, inspired by these letters, immersed herself in the brief life of this young man, visiting his home in Gwinnett County and the battlesfields that he described as well as seeking out descendants of his siblings. She skillfully interweaves historical narrative with Eli P. Landers' voice from the past to create an outstanding book which has received well-deserved recognition in the form of a nomination for the Douglas Southall Freeman Award for best book in Southern or Confederate history. The book includes genealogical information on the Landers family and is illustrated with original drawings as well as ambrotypes of Eli and his mother. Copy has been placed with Washington Memorial Library, Macon, Georgia.

The publication of this book has sparked the formation of the Eli P. Landers Sons of Confederate Veterans Camp. This group is currently involved in an effort to secure the funds to rescue and restore Eli's Gwinnett County homeplace, which is scheduled for demolition in May, 1996 as part of a road-widening project.

RECENT ACQUISITIONS AT WASHINGTON MEMORIAL LIBRARY

POLICY: The Central Georgia Genealogical Society, Inc., during 1987 discontinued the maintenance of a Society Library. The holdings in our Library were small and duplicated publications held in the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA which has one of the largest collections in the southeast. The Macon Library is centrally located within the 27 counties of primary interest of our society and can far better serve our membership. All publications previously held were presented to Willard L. ROCKER, Head Librarian at the Genealogical and Historical Room. All publication received by our society as gifts, donations, by exchange programs or for book reviews will be presented to the same library. Since 1987, it has been our policy to support the Macon Library particularly in the acquisition of microfilms of early county records within our jurisdictional area. We hope to expand our support as future conditions permit. As a service to our membership, this column list the acquisition of all records since the previous Quarterly. Inquiries with SASE (business size) may be addressed to the library at 1180 Washington Ave., Macon, GA 31201.

William R. HENRY, Editor

NOTE: The genealogical collection of this library contains 21,000 books, 15,000 microforms, 259 Maps and 60 subscriptions. The library serves over 13,000 researchers annually and the rate is increasing each year. During past year they came from 5 foreign countries and 38 states, with Florida, Alabama, Texas, South Carolina, Virginia, Tennessee and California representing states (in order) with the highest number.

TAYLOR COUNTY, GEORGIA
ADMINISTRATOR & GUARDIAN BONDS
Book "A" 1852-1915

Contributed by: William R. Henry,

Above book is indexed only with names of Administrators & Guardians by page number. Many entries are out of order by dates, so I have sequenced entries by page number and name of deceased for easier referral. Standard abbreviations of adm - administrator; adms - administrators; admx - administratrix; sec/sec's - security/securities; gdn - guardian have been used. In some cases a T preceding the abbreviation means temporary appointment. Entries marked by astrict (*) indicated those also found with Administrator Letters on estates in Taylor County, GA "Letters Testamentary & Administration, Vols. A & B, 1856-1917". Also added from the latter books were entries for which no bonds were noted or the Clerk of Superior Court was County Administrator.

CGGS SERVICE DIRECTORY

The purpose of this directory is to publicize genealogical services offered by our members. It is a FREE service for members only. If you need help please correspond directly with the member listed in this directory -- do not write to the society for referrals. If you would like to be listed in this service directory, please write the Corresponding Secretary for an application form.

Some members listed in this directory may charge for their services, others may offer free services. The amount a member charges is up to the member. The society does not know who charges and who does not, neither does the society recommend one member over another.

THE GURR-DUPREE CONNECTION

Contributed by: Geri G. JORDAN,

The earliest listing I find on Daniel GURR is in Virginia Taxpayers, Prince George Co., 1781-87. By 1790 Daniel GURR had moved his family (2 males over 16, 2 males under 16 and 3 females) to Camden District, Richland County in South Carolina. There, he and his son John owned extensive properties. John, born in VA in 1784 married Martha ROWAN in SC. Daniel must have died before the 1830 census. John and family moved to Houston County, GA where the first record I find was in Deed Book "E" - showing John GURR purchased Lot No. 162 in 9th Dist. on 10-7-1833. Deed Book "F" show John GURR Sr on 1-27-1836 purchased Lot No. 163 in the same district. It is interesting that he purchased this lot from Simon DUPREE.

John apparently owned land in Dooly County while living in Houston County. Records in Houston show sale of 202½ acres in 12th Dist of Dooly sold to Robert & William GURR 11-29-1856. I believe they were nephews of John Sr., who must have died by this time. The sellers were Martha GURR, Samuel GURR Sr., James E. STOKES, John GURR and Thomas GURR.

Son, Thomas married Martha K. COLLINS whose sister, Lucy A.M. COLLINS married Robert GURR. Thomas enlisted in the Civil War on 3 March 1864 at Ft. Valley. He was captured at Marietta, GA on 3 July 1864. On July 13, he was sent from the Military prison in Louisville, KY to Camp Morton in Indianapolis, IN where he died on July 18. He is buried in grave 967 in Greenlawn Cemetery in Indianapolis. Martha K. received widows pension of $100 in 1891. Pension continued thru 1898. I do not know when Martha moved from Houston to Dooly Co., where she remained till her death 23 Feb.1898. Her son, T.M. GURR Sr., was made administrator of her estate which consisted of 100 acres more or less - lots 118 & 139 in 2nd Dist., Dooly Co.

Thomas Moses GURR Sr., married and had a son while he was quite young. I am hoping someone can help me identify his first wife, my great grandmother. In 1870 census, he is living with mother Martha. In 1880 census, he and his son are living with mother Martha.

Thomas Moses GURR Jr., grew up and married Alma DUPREE. They left Dooly Co., for Ware Co., in early 1900's. Mother Martha GURR is well remembered as a good christian woman. Martha, Lucy GURR and Margaret GURR were baptized at Snow Methodist Church in 1845. Martha and many of her family are buried at Snow, including Thomas Moses GURR Sr and Jr.

Much has been written about the Dupree's throughout Georgia. My chart is made up of the Dupree's I have researched or have knowledge of. I hope someone will help me find the name of my great grandmother. Jeremiah H. DUPREE Jr died 2 June 1883. In the 1870 Dooly census he was living with his parents. In 1880 census he is widowed with two girls. He then married and had infant son. Robert L. DUPREE was made guardian of Alma and Eva. It appears that 100 acres of land must have been set aside for the three children. Alma sold her 33+ acres before moving to Ware County in early 1900's with her husband and family. Anne Eve remained in Dooly, marrying Dolce FAULK, son of John FAULK and Henrietta GURR FAULK. I have no information on their half brother.

BIBLE OF BRITTAIN J. WOMMACK & JANE STEPHENS

Contributed by: Bobby F. STOKES, [redacted].

The Bible was passed down to their daughter, Melissa Ann Wommack Harvill and then to her daughter, Annie Catherine Harvill Johnson and from her to her son George Lawson Johnson. The title page shows the Bible was published by A.H. Holman & Co., No 930 Arch Street, Philadelphia 1873. The contributor transcribed the entries on October 1, 1989. He suggests the records in this bible may have been copied from an earlier one but points out there were conflicting dates on the marriage of the principal parties. On a separate page there was written a certification type entry which was unsigned indicating the principals were united by me on 9 April 1839 which conflicts with the marriage record page which states they were married on 9 October 1839. [Editor: Walton County Marriage Records show Britton WAMMOCK and Jane STEVENS were married on 28 September 1839]

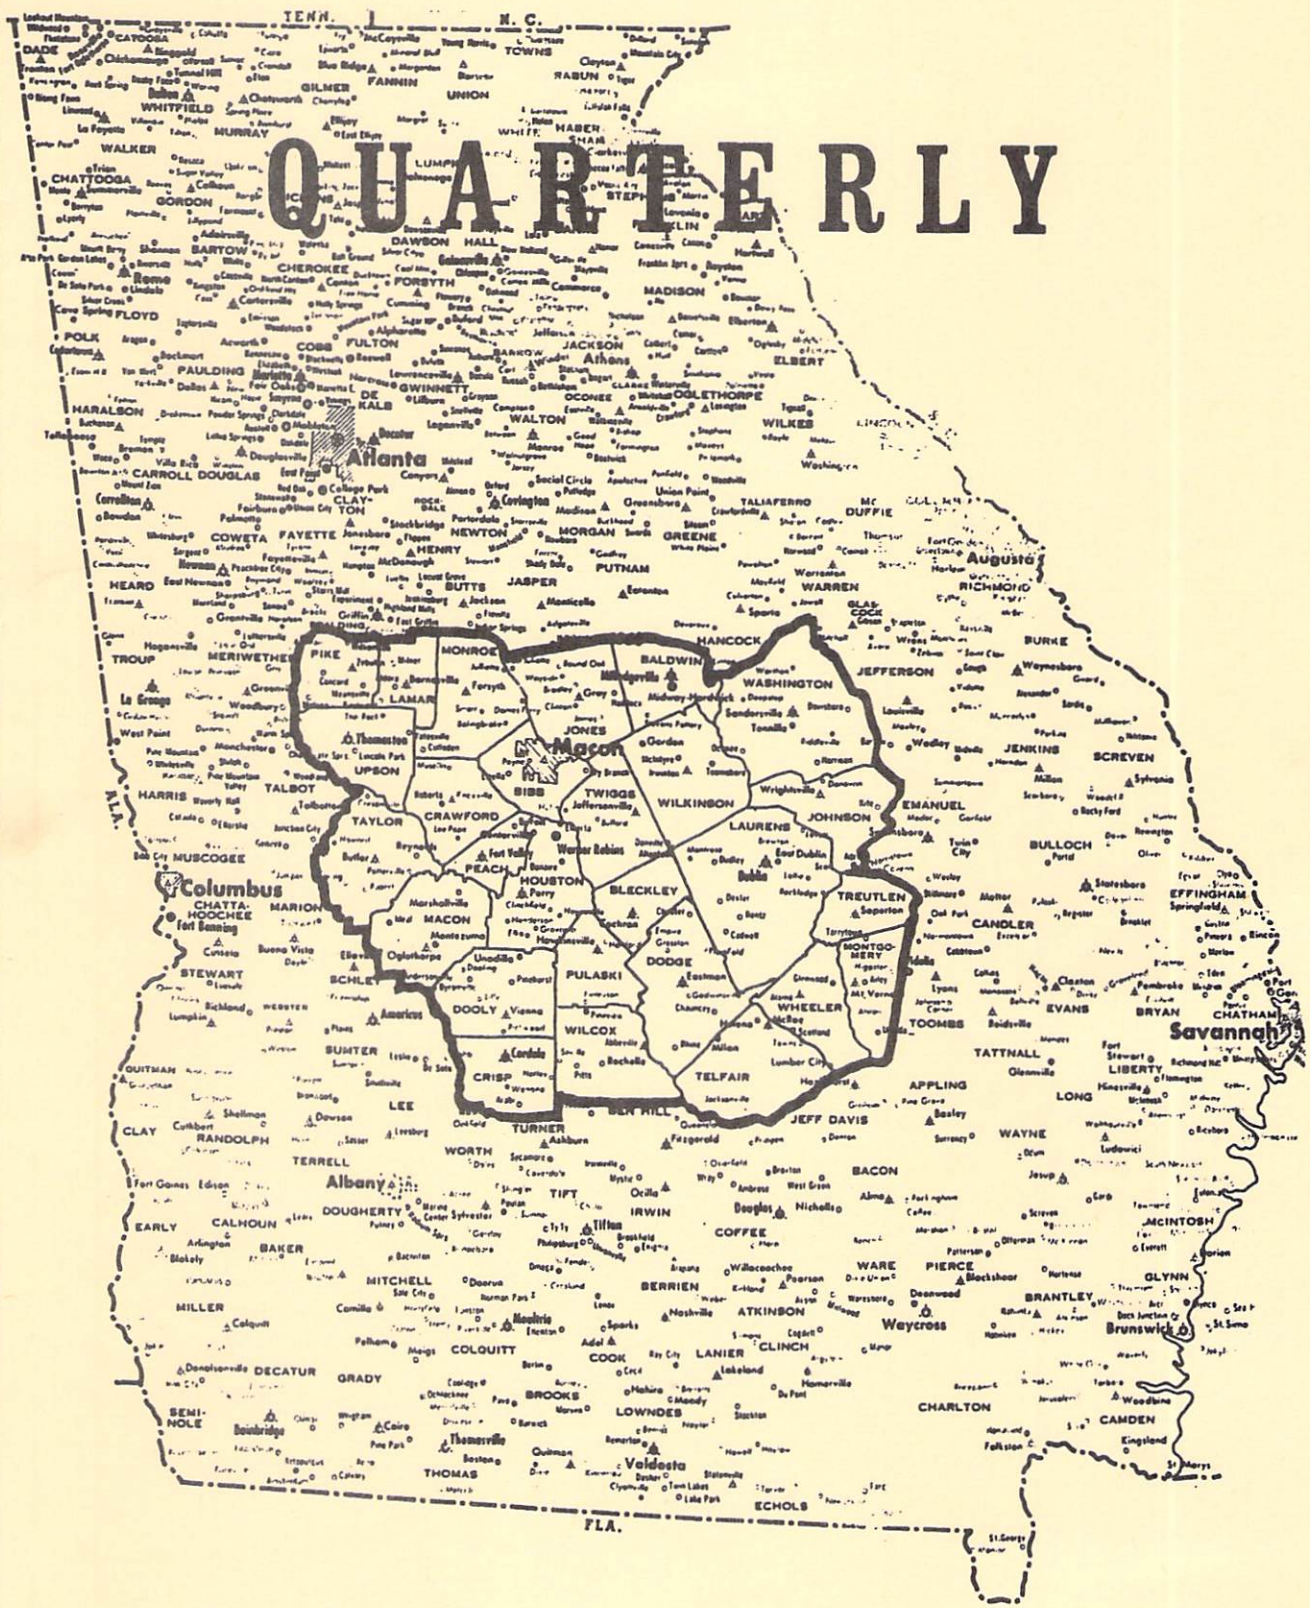
CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.



QUARTERLY

1996 Vol. 18, No. 3

CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.
POST OFFICE BOX 2024
WARNER ROBINS, GEORGIA 31099-2024

Non-Profit
Tax Exempt
Org. GA

ORGANIZATION: The CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, Inc. was organized in October 1978 by James T. Martin of Warner Robins, Georgia. In February 1981 the Society was incorporated as a non-profit organization under the law of the State of Georgia. The U.S. Internal Revenue Service has determined that the society is a tax-exemption organization under Section 501(c)(3), U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The Society is governed by a Board of Directors consisting of the elected and appointed officers and six elected Directors.

AREA: The Society's geographical area of primary interest consists of twenty-seven contiguous counties located in central Georgia. They are: BALDWIN, BIBB, BLECKLEY, CRAWFORD, CRISP, DODGE, DOOLY, HOUSTON, JOHNSON, JONES, LAMAR, LAURENS, MACON, MONROE, MONTGOMERY, PEACH, PIKE, PULASKI, TAYLOR, TELFAIR, TREUTLEN, TWIGGS, UPSON, WASHINGTON, WHEELER, WILCOX and WILKINSON.

PURPOSE: The purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

To collect, preserve and disseminate knowledge and information with reference to genealogical and related historical, biographical and heraldic data;

To inculcate and promote interest in research in these fields;

To stimulate and provide instruction in the use of efficient methods and the adherence to principles of accuracy and thoroughness in research;

To champion ethical standards and to discourage and oppose incompetent and disreputable practices or researchers;

To foster careful documentation and otherwise promote scholarly writing;

To issue publications, and

To promote the collection and the preservation of local records which are of genealogical or historical value.

MEMBERSHIP: Membership in the Society is open to any person interested in promoting the objectives stated above. Annual dues for 1995 are: $20.00 for individual membership; $25.00 for family membership (husband and wife, or two related persons in same household).

TRAINING: At least twice each year the Society conducts classes for beginner genealogists. These classes are free for members in good standing.

WORKSHOP: The Society plans to hold an all day workshop once each year, complete with exhibits, for members and the public. The registration fee will be set to cover the Society's cost and may vary from year to year, depending upon prices charged for food, meeting facilities, speaker fees, etc.

PROJECTS: The Society undertakes special projects for preservation of genealogical and historical information, such as: microfilming old newspapers, abstracting and publishing county court records, federal census records, cemetery records, etc.

PUBLICATIONS: The Society publishes a monthly NEWSLETTER and a QUARTERLY. The QUARTERLY is published four times per year as number 1 thru 4 and is mailed to all members in good standing. The annual volume number represents the years in existence. Many other societies, who are members, receive our QUARTERLY. QUERIES, from members only, are published in the QUARTERLY free of charge. There is no limit as to the number of queries

which a member may submit. BOOK REVIEWS are published when a copy of the book has been received by the Society. After review these books are donated to the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, GA., whose holdings are one of the largest in the southeast. Members are encourage to submit ARTICLES FOR PUBLICATION in the QUARTERLY, and extra long articles may be serialized. The QUARTERLY is not copyrighted and anyone is welcome to make proper use of the contents; however, the use of articles quoted from other published sources is prohibited without permission from the copyright holder. Appropriate credit will be appreciated. The QUARTERLY is not sold by subscription. Current and back issues may be purchased from the Society when available. The Society welcomes the opportunity to publish FAMILY PEDIGREE CHARTS for members. Mimimum coverage of four generations is required. Our computer designed charts provided for as much information on the fifth generation as the second, third and fourth - most charts provide much less. Give us as much complete information as possible on available forms and separate paper.

MEETINGS: The Society holds regular monthly meetings with planned programs. These meetings are currently held at the Flint Electric Building, 1600 Elberta Road, Warner Robins, Georgia at 7pm on the third Thursday of each month. In addition to the program, time permitting, a question and answer session is usually conducted for the benefit of members who have a problem with their research, or who has found a better way for accomplishing their work. Visitors and guest are always welcome to attend regular meetings of the Society. Our current membership covers many states and we invite you to join our Society. For a membership application write to the Corresponding Secretary at address shown in the heading above or call (912) 953-3114.

The death of Bill Henry left a void in the ranks of CGGS that can not be filled. We depended on him for so many things, one of which was the position as editor of the Quarterly. Volunteering for the position of temporary chairman of the publications committee and temporary editor of the quarterly was not an easy decision to make but someone had to do it. I stated to the society that I would take the job only if members would do the research and contribute material for publication.

The response was immediate and enthusiastic. I selected certain counties in our area and provided a list of microfilm numbers in the Washington Library in Macon to begin working on. Ten members signed up when the list was presented at the next meeting. The first articles for publication were sent to me two weeks later.

This quarterly is the result of their work. I want to thank each one of them. Their names appear on their articles or on the CONTENTS page. In addition to those named, I want to express thanks to Danni Haas who typed some work that was handwritten.

In addition, I have almost enough material on hand for the next quarterly and varying amounts for the next four quarterlies after that and more volunteers to research and type. THANK EACH OF YOU.

At this time the Board of Directors is serving as the publications committee with the addition of James and Faith Turnipseed as co-editors of the newsletter. James Martin is service directory editor and helps ion many other ways. Our newsletter is one of the best and we appreciate the work the Turnipseeds do on it. Other members of the committee continue to do special work.

We plan to continue publishing this type material in future issues, devoting most of the space to courthouse records prior to 1875. Much of it will be serialized over several issues. Family histories will not be published. Family records from Bibles are important sources of information so please send them. We need to know the date of publication of the Bible if is still in it, the location of the family recorded in it and the present owner of the Bible. Cemetery inscriptioins are very important, especially small ones in places not easily found or reached. All markers in the cemetery must be copied. Please contact me before sending records of larger cemeteries because they may be of a later date than we will use.

We will do our best to give you a quarterly that will be both interesting and informative each time we send it. Just overlook the errors and enjoy the material in it.

Sincerely,

Victor R. Myrick

Temporary chairman and editor.

CGGS MEMBERSHIP RESEARCH DIRECTORY 1995-1996

(Additions to Vol. 18, No. 2, 1996)

This directory of 88 names contains a list of up to ten ancestors being researched by members of the Central Georgia Genealogical Society, current for years 1995/1996. It is a continuation of the 91 names contained in our last issue. The directory was last published in CGGS Quarterly Vol. 17, No's. 1 through 4, (1995) for members current for the years 1994 and/or 1995. Ancestors in that or earlier directories are not repeated here unless they were resubmitted during the 1995-1996 membership years. If more than one submission was received, only the latest is included. Late submissions will be included in subsequent 1996 Quarterly issues. Use the "member" number, in the right hand column, to find the member's name and address in the CGGS Membership Roster which follows on page 002. An (*) following the "member's" number indicates research for African-American families.

HARRISON - BRASWELL - McKINNEY - REYNOLDS

I am looking for my family of HARRISON, BRASWELL, McKINNEY and REYNOLDS for a long time. I have recently found that David M. BRASWELL m Penelope WILLIFORD in Crawford Co, Ga Sept 15, 1842. His Grandfather David BRASWELL moved to Ga from NC some time in the early 1800's. Does anyone know who his wife was and names of his children ? I think one of his sons was William BRASWELL, wifes name Sarah ? This would be the father and mother of David 11. Is there anyone else doing research on this family. Any help would be appreciated.

Henry HARRISON and wife Lucinda moved to Alabama ab 1838. He was listed in a Grant from Dale Co, Alabama at that time.Family tradition says his son William was born in Oglethrope, Ga. Does anyone know who Lucinda's parents were ? Henry was born ab 1817 according to the census of 1850 Coffee Co, Alabama.

William HARRISON married Mary McKINNEY, daughter of Joseph McKINNEY and his wife Malinda ? Does anyone know who their parents were. A son of David M. BRASWELL, William H married Gertrude REYNOLDS b 1850 in Ga. There was a Charles J. REYNOLDS living in Crawford Co, Ga. William and Gertrude named their first child Charles. I have not found any boys in the Braswell Family.

A Charity WILLIFORD in 1840 census of Crawford who has two girls between 20/30. Could this be the mother of Penelope who married David M. BRASWELL ? Was John or William WILLIFORD her father.
I will pay any expence to anyone who can help me with this.

QUARTERLY

1996 Vol. 18, No. 4

CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.
POST OFFICE BOX 2024
WARNER ROBINS, GEORGIA 31099-2024

Non-Profit
Tax Exempt
Org. GA

ORGANIZATION: The CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, Inc. was organized in October 1978 by James T. Martin of Warner Robins, Georgia. In February 1981 the Society was incorporated as a non-profit organization under the law of the State of Georgia. The U.S. Internal Revenue Service has determined that the society is a tax-exemption organization under Section 501(c)(3), U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The Society is governed by a Board of Directors consisting of the elected and appointed officers and six elected Directors.

AREA: The Society's geographical area of primary interest consists of twenty-seven contiguous counties located in central Georgia. They are: BALDWIN, BIBB, BLECKLEY, CRAWFORD, CRISP, DODGE, DOOLY, HOUSTON, JOHNSON, JONES, LAMAR, LAURENS, MACON, MONROE, MONTGOMERY, PEACH, PIKE, PULASKI, TAYLOR, TELFAIR, TREUTLEN, TWIGGS, UPSON, WASHINGTON, WHEELER, WILCOX and WILKINSON.

PURPOSE: The purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

To collect, preserve and disseminate knowledge and information with reference to genealogical and related historical, biographical and heraldic data;

To inculcate and promote interest in research in these fields;

To stimulate and provide instruction in the use of efficient methods and the adherence to principles of accuracy and thoroughness in research;

To champion ethical standards and to discourage and oppose incompetent and disreputable practices or researchers;

To foster careful documentation and otherwise promote scholarly writing;

To issue publications, and

To promote the collection and the preservation of local records which are of genealogical or historical value.

MEMBERSHIP: Membership in the Society is open to any person interested in promoting the objectives stated above. Annual dues for 1995 are: $20.00 for individual membership; $25.00 for family membership (husband and wife, or two related persons in same household).

TRAINING: At least twice each year the Society conducts classes for beginner genealogists. These classes are free for members in good standing.

WORKSHOP: The Society plans to hold an all day workshop once each year, complete with exhibits, for members and the public. The registration fee will be set to cover the Society's cost and may vary from year to year, depending upon prices charged for food, meeting facilities, speaker fees, etc.

PROJECTS: The Society undertakes special projects for preservation of genealogical and historical information, such as: microfilming old newspapers, abstracting and publishing county court records, federal census records, cemetery records, etc.

PUBLICATIONS: The Society publishes a monthly NEWSLETTER and a QUARTERLY. The QUARTERLY is published four times per year as number 1 thru 4 and is mailed to all members in good standing. The annual volume number represents the years in existence. Many other societies, who are members, receive our QUARTERLY. QUERIES, from members only, are published in the QUARTERLY free of charge. There is no limit as to the number of queries

which a member may submit. BOOK REVIEWS are published when a copy of the book has been received by the Society. After review these books are donated to the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, Georgia, whose holdings are one of the largest in the southeast. Members are encouraged to submit ARTICLES FOR PUBLICATION in the QUARTERLY, and extra long articles may be serialized. The QUARTERLY is not copyrighted and anyone is welcome to make proper use of the contents; however, the use of articles quoted from other published sources is prohibited without permission from the copyright holder. Appropriate credit will be appreciated. The QUARTERLY is not sold by subscription. Current and back issues may be purchased from the Society when available. The Society welcomes the opportunity to publish FAMILY PEDIGREE CHARTS for members. Minimum coverage of four generations is required. Our computer designed charts provide for as much information on the fifth generation as the second, third and fourth - most charts provide much less. Give us as much complete information as possible on available forms and separate paper.

MEETINGS: The Society holds regular monthly meetings with planned programs. These meetings are currently held at the Flint Electric Building, 1600 Elberta Road, Warner Robins, Georgia at 7pm on the third Thursday of each month. In addition to the program, time permitting, a question and answer session is usually conducted for the benefit of members who have a problem with their research, or who has found a better way for accomplishing their work. Visitors and guests are always welcome to attend regular meeting of the Society. Our current membership covers many states and we invite you to join our society. For a membership application writhe to the Corresponding secretary at address shown in the heading above or call (912) 9 5 3 - 3 1 1 4.

EDITORS PAGE

After long and careful deliberation and after finding that no one else was anxious to do it, I have finally agreed to become permanent editor of the quarterly and chairman of the publication committee. I have physical limitations and sometimes must work slowly so be patient if the next one ot two quarterliees are late. So far I have had wonderful cooperation and assistance from the membership and know this will continue. I am in the process of forming a publications committee to be responsible for certain parts of the work. Remember that all of the work of publications is done by volunteers and it is no easy task.

Please renew your menbership if you have not already done so. Each year we put a lot of effort into getting new members and each year we have a number who do not renew. If you feel that the society is not meeting your needs or is not giving you the services you expected, please let us know and we will do our best to give you the help you need.

Even though you do not live in the central Georgia area, there are things that you can do to help the society and be a part of its work. First of all is to be a member. Second, send in queries for publication. By doing this you could find the person with the solution to the problem you have been working on for years. If you have copied all the inscriptions in a cemetery in this area, especially small isolated ones, send this in for publication. We are constantly looking for records from family Bibles in this area. The Bible in your trunk may have just the record that others are looking for.

So join us, send in queries, send in cemetery and Bible records, and let us know how we may be of greatest help to you.

Victor R. Myrick

Publication Committee Chairman and Quarterly Editor.

BOND FAMILY CEMETERY
TWIGGS COUNTY
Contributed by Benjamin F.Phillips
Copied 3 Oct 1996

From macon go east on I-16. Take exit 6 (Sgoda Road) and turn left. Go about one mile and turn left on Old Marion Road. Go about one half mile and you will see the cemetery on the right on top of a small hill. It is somewhat oergrown but you can get around in it.

HINSON & BARNES FAMILY CEMETERY
TWIGGS COUNTY
Contributed by Benjamin F.Phillips

Leave Macon on I-16. Take Exit 6 and turn left on Sgoda Road. Follow this road to the end if it. Turn right on Riggins Mill Road. Go about one half mile and turn right on the first paved road. The cemetery is about one mile and on the left. It is surrounded by a chain link fence and is kept up. Some markers cannot be read and others are difficult to read.

STUBBS CEMETERY
BIBB COUNTY
Contributed by Benjamin F.Phillips

This cemetery is located about two hundred yards off Barnes Ferry Road. The only entrance to it is overgrown and hard to get to. Park at Stubbs Church and take a path directly in front of the church to it. You can see highway 257 from the cemetery. The cemetery is very overgrown and there are probably many graves that could be found by cleaning off the whole cemetery. Markers were copied on 9 Oct 1996.

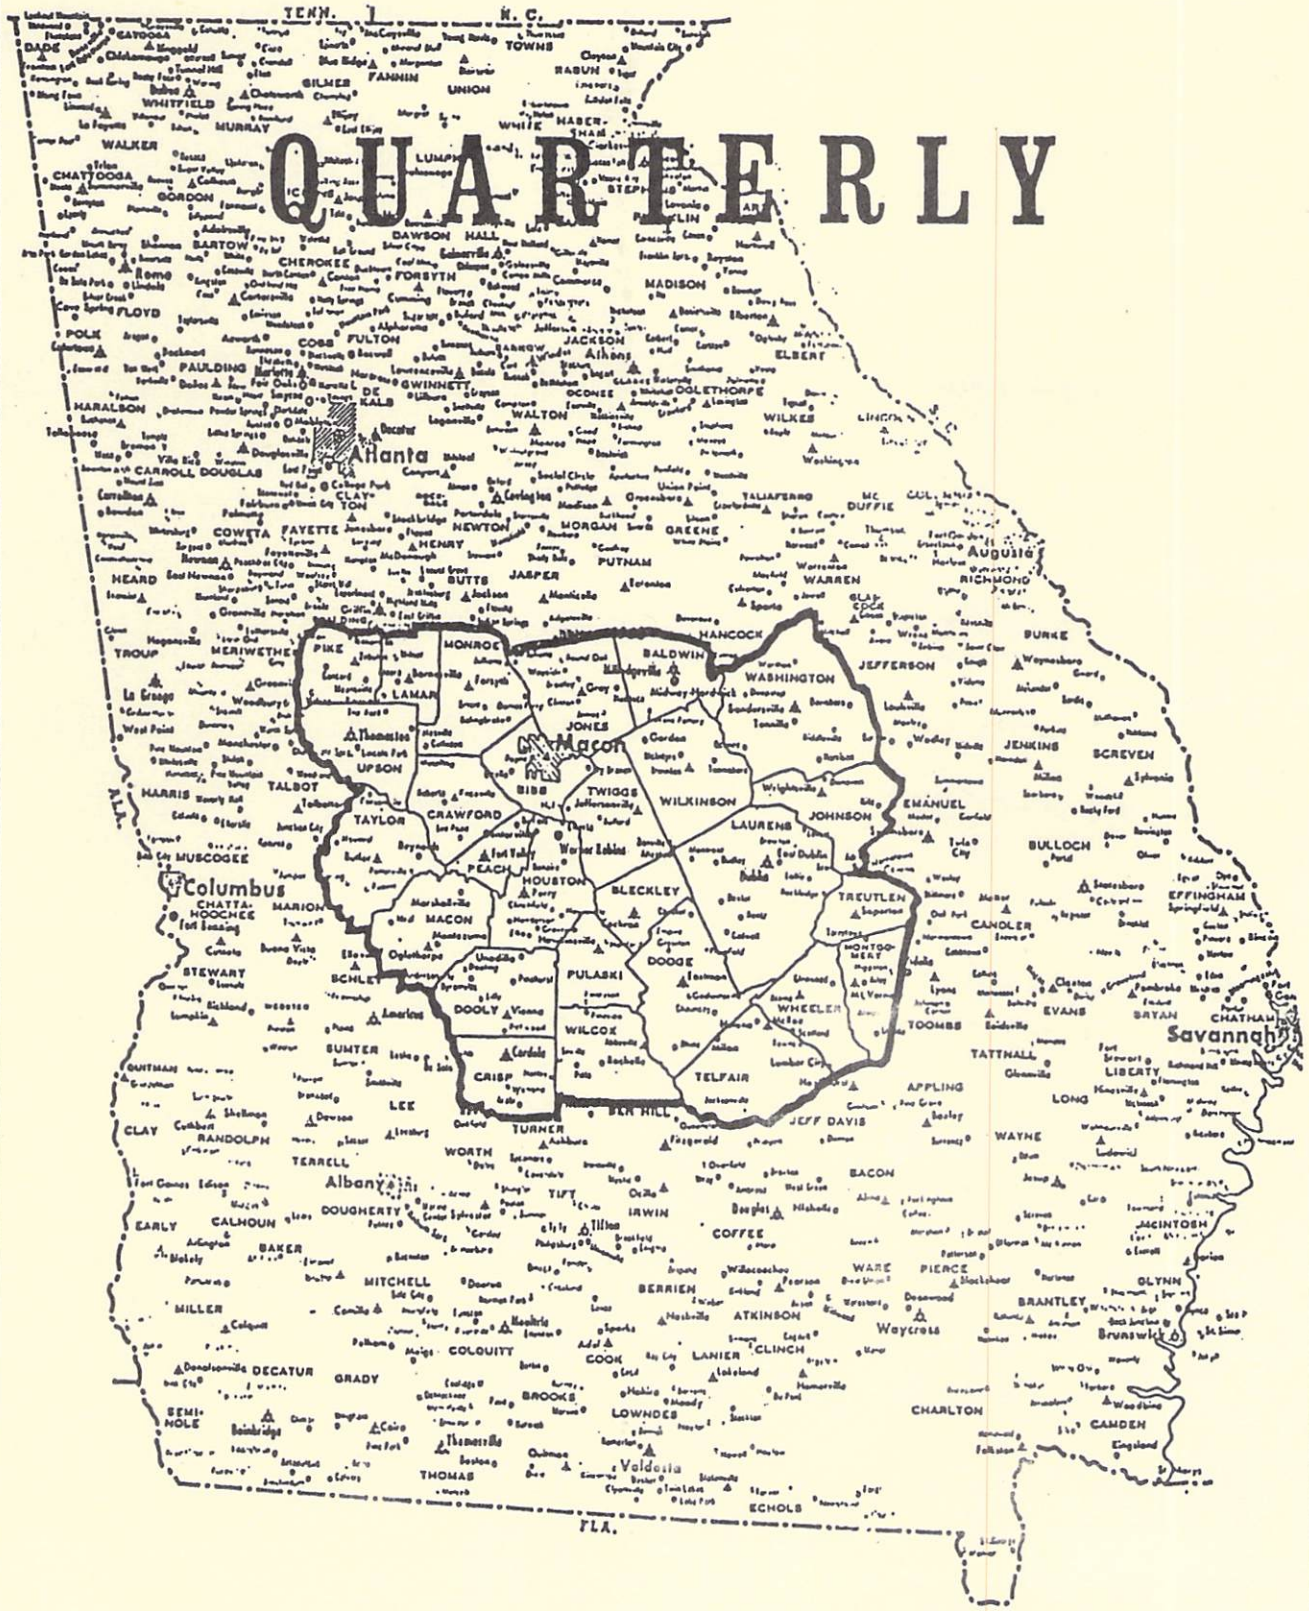
CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.



QUARTERLY

Vol.19, No.1 1997

CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.
POST OFFICE BOX 2024
WARNER ROBINS, GEORGIA 31099-2024

Non-Profit
Tax Exempt
Org. GA

ORGANIZATION: The CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, Inc. was organized in October 1978 by James T. Martin of Warner Robins, Georgia. In February 1981 the Society was incorporated as a non-profit organization under the law of the State of Georgia. The U.S. Internal Revenue Service has determined that the society is a tax-exemption organization under Section 501(c)(3), U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The Society is governed by a Board of Directors consisting of the elected and appointed officers and six elected Directors.

AREA: The Society's geographical area of primary interest consists of twenty-seven contiguous counties located in central Georgia. They are: BALDWIN, BIBB, BLECKLEY, CRAWFORD, CRISP, DODGE, DOOLY, HOUSTON, JOHNSON, JONES, LAMAR, LAURENS, MACON, MONROE, MONTGOMERY, PEACH, PIKE, PULASKI, TAYLOR, TELFAIR, TREUTLEN, TWIGGS, UPSON, WASHINGTON, WHEELER, WILCOX and WILKINSON.

PURPOSE: The purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

To collect, preserve and disseminate knowledge and information with reference to genealogical and related historical, biographical and heraldic data;

To inculcate and promote interest in research in these fields;

To stimulate and provide instruction in the use of efficient methods and the adherence to principles of accuracy and thoroughness in research;

To champion ethical standards and to discourage and oppose incompetent and disreputable practices or researchers;

To foster careful documentation and otherwise promote scholarly writing;

To issue publications, and

To promote the collection and the preservation of local records which are of genealogical or historical value.

MEMBERSHIP: Membership in the Society is open to any person interested in promoting the objectives stated above. Annual dues for 1995 are: $20.00 for individual membership; $25.00 for family membership (husband and wife, or two related persons in same household).

TRAINING: At least twice each year the Society conducts classes for beginner genealogists. These classes are free for members in good standing.

WORKSHOP: The Society plans to hold an all day workshop once each year, complete with exhibits, for members and the public. The registration fee will be set to cover the Society's cost and may vary from year to year, depending upon prices charged for food, meeting facilities, speaker fees, etc.

PROJECTS: The Society undertakes special projects for preservation of genealogical and historical information, such as: microfilming old newspapers, abstracting and publishing county court records, federal census records, cemetery records, etc.

PUBLICATIONS: The Society publishes a monthly NEWSLETTER and a QUARTERLY. The QUARTERLY is published four times per year as number 1 thru 4 and is mailed to all members in good standing. The annual volume number represents the years in existence. Many other societies, who are members, receive our QUARTERLY. QUERIES, from members only, are published in the QUARTERLY free of charge. There is no limit as to the number of queries

which a member may submit. BOOK REVIEWS are published when a copy of the book has been received by the Society. After review these books are donated to the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, Georgia, whose holdings are one of the largest in the southeast. Members are encouraged to submit ARTICLES FOR PUBLICATION in the QUARTERLY, and extra long articles may be serialized. The QUARTERLY is not copyrighted and anyone is welcome to make proper use of the contents; however, the use of articles quoted from other published sources is prohibited without permission from the copyright holder. Appropriate credit will be appreciated. The QUARTERLY is not sold by subscription. Current and back issues may be purchased from the Society when available. The Society welcomes the opportunity to publish FAMILY PEDIGREE CHARTS for members. Minimum coverage of four generations is required. Our computer designed charts provide for as much information on the fifth generation as the second, third and fourth - most charts provide much less. Give us as much complete information as possible on available forms and separate paper.

MEETINGS: The Society holds regular monthly meetings with planned programs. These meetings are currently held at the Flint Electric Building, 1600 Elberta Road, Warner Robins, Georgia at 7pm on the third Thursday of each month. In addition to the program, time permitting, a question and answer session is usually conducted for the benefit of members who have a problem with their research, or who has found a better way for accomplishing their work. Visitors and guests are always welcome to attend regular meeting of the Society. Our current membership covers many states and we invite you to join our society. For a membership application writhe to the Corresponding secretary at address shown in the heading above or call (912) 9 5 3 - 3 1 1 4.

EDITORS PAGE

There are several items new since the last issue that I think all members of CGGS will find intetresting.

1. This issue should reach you on time or only a few days late. It is being mailed to the publisher on March 17. Getting a quarterly together requires more time and effort than you can understand until you attempt to do it.

2. We have arranged with the publisher to mail the quarterlies from Utica, Kentucky, where they are printed rather that having them sent to Warner Robins and mailing them ourselves. Mailing quarterlies is another job requiring much work. Editing and mailing is all done by local members who are volunteers.

3. A publication committee is in place and working. Some members are permanent because the work they do is repeated in each issue of the quarterly. Rotating members serve while they are abstracting materail for publication. Committee members are as follows.

PERMANENT MEMBERS.

Victor R. Myrick. Chairman of publication committee and editor of the quarterly

Homer Hobbs. Ex Officio.

Chuck Larsen and Jane Larsen. These two people do a number of jobs including processing and mailing book orders, preparing mailing labels, mailing the newsletter and other mailings to the whole mambership.

Jim Martin. Membership research directory and service directory.

Addie Howell. Editor of queries.

Danni Haas and Dawn Brasfield. Preparing material on the computer for publication.

Vacant position. Newsletter editor.

ROTATING MEMBERS.

Rudy Dennis, Joyce Green, Frances Logue, John Daniel, Jaunita Stevens, Sherri Nelson, M.L.Clark, Helen Hudson, Georgette Lipford, Lavonia Hogg, Nikki Hix.

4. Our books are selling at a rapid pace. Two weeks ago our sales outlet in Eastman turned in over $300.00. This week we had an order for over $500.00 from one library and over $200.00 from another one. This in addition to our regular smaller sales.

5. Our members are still doing an outstanding job of abstracting material for publication. I appreciate this. We are trying to make each issue better that the previous one.

Victor R. Myrick.
Publication committee chairman and quarterly editor.

O'DANIEL CEMETERY

Contributed by Dennis Bryant and Victor Myrick.
From Macon, travel south on the Cochran highway to Bullard and turn left on Bullard Road. Go about one mile past Beech Springs Church and the cemetery is on the left side of the highway. It is enclosed by a wrought iron fence but is beginning to be overgrown.

Two graves marked by field stones. Two graves with footstones. Metal post which held a funeral home marker which is gone. A lady living in a house nearby said this was Cap Smith, the last person buried in the cemetery. He was cremated.

MONTGOMERY COUNTY GEORGIA DEEDS

Contributed by Victor R. Myrick

The early deeds of this county show that many individuals were given illegal warrants for huge quantities of land. The deeds made from these warrants state that the land had been surveyed, but it had not. A grant for one thousand acres was the largest amount a person could receive according to state law but some people received grants totalling more than one million acres. To understand the magnitude of the fraud, consider this. Montgomery County contained 407,680 acres. Grants totalling 7,436,995 acres were given. As late as 1909 people who had these ancient grants in their possession were still sending agents to the county to try to locate and claim the land !!!!!!

LESLIE FAMILY RECORD

Contributed by Victor R. Myrick.

(Ed. note: This is not a Bible record or a copy of a legal document. It is an ancient document prepared by Bethany Leslie Sanders for her daughter Minnie Sanders Hooks who distributed it later to family members.)

James Leslie was born in Scotland in 1750. After his wife died he came to America on a sailing ship, bringing his two children with him,his son Silas, who was born in 1780, and his daughter Sibby. Sibby died on the way over and was buried at sea. They landed at St.Marys Ga. Silas married Bethany Tyson and they had thirteen children. Three died young, one buried in Camden County, one in Baldwin county and one in Wilkinson county.

Their living children were these:
Rebecca Leslie married William Valentine.
Esther Leslie married Joshua Cobb.
Sallie Leslie married Allen Hardy.
Sibbie Leslie married Daniel Sanders.
Rachel Leslie married Robert Ridley.
Bethany Leslie married King Sanders.
Joel Leslie married Margarett Bloodworth.
Jackson Leslie married Mary Caroline Gainey and went to Alabama.

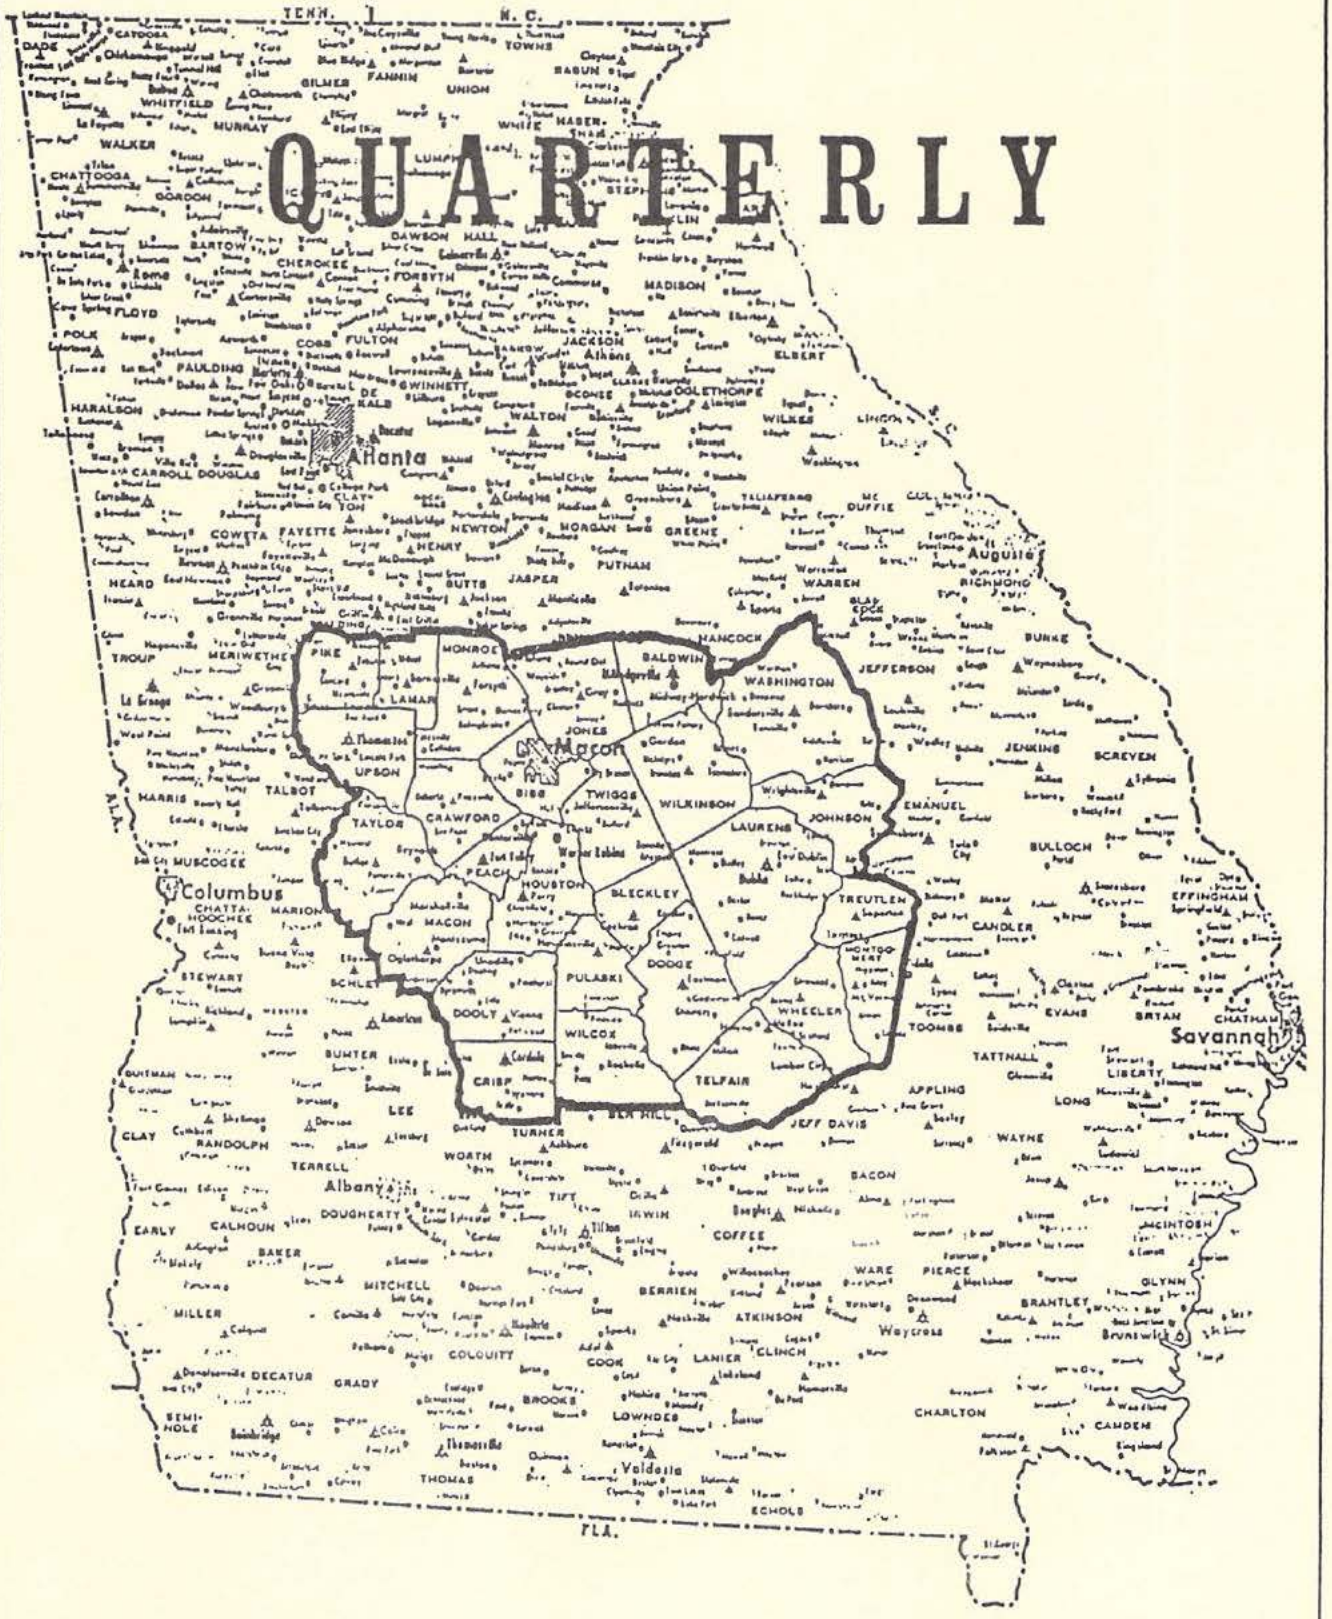
CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.



QUARTERLY

Vol.19, No.2 1997

CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.
POST OFFICE BOX 2024
WARNER ROBINS, GEORGIA 31099-2024

Non-Profit
Tax Exempt
Org. GA

ORGANIZATION: The CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, Inc. was organized in October 1978 by James T. Martin of Warner Robins, Georgia. In February 1981 the Society was incorporated as a non-profit organization under the law of the State of Georgia. The U.S. Internal Revenue Service has determined that the society is a tax-exemption organization under Section 501(c)(3), U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The Society is governed by a Board of Directors consisting of the elected and appointed officers and six elected Directors.

AREA: The Society's geographical area of primary interest consists of twenty-seven contiguous counties located in central Georgia. They are: BALDWIN, BIBB, BLECKLEY, CRAWFORD, CRISP, DODGE, DOOLY, HOUSTON, JOHNSON, JONES, LAMAR, LAURENS, MACON, MONROE, MONTGOMERY, PEACH, PIKE, PULASKI, TAYLOR, TELFAIR, TREUTLEN, TWIGGS, UPSON, WASHINGTON, WHEELER, WILCOX and WILKINSON.

PURPOSE: The purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

To collect, preserve and disseminate knowledge and information with reference to genealogical and related historical, biographical and heraldic data;

To inculcate and promote interest in research in these fields;

To stimulate and provide instruction in the use of efficient methods and the adherence to principles of accuracy and thoroughness in research;

To champion ethical standards and to discourage and oppose incompetent and disreputable practices or researchers;

To foster careful documentation and otherwise promote scholarly writing;

To issue publications, and

To promote the collection and the preservation of local records which are of genealogical or historical value.

MEMBERSHIP: Membership in the Society is open to any person interested in promoting the objectives stated above. Annual dues for 1995 are: $20.00 for individual membership; $25.00 for family membership (husband and wife, or two related persons in same household).

TRAINING: At least twice each year the Society conducts classes for beginner genealogists. These classes are free for members in good standing.

WORKSHOP: The Society plans to hold an all day workshop once each year, complete with exhibits, for members and the public. The registration fee will be set to cover the Society's cost and may vary from year to year, depending upon prices charged for food, meeting facilities, speaker fees, etc.

PROJECTS: The Society undertakes special projects for preservation of genealogical and historical information, such as: microfilming old newspapers, abstracting and publishing county court records, federal census records, cemetery records, etc.

PUBLICATIONS: The Society publishes a monthly NEWSLETTER and a QUARTERLY. The QUARTERLY is published four times per year as number 1 thru 4 and is mailed to all members in good standing. The annual volume number represents the years in existence. Many other societies, who are members, receive our QUARTERLY. QUERIES, from members only, are published in the QUARTERLY free of charge. There is no limit as to the number of queries

which a member may submit. BOOK REVIEWS are published when a copy of the book has been received by the Society. After review these books are donated to the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, Georgia, whose holdings are one of the largest in the southeast. Members are encouraged to submit ARTICLES FOR PUBLICATION in the QUARTERLY, and extra long articles may be serialized. The QUARTERLY is not copyrighted and anyone is welcome to make proper use of the contents; however, the use of articles quoted from other published sources is prohibited without permission from the copyright holder. Appropriate credit will be appreciated. The QUARTERLY is not sold by subscription. Current and back issues may be purchased from the Society when available. The Society welcomes the opportunity to publish FAMILY PEDIGREE CHARTS for members. Minimum coverage of four generations is required. Our computer designed charts provide for as much information on the fifth generation as the second, third and fourth - most charts provide much less. Give us as much complete information as possible on available forms and separate paper.

MEETINGS: The Society holds regular monthly meetings with planned programs. These meetings are currently held at the Flint Electric Building, 1600 Elberta Road, Warner Robins, Georgia at 7pm on the third Thursday of each month. In addition to the program, time permitting, a question and answer session is usually conducted for the benefit of members who have a problem with their research, or who has found a better way for accomplishing their work. Visitors and guests are always welcome to attend regular meeting of the Society. Our current membership covers many states and we invite you to join our society. For a membership application writhe to the Corresponding secretary at address shown in the heading above or call (912) 9 5 3 - 3 1 1 4.

Ed. Note: Several people worked on the 1996 index. I do not have a complete list of them so I did not include any names.

EDITORS PAGE.

I will call this the Editors Few Lines. For the last three months I have endured indescribable pain in my neck and shoulder because of bone spurs which have developed in my neck. This has severely limited my activities and has kept me housebound and bedridden much of the time.

After various medications and nerve blocks six different times, the doctors have decided that surgery to remove the spurs is a necessity. I am meeting with my docttor tomorrow, Aug. 4, to select a neurosurgeon and set things in motion for surgery.

Sorry the Quarterly is late but it couldn't be helped. I have good people working on material for publication and we will get the next one out just as soon as possible.

Victor R.Myrick

Quarterly Editor and Publication Committee Chairman.

NOTE: This surname index covers Quarterlies No. 1 through 4. Pages 1-66 are in No. 1, Pages 67-106 are in No. 2, Pages 107-151 are in No. 3 and Pages 152-203 are in No. 4. A dash between page numbers means that the name also appears on each page between such numbers. For example 63-66 means that the name appears on pages 63, 64, 65 and 66. Read carefully for a name may appear more than once on any designated page. All possible spellings for a surname should be checked.

WINDHAM BIBLE RECORD

78-131 Ms. Claire M. Dixon, [redacted] went to Columbus, MS to see three Bibles which she believed to belong to the Freeman family. They did not, but she carefully copied the family information contained in each. The owner Mrs. Elizabeth Ellenburg gave permission for publication. The front pages of this Bible were missing, and spelling is the original.

GARRISON

Looking for information on David GARRISON. In 1822-1872 Crawford Co, Ga Sesquecentennial he was listed as a deacon of the Mount Carmel Church which was established in 1826. The church was near Mount Carmel Academy. Information that I have indicates that David & his wife Elizabeth d- 1832 & 1835 and left several children, their estate was handled by administrators & guardians. I need to find out if this is my line. One of the childen was named Catherine which was my G-Grandmother's name. My family "Lore" says that my G-Grandmother Catherine GARRISON taught in a girls school before she was married in 1848. Was the Academy connected with an orphanage ? or could these children been schooled there ? I need to know if she was connected to the Academy. Are there any records of that Academy or early Mount Carmel Church ? The church was located near ar Musella, Ga. Can anyone help me with this problem ? Any information would be appreciated.
